Saint Luke's Gospel tells us of the multiplication of the bread and fish after Jesus' proclamation of the kingdom and the healing of the sick. In fact, with these three gestures, the Church wants to remind us of the mission to which we are always called: the proclamation of the kingdom through the word, of Christ as the healer of our wounds through the sacraments, and of his sacrifice on the cross in the Eucharist, where Christ remains as our nourishment. We need to feed others, once we experience Christ's feeding of us, with his word and the bread of life that we have shared. As we celebrate this great solemnity today, we give thanks to the Father for the gift of his only Son, who, through the power of the Holy Spirit, makes himself present in our lives. He opens up paths of new hope at difficult times in our life and continuously feeds us during our journey. How conscious are our community groups of the threefold actions found in today's Gospel? It would be worth trying to discuss each of them separately.

Evangelio de San Lucas nos habla de la multiplicación del pan y el pescado después de la proclamación de Jesús del Reino y la curación de los enfermos. De hecho, con estos tres gestos, la iglesia quiere recordarnos la misión a la que estamos llamados siempre: la proclamación del reino a través de la palabra de Cristo como el sanador de las heridas a través de los sacramentos y de su sacrificio en la Cruz en la Eucaristía, donde Christ permanece como nuestro alimento. Que necesitamos alimentar a otros, una vez que la experiencia de Cristo alimentar a nosotros, con su palabra y el pan de vida que hemos compartido. Al celebrar esta gran solemnidad hoy, damos gracias al padre por el don de su Hijo unigénito, quien, a través del poder del Espíritu Santo, se hace presente en nuestras vidas. Abre caminos de esperanza en tiempos difíciles en nuestra vida y nos alimenta continuamente durante nuestro viaje. ¿Conscientes de cómo son nuestros grupos comunitarios de las tres acciones encontradas en el Evangelio de hoy? Merecería la pena tratar de discutir cada uno de ellos por separado.

From the Desk of Father Kurt

This Sunday we celebrate Corpus Christi, in which we pay special tribute to the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. As Catholics we believe that every time the Eucharist is celebrated, the body, blood, soul, and divinity of Jesus Christ is made present for us. When we consume the host at Communion we receive the nourishment that we need to live Christian lives and become the body of Christ for others. Spending time before the Blessed Sacrament in adoration is a wonderful way for us to grow in our devotion and belief in the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.

Another way we can grow in our love for the Eucharist is by encouraging young men to consider the priesthood as a vocation, including our children and grandchildren. The truth is without priests there is no Eucharist. I am sure that most Catholics want to always be able to have access to the Eucharist and to priests in a time of need, but at the same time are hesitant in encouraging their children to consider priesthood. If we truly trust in the providence of God to provide the Eucharist and priests for the Church, then we must be open to the possibility that God might be calling our children to become priests.

Love in Christ,
Father Kurt Farrell

P.S.

Don't forget to sign your kids up for our Catholic Summer Bible Camp, Totus Tuus July 15th-19th, 2019.

Respect Life

Religious Freedom Week (Strength in Hope) takes place from June 22, the Memorial of Sts. Thomas More & John Fisher, through June 29, the Solemnity of Sts. Peter & Paul. Join Catholics across the country to pray and act for the freedom to serve faithfully and with integrity. "In the pilgrimage of this life, hidden with Christ in God and free from enslavement to wealth, they aspire to those riches which remain forever and generously dedicate themselves wholly to the advancement of the kingdom of God and to the reform and improvement of the temporal order in a Christian spirit. Among the trials of this life they find strength in hope, convinced that "the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come that will be revealed in us" (Rom.8:18).
