Questions of the Week

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

Mark 1:21-28

Mark frequently presents Jesus exorcising "unclean spirits" and speaks of Jesus' "fame" spreading early in his public ministry. What problems might this sudden and widespread fame cause Jesus and the disciples?

Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses spoke to the Israelites about the reality of true and false prophets. How should we discern today between true and false prophets?

1 Corinthians 7:32-35

Paul offers some practical marriage advice to the Corinthians as they await the return of Christ. What do you think about Paul's marital guidance?

It's That Time of Year Again...

If you are a registered parishioner using envelopes or online giving, and would like a copy of our records of your weekly envelope contributions, please e-mail Kris in the Parish Office: kris.martino@stannavon.com or call 860-673-9858, ext. 221. Note: Contributions to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal are mailed separately from the Archdiocese.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Lent begins Ash Wednesday, Feb 14, 2018!

Lent is a time for looking closely at our relationship with God, and how we are living out our faith. To help with this, the Adult Faith Formation Office has two special offerings:

Lenten Book Study Rediscover Catholicism

READ Matthew Kelly's Rediscover Catholicism, and explore how the Catholic faith is real and relevant today. FREE BOOKS are available in the Gathering Space

GATHER in Small Groups to pray, socialize and connect the book to your life:

- + At home: Form your own group with friends. Contact Ann DiStefano for materials & support
- + At church: Join one of our groups that meet in Room 3 - Sundays, 10:30am; Mondays, 7:15pm; Wednesdays, 7:15pm; Friday, 9:30am
- + While the kids are in CCD: Meet us in Room 227 at Avon Middle School for the 9am session or 5:45pm session

ACT out your faith by participating in Sandwich Sunday on March 18th. Bring meat, cheese & bread to make sandwiches for the homeless after all Masses. More details to come.

"The Word Among Us Daily Meditations" booklet

- Enjoy Mass readings and reflections for each day of Lent
- Read inspiring stories - including one featuring our own Fr. McHugh on page 81!
- FREE copies are available in the Gathering Space

EPHESIANS: DISCOVER YOUR INHERITANCE

St. Paul's letter to the Ephesians reveals many remarkable gifts that we as Christians are given in the Church. This letter tells us about the nature of the Church and shows us the great inheritance that awaits us as sons and daughters, adopted fully into the family of God. It reveals how God's great love for us can transform our daily lives. Ephesians will enrich your faith and show you how to live it out. This 8 week program will start on Ash Wednesday, February 14th at 9:30 AM in Conference Room #3. Group discussion is based on the questions in the workbook and is followed by a 30 minute video presented by Jeff Cavins. Once you are registered and purchase the $15 workbook, you can view any of the 8 videos online should you miss a session.

For more information or to register please call Janet Newman at 860-573-3446 or via email: wjnewman@sbcglobal.net.

CENACLES of the Marian Movement of Priests

Question: Is the cenacle primarily for priests?
Answer: No. In Message #34 (1-17-74), Our Lady introduces this question, "Why do I want them to come together in cenacle with me?" In this message she addresses herself to the priests, but what she tells them is also applicable to the laity. She wants all her children—priests, religious, laity, families, to gather together with her in cenacles of prayer, to pray with her and to learn how to love one another. Also, the cenacle helps us to deepen our understanding and live the obligations we have undertaken through our consecration to her

Immaculate Heart. We refer you to the message dated Nov. 1, 1973, "my Faithful Cohort." (#25)

Excerpt from Cenacles of the Marian Movement of Priests Purpose/Guide

Our cenacle meets every Monday at 7:15pm in the church.
 Come pray the Rosary with us.

In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are--the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" - Mk 1:23-25

HEARTS & SOULS

Ministering to body, mind and spirit, the Health Ministry offers blood pressure screening, health counseling and referrals to our community of faith. Office hours are generally the 2nd Sunday of each month from 8:15-11am in the Sacristy (2nd door on the left as you enter the vestibule of the church). No appointment necessary.

Communion For Shut-Ins

The Eucharistic ministers would be happy to bring Communion to those in our parish who are unable to come to church. Please call the Parish Office and leave your name and address if you wish to receive Communion 860-673-9858.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

When I reflect on the many years of my life, there are many people who were influential on my development as a person, a student, and a Christian. Through their graciousness and generosity, I was able to work through challenges and difficulties, becoming stronger in the end. They pushed me to become better than I was at the time and helped me to see what I could eventually become. Without them giving of themselves to me I am unsure where I would be today.

Because others were good stewards of the gifts and talents God gave them, I now strive to use wisely what I have been given as well. Yes, I spend much of my time on the road speaking in churches about stewardship and I write books and articles about this way of life, but my real desire is to impact the most those around me. I want my children to see how I am growing in this life and be an example to them. I want me and my wife to grow in generosity together. My hope is that my friends see a light in me and inquire about how and why it is there. Above all, I want to live with a graciousness and hospitality that others find welcoming.

I believe that through our kindness and grace-filled existence God can touch others, heal others, and embrace others. We are the hands and feet of Christ. May we, today and every day we hear his voice, harden not our hearts

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

"I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kin, and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him." (Dt 18:18)

Psalm:

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts. (Ps 95)

Second Reading:

I am telling you this for your own benefit, not to impose a restraint upon you, but for the sake of propriety and adherence to the Lord without distraction. (1 Cor 7:35)

Gospel:

All were amazed and asked one another, "What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him." His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee. (Mk 1:27-28)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

"The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes." Those gathered in the synagogue where Jesus taught had never heard anything like this before. They were used to the preaching of the well-educated scribes, but Jesus possessed something that those men lacked: authority. Instead of merely interpreting the laws of the prophets, Jesus presented a new vision, indeed, he shared the good news of the Gospel with his listeners.

We do not have the opportunity to stand in the presence of Jesus in the same way that those first-century Jews did, but nonetheless we can also stand in awe of his authority. His teachings are available to us through the sacred Scriptures that the Church has preserved and through the sacred tradition that the Church carries on. And in a special way, Christ's authority continues to inspire and guide us through the ministries of the papacy, episcopacy, and priesthood that Jesus established on our behalf while he was yet on earth.

As Catholics, we have a special share in the astonishing authority of Jesus through the hierarchy of the Church. Although this structure is often misunderstood or misinterpreted, it is actually an authority rooted in service and modeled after Christ who told his apostles, "The greatest among you must be your servant" (Mt 23:11).

This humble exercise of authority is contrary to the worldly search for power. And whenever we find ourselves in a position of authority, we too should strive to lead and direct others in the true spirit of Christian love and service. Chances are, if we truly imitate Christ in this way, people will be astonished at what they see.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

Jesus had a way of amazing the crowds. There was something very different about not only what he taught but how he taught it. He brought an authority to what he said that gave it a credibility that was not experienced elsewhere. His words were not only prophetic but rang true to the experience of the people, especially those who were poor, marginalized, victimized, lost, or forgotten. Do Jesus' words ring true to you? The Gospel message transcends time and space and has a profound relevancy in every generation. Jesus is still trying to point us toward our truth and have us see and accept who we are in God. Are you ready to hear this? We are asked to bring credibility to this same Gospel message by how we live our lives.

ARCHBISHOP'S
ANNUAL APPEAL
2017

January 8, 2018

Reverend John W. McHugh
289 Arch Road
Avon, CT 06001

Dear Father McHugh:

I am writing to congratulate you and the parishioners of Saint Ann Parish for your generous support of the 2017 Archbishop's Annual Appeal. The parish has responded to the call to be part of Moved by Mercy in a very gratifying way.

In every parish the success of our Annual Appeal depends in large part on the effort, enthusiasm, and commitment of the parish priest. I thank you for your leadership and all your efforts to present the Appeal in a positive light and to encourage its support by your parishioners.

I am confident that you will continue to help others to see that by their support of the Archbishop's Annual Appeal they are serving Christ himself through the many ministries, charities and spiritual works that benefit from their generosity.

Please communicate my heartfelt gratitude to your parishioners for their generous response, and be assured of my prayers and best wishes for you and for everyone at Saint Ann Parish. May God grant you a blessed 2018.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Leonard P. Blair

Most Reverend Leonard P. Blair

WELLNESS RETREAT - February 2-4, 2018

Our Lady of Calvary Retreat Center in Farmington is holding a Wellness Retreat from 7:00 pm on February 2, 2018 to 12:00 pm on February 4. It will be preceded by an optional soup supper from 5:30 to 6:30 on Friday evening. The World Health Organization says that wellness is "a state of complete physical, mental, and social well-being, and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity." Our retreat aims to provide you with information and tools to help improve your wellness and thus attain a higher quality of life. It will include a Quilling Workshop; presentation on good posture's importance and practices to improve it; presentation on improving and maintaining a healthy gut; presentation and Tea Tasting with Culteavo; time for quiet and meditation; time for fun and community. Offering is $250. Register online at OurLadyofCalvary.net or by phone at 860-677-8519.
