Important Ash Wednesday Information

We will be requiring sign-ups for Ash Wednesday similar to Christmas.

More information will be available in next weekend's bulletin, e-news & social media, including date/time the sign-up will "go live". The Ash Wednesday Schedule will be: Masses at 9am, 12:10pm and a Prayer service at 5:30pm.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

We have many offerings to keep you connected and enriched during social distancing!

Please visit: stannavon.org/zoom-tutorial for instructions on using Zoom and for links to access our Zoom video meetings.

The Kerygma:

- 1) God is Love and created us for relationship with Him.
- 2) When we make unloving choices (sin) we damage our relationship with God/self/others.
- 3) Jesus restores this relationship through his life, death and resurrection.
- 4) Jesus invites us to new life by living like Him now, and with Him forever.
- 5) When we accept Jesus' invitation, we receive an outpouring of the Holy Spirit to empower us to love.

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

St. Augustine states that "Jesus took His flesh from the flesh of Mary." Without Our Blessed Mother's "yes" to the invitation to become the Mother of Jesus, the Holy Eucharist would not be possible. When she consented, the Holy Spirit overshadowed her and the Infant Jesus was conceived in her womb. The Baby Jesus is therefore "flesh of her flesh". Because of this, we are now able to touch the Divinity of Christ through Our Lady in the Incarnation of Our Lord.

Reflection: The Holy Eucharist is the continuation of the Incarnation among us. We owe Our Lady a great debt of gratitude. Devotion to Our Lady should be an integral part of our prayer life. She is our Mother in the order of grace and will always assist us to receive Our Lord reverently and with grateful praise and thanksgiving. St. Louis Marie de Montfort taught that the surest way to Heaven is to Jesus through Mary.

Please join us each week as we probe the depths of this Sacrament of Sacraments.

PRO-LIFE MINISTRY

Diaper & Wipe Collection

God so loved the world that He gave us His only son. He gave him to us as a pre-born child that dwelled for nine months in the womb of his mother Mary. What a beautiful plan for the beginning of life.

Yet the tragedy of abortion robs children of this gift. Approximately 62 million babies were lost to abortion since Roe v. Wade and according to the WHO (World Health Organization) an estimated 500,000 in the U.S. in the first weeks of January 2021.

As followers of Christ we can advance the Culture of Life by supporting Mom's in Need. Please take the time to read a brief article on "Living the Gospel of Life" entitled "Serving Mom's in Need" by the USCCB, which can be found on our website under Ministries/Pro-Life.

It is the backdrop for our Pro-Life Ministry St. Valentine's Day Outreach to Two Hearts Pregnancy Crisis Center in Torrington. COVID has caused a lack of funding and more mom's seeking help from this amazing resource center.

Let's make a huge difference by donating diapers and wipes. We can't give hugs with our arms right now but give Huggies and Luvs (we will take any brand) are "hugs" from the heart! They can be left in the baby boxes found in the Gathering Space until Sunday, February 14th but we will accept them until February 21st.

Thank you in advance for your gifts from the heart!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

The Audacity of Holiness

Do you know a holy person? I'm not talking about piety — that's important, too, in its own way. But right now, I'm speaking of holiness.

St. Therese of Lisieux called holiness "a disposition of the heart that makes us humble and little in the arms of God, aware of our weakness, and confident — in the most audacious way — in His Fatherly goodness."

The holy person sees a storm on the horizon of life, and rather than give themselves over to fear and despair (natural and understandable reactions), regards the gathering winds as an opportunity to rely more fully on God. The holy person takes a bad situation and sanctifies it with charity and understanding that defies our fallen human nature.

Peter's mother-in-law was still in the throes of a fever when Jesus grasped her hand. It wasn't until she took his hand and allowed him to help her up that "the fever left her and she waited on them." Before the fever could leave her, she had to commit to holiness — to put her trust in him in a most audacious way. She had to find it within herself to lift her weakened hand to grasp his — and as soon as she did, she was rewarded. Her bodily health restored, she gave thanks, and attended to his needs.

God's hand is always outstretched to us. Will we take it, even if the fever of sin and pride and worldly concerns rages in our souls? Will we muster the strength? Will we be audacious enough to have confidence in His Fatherly goodness?

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

Have you ever wondered what life would be like if you could see the future and know how things turn out? While it's intriguing to ponder what life would be like if we possessed this knowledge, actually knowing could easily rob us of the thrill, adventure, and soul-searching graces of our journey. Like Job, life does not always leave us on a happy note. Life experience can bring us face-to-face with our mortality and leave us with a profound sense of helplessness. We do not see the wholeness and fulfillment that will one day come and cannot grasp the certainty that a resolution to our plight will come our way. We need to learn how to reach for Jesus' hand and let him help us to our feet. Living a life of faith means realizing that we are not here to figure out life on our own. In order to drink deeply of what life presents us, we have to wrestle in the depths of our souls, agonize and search, possibly reach the lowest point of desperation, and cry out for the Divine healing we need to restore our faith, hope, and love. It is no wonder that those who are touched by God's healing power want to then serve others and show them the deeper waters that can be explored. Knowing too much can rob us of joyful surprises.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

If I only knew then what I know now, how different life would be. This sentiment, expressed in myriad ways, is found on every human being's lips at one point or another. Life may have brought us to a vulnerable place where we see some of the poor choices we made and the effects they are having. Perhaps we fell into some destructive and dysfunctional relationships or behaviors and are finding how they held us captive. Our zeal and passion for life may have drifted away and we are waking up to the reasons apathy has taken hold. Life can be hard. In fact, some would describe their lives as a drudgery. They walk through each day with an anxious unsettledness, wondering when their restlessness will cease. There is a temptation to believe that what I see is all I will get. Mortality and hopelessness await the dawn. If I could only have known what would come in the future, I could have made better choices and avoided all of this misery!

Really? While we can certainly give into weakness, sin, impulsiveness, and idiosyncrasies that cause us to stumble over ourselves, life is really a journey. If we don't make the mistake of wallowing in the mire of self-pity and realize the new life God is calling us to, then there are thrills, adventures, surprises, and soul-searching graces we can surely miss. We are not tethered to our past nor are we bound to the ills life can bring upon us. We are never hopeless or helpless. The problem is that our myopic vision only allows us to see the misery and misfortune that is before us, not the potential that can come from choosing healthier and more life-giving options. Jesus came that we might have fullness of life. We need to learn how to reach for Jesus' hand and let him help us to our feet.

We need to allow God into our pain and heal our past. We have to wrestle with our histories, agonize and search and cry out for the Divine healing we need to restore our faith, hope, and love. Job could not see how his story would end or trust the guidance of the God who called him. We live in that same blindness and suffer from the same lack of confidence. Once we allow ourselves to be touched by God's healing power, we begin to see that all of the pieces of our lives are necessary parts of a greater whole. Along the way of our lives, God uses our omissions and failures to create new things and possibilities. When doors close, others open and we can be amazed by the joyful and unexpected surprises we receive. Once we know the power of God's creative, healing, life-giving, forgiving, and dynamic presence, it is no wonder we want to put ourselves at the service of others and show them what life can be.

Guidelines and Sign-Up Information for Attending Mass In Person

Guidelines from the Archdiocese of Hartford

- Face masks/coverings required.
- Please bring hand sanitizer for use during the liturgy.
- There will be limits on the number of socially distanced persons that may be present at a given Mass. Due to our limit of 100 we will need to have sign-ups. (see below)
- Dispensation from Sunday Mass obligation has been extended through May 23, 2021, so the elderly, those with pre-existing conditions, even those who are anxious need not be concerned if they miss Mass. Continue to watch from home.

You can find more information about attending Mass in person and the links to sign up for Masses on our website: stannavon.org/mass-times. If you aren't able to sign up online, please call the Parish Office and let Kris know the date, time, family name and number attending and she will
