ImmaCare Shelter Update

Thank you to all who have asked when St. Ann's will again be bringing meals to ImmaCare shelter. Also a huge thanks to those who have said that they are "on-board" as soon as needed!

After so many changes we had decided to start serving again in the Fall. We toured the beautifully renovated shelter and felt confident that we'd be back in the regular routine. But then the Covid-19 numbers went up and the shelter had to continue to limit the number of men served and we no longer felt comfortable serving, especially since we so often bring school kids.

Starting Oct 21 we will be dropping off the usual delicious home made food and the supplies from St. Ann's the 3rd Thursday of every month. We won't serve but most importantly we know the guests will have a good meal. We will contact "the regulars" and hope to hear from new people interested in helping provide food. The number allowed at shelter still has to be smaller but we are hoping to always be able to also provide water, food, and supplies for the people served by the ImmaCare outreach.

Thanks for continuing to support and to remember these people who have had such a difficult time. And, our best wishes for all of you.

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

"Christus nobis-cum; state!" ("Christ is with us: stand firm!")

This was written on the doors of the Christians in Antioch during the reign of the Roman Emperor Justinian in 527 AD. At that time the city was being violently shaken by earth quakes. History indicates that the houses which bore this inscription remained standing.

As we see our world repeatedly shaken and things rapidly changing, this is a good statement to remember. In a progressively more pagan world, our one sure means of perseverance amid life's tribulations is our faithful adherence to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. In the Holy Eucharist we find our strength and consolation. Our Savior faithfully remains with us in each tabernacle at all times.

Reflection: What is our zeal and fervor toward Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament? We are penetrated by the presence of God when we receive Holy Communion. How open are we to this reality? Father Lukas Etlin, O.S.B. comments that "Our love for Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is a reliable barometer of our whole spiritual life."

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

Therein lies the...rib

"If I were God..." is a dangerous way to start a sentence, but how many of us do this? Probably more regularly than we would like to admit. Even if we don't verbalize the sentiment, we likely think it from time to time. Most of us finish that statement with some genius, original idea for eradicating difficulty and pain from the world. If I were God, I wouldn't let anyone go hungry. If I were God, all wealth would be equally distributed. If I were God, war wouldn't exist.

I imagine that, when we think thoughts like these, God shakes His head and wonders why we don't look a little harder at the whole of His creation — because I can promise you, it's never lacking.

When Adam had a need for a companion, God used what was available: Adam's rib. Everything that He had put into place was already perfect, already complete. Woman was a new creation, but not a new species. Adam searched through all of creation to find the perfect mate, but God had tucked the answer inside of His creation all along.

I'm guilty of it as much as anyone else — looking to Heaven with a chip on my shoulder. "Why haven't you sent me what I need? I've been asking over and over again." But have I even thought to look inside of myself?

Where is the rib you are missing today? What are the opportunities God has set before you? What are the needs that He is ready to fulfill, if only you would stop wasting time lamenting all the solutions that don't fit the bill?

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

"What God has joined together." We are all familiar with these words. Because man and woman are essentially of the same substance, although also distinctively different, there is an innate desire to be connected and united. Admittedly, marriage covenants can be extremely difficult to negotiate and, at times, very painful to experience. But they can also be celebrations of great union and happiness. This is proven by couples who have been married for many years who still have that same twinkle of devotion in their eyes that was present on their wedding day. God designed it to be this way. By God's power, the two become one. This is not of human design. The true intimacy of marriage is a Divine Intimacy. It is a bond created by a power far greater than any found in the two people who are joined. Marriage is where the virtue of love is most fully expressed.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Archbishop Fulton Sheen said, "It takes three to make love, not two: you, your spouse, and God." Apart from the incarnation of God in Jesus Christ, nothing speaks better of God's incarnate love than marriage. God designed it this way. We place great value on love and rightly so. What we fail to realize, however, is that love, its very presence and place in our lives, is not simply part of the human package deal. Love comes from God. It is one of God's greatest gifts to human beings. When we begin to realize that our very ability to love is sacred, it changes up how we see the essence of life, and purpose and sanctity of marriage.

God is love. It stands to reason then that if we follow the path of unconditional, self-emptying love we will then stumble upon God. It is precisely this intimate wedding of God with love that gives such eloquence and honor to the love between husband and wife. As a living sign of Christ's love for the Church and for humanity, husbands and wives speak volumes of God's unconditional incarnate love for all of his children! The Divine power that brings unity and life to marriage is so strong that once joined, it really cannot be separated.

Admittedly, marriage covenants can be extremely difficult to negotiate and, at times, very painful to experience. God's perfect divinity always meets our broken and imperfect humanity. God is okay with this setup as he created it this way. Our loving is never as unconditional as God's and often tainted by our own imperfections, needs, memories, hurts, sinfulness, and weakness. All of this baggage negatively impacts even the most well-intentioned marriages, causing them to be hurtful and empty. We are love works in progress. God can succeed in perfecting our love only if we keep our eyes fixed on him as the source of that love. That's why marriage is always about three and not just two.

The Divine intimacy at the heart of marriage is what can make them celebrations of great union and happiness. Couples who are still madly in love with each other after many years, still looking at each other with that timeless twinkle in their eyes, best tell the story of God's oneness with humanity. Honor, celebrate, and support those who have accepted a vocation to marriage. Living in a world that easily pulls relationships apart, may they find hope and inspiration from their faith companions who are on the same journey!

Young Catholic Women of Connecticut

Do you ever find yourself longing for true catholic friendships?

Do you ever want to dig deeper in your Catholic faith?

Do you wish to understand the true beauty of the Eucharist and the mass?

Someone who understands your spiritual struggle and Catholic values...

For many of us Catholic women it is very difficult to find true friends who are rooted deep in their faith. For most of us we feel alone in a world we do not belong. At times we may meet fellow Christians, but it can be difficult for them to understand our struggle as the doctrines we share are for the most part different. If you are in between the ages of 20-40 years of age and a female I would like to invite you to Young Catholic Women of Connecticut Facebook page. Here we offer a space in where we can go deep in our faith while supporting other sisters through personal struggles. Here we help each other through spiritual deserts, parenting and so much more. We teach and help others know your Catholic faith and live in the beauty of the living Christ we receive every Sunday at mass. If you are interested in joining us in our spiritual journey, please feel free to reach out to us on our site which is mentioned below. Please also feel free to reach out to the group admin as well. Have a blessed day!
