ImmaCare Shelter Update

Thank you to all who have asked when St. Ann's will again be bringing meals to ImmaCare shelter. Also a huge thanks to those who have said that they are "on-board" as soon as needed!

After so many changes we had decided to start serving again in the Fall. We toured the beautifully renovated shelter and felt confident that we'd be back in the regular routine. But then the Covid-19 numbers went up and the shelter had to continue to limit the number of men served and we no longer felt comfortable serving, especially since we so often bring school kids.

Starting Oct 21 we will be dropping off the usual delicious home made food and the supplies from St. Ann's the 3rd Thursday of every month. We won't serve but most importantly we know the guests will have a good meal. We will contact "the regulars" and hope to hear from new people interested in helping provide food. The number allowed at shelter still has to be smaller but we are hoping to always be able to also provide water, food, and supplies for the people served by the ImmaCare outreach.

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of our Guardian Angels. St. Gregory the Great wrote, "The Heavens open and multitudes of angels assist at the Holy Mass."

Your guardian angel is given to you as your companion in life. The angel's task is to guard you, guide you, protect you, inspire you, and to bring you safely home to Heaven. Your guardian angel constantly beholds the face of God and can therefore intercede for you. Also your angel brings your prayers and offerings to place before God's throne. The angels are present and attend every Holy Mass with you. They adore, praise and glorify God beside you as you pray.

Reflection: Imagine the joy of your guardian angel to be beside you during Holy Mass. Furthermore, reflect on their joy as you are able to receive Jesus in Holy Communion.... something which they are unable to do since they are pure spirit and do not have a body. We are blessed to have an angel guide and even more blessed to be able to receive the Lord Jesus in Holy Communion. Receiving the Eucharist is a grace which we have and which even the angels are unable to receive.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

If Heaven were like Harvard

There's no getting around it: life on earth can seem easier if you're rich. Most of the bodily and material needs a person could have are fulfilled if you've got a little bit of money behind you. So why doesn't this same theory apply to entering the kingdom of Heaven? Why isn't Heaven like an Ivy League school, where a connection and a hasty tuition check might open a lot of doors?

When you think about it, the virtues required to enter Heaven — things like charity and justice and courage — should be even closer within the grasp of those who never had to worry about where their food is coming from. In theory, your capacity for good works should only increase with the resources at your disposal.

The same is true for stewardship potential. Let's say I've got a lot of talent. Maybe I've got a lot of free time. On paper, it should be easier for me to give freely of these gifts, because I have the luxury that eluded the widow and her two coins: I can see my ample gift being put into action, when so many can only offer what they have and remind themselves that God sees it and appreciates it.

But here we get into the mess of humanity: if we have a lot of something, it means we have a lot of something we could use any way we want. And then we hear the whisper of the serpent: Think of what this (money, time, talent) could do for you.

May we pray for God to give us the heart of the widow, no matter our resources.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

Presumption can be a great sin. We can easily convince ourselves that as long as we do the bare minimum or master the basics, it is sufficient. Love doesn't operate this way. If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to get expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing and in following a voice other than our own. This is what those who are truly in pursuit of wisdom come to realize. Just like any human relationship worth achieving reveals, we never reach a plateau in following the Gospel or growing in wisdom and holiness. Wisdom is the rudder that guides us through all of life's attractions and options. It alone determines what is worth pursuing and what must be left behind. That is why those who are only concerned about checking the boxes and doing the least amount possible often walk away sad when offered God's gift of life eternal. They are not truly in love.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to be expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing, and in following a voice other than our own. St. Teresa of Calcutta rightly instructs us that for "love to be real, it must cost, it must hurt, it must empty us of self." Being in love with God requires more than just checking the boxes of the commandments. It requires a sincere and unconditional self-investment. Desiring God with our whole heart, mind, and soul means that I must also desire a relationship with my neighbor with that same degree of fervor.

Biases and prejudices usually occur when people are kept at a distance and treated as objects. We cannot truly know our neighbors, especially if they are different than us, if we keep them in boxes and do not listen to their stories. When we open ourselves to listen to another person's story, we begin to realize more how similar we are than dissimilar. Being overly attached to our possessions, ideologies, agendas, lifestyles, and personal needs are absolute barriers to achieving the type of personal investment love demands. This is why following Christ can be difficult. It is less a matter of intellect and more a matter of heart and soul. It requires that we transfer our treasure from an investment in tangible secular things and move it into the Kingdom of God. It is only the gift of wisdom and discernment that can help us decide what to do and how to do it.

Contemporaries of Jesus would know that a camel could not enter through the portal of a city weighed down with the baggage it was carrying. In order to enter, the baggage must be removed so that the animal could fit through the entry way. The same is true for us. We carry a lot of excessive baggage around with us that keeps us tethered to our past histories, wounds, myopic world views, prejudices, fears, and suspicions. To invest ourselves in the Kingdom of God, do God's work and live out our love relationship with God, we need to shed the extra weight. While it may seem that a lot of that stuff is necessary, it really is not. We are much more than the things that we think define us and more secure than we think. The more there is to hold on to and the more that we carry with us, the harder it will be to leave it all behind. Many choose not to and walk away sad because they are not ready to trust.

Young Catholic Women of Connecticut

Do you ever want to dig deeper in your Catholic faith?

Do you wish to understand the true beauty of the Eucharist and the mass?

Do you ever find yourself longing for true catholic friendships?

Someone who understands your spiritual struggle and Catholic values...

For many of us Catholic women it is very difficult to find true friends who are rooted deep in their faith. For most of us we feel alone in a world we do not belong. At times we may meet fellow Christians, but it can be difficult for them to understand our struggle as the doctrines we share are for the most part different. If you are in between the ages of 20-40 years of age and a female I would like to invite you to Young Catholic Women of Connecticut Facebook page. Here we offer a space in where we can go deep in our faith while supporting other sisters through personal struggles. Here we help each other through spiritual deserts, parenting and so much more. We teach and help others know their Catholic faith and live in the beauty of the living Christ we receive every Sunday at mass. If you are interested in joining us in our spiritual Journey, please feel free to reach out to us on our site which is mentioned below. Please also feel free to reach out to the group admin as well. Have a blessed day!
