We are very grateful for the generosity shown by those who have already contributed towards our 2021 Annual Parish Collection.

Every gift is welcomed and sincerely appreciated!

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

"You are one with Jesus as the body is one with the head. You must then have one breath with Him, one soul, one life, one will, one mind, one heart. And He must be your breath, heart, love, life, your all. Through the Holy Eucharist these gifts, which are given to you by God, are brought to perfection." St. John Eudes Reflection: St. John Eudes had a great love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. During this month of the Holy Rosary, let us remember that Our Lady always leads us to her Divine Son. It is in the Blessed Sacrament that we find the Living, Sacred Heart of Jesus. Our Lady, mother of the Blessed Sacrament, pray for us. Obtain for us the grace to love Jesus more each time we receive Him in Holy Communion.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

What's in it for me?

I think we've all been guilty of looking at a situation and wondering what's in it for us. It doesn't matter if it's a particular work assignment, someone at the parish asking for help with the mission trip bake sale, or your spouse asking if you'll take over the grocery shopping this week. Often, our first reaction to one of these requests is a heavy sigh and the thought: "If I do this, what will I get?"

Sometimes it surprises us to realize that the Apostles were no different. We tend to idolize these contemporaries of Christ as giants who walked with the Savior. But in reality, these individuals were merely human beings struggling to commit to the task of everyday stewardship.

In the Gospels, we see glimpses of them longing for praise and affirmation. We see them jockeying for positions of power within the group of twelve. We see them expect earthly rewards like honor and admiration. We see them acting a lot like us.

But in the end, we see them transformed by the grace of God. Like all the saints, their holiness stems from their commitment to their call. They stumble through, and as they stumble, they keep trusting God. They keep turning to Him. They keep asking for help. They don't give up just because they keep failing at it.

We are defined by what we give when we have no hope of being reimbursed, rewarded, or recognized. The Apostles understood this, eventually, and they gave accordingly. Most of them gave their very lives.

Remember, they're just like us. If they can do it, we can too

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

It's the positions of power and great authority that people often admire. We equate success with six figure incomes, high positions, management, and influence. We even go above and beyond to find favor with our bosses so that we can get a little extra recognition and maybe the next promotion when it comes up. This is the way of the world. Those who have their values set on earthly things are going to work by earthly rules. We forget that it doesn't work that way in the Kingdom of God. Success is measured not from the place of status, influence, or prestige but from the place of humility, service, and sacrifice. The authority that one hopes to achieve is not an authority over others but an authority that comes from wisdom and developing one's relationship with God. Jesus flips the tables on our priorities. Even the first disciples had a tough time understanding this. They really thought that they would somehow receive a privilege or bonus from being faithful. We often operate under that same illusion. ©LPi

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

"What do you wish me to do for you?" Whether we realize it, this is a question God is always asking. It's an important question because the answer we provide will reveal a great deal about where our hearts lie. Our requests of God can often appear very noble and altruistic. They consist of requests for healing for someone in need of prayers, successful resolution of a personal conflict, assistance in overcoming a disease and myriad other desires for both ourselves and others. We are especially concerned about those we love and can easily find ourselves bringing their struggles to God for a hearing in our prayer.

Is that really all that prayer is about? The woman in today's Gospel, having been put in her place by Jesus, was only looking out for the wellbeing of her sons. She was doing what mothers do, protecting and securing the livelihood of her children. But she was sadly mistaken, her request was not granted. We all make this same misguided mistake from time to time. The goal of prayer is not to convince God of the worthiness of our agenda or to gain a hearing. Sometimes we believe that the more we multiply our prayers or discover the right combination of supplications that we will receive more of God's attention. That's not how it works. Even though God desires to hear, know, and be an intimate part of what is on our minds, it goes much deeper.

What we need from God is a relationship. It's a relationship that guides and immerses us in the very stuff of life and in the direction of the Gospel. This relationship sees God's kingdom and agenda, not our own, as what is most important. It builds the strength of character necessary to bring God's Gospel into a world that may not receive it with open arms. It may cause us discomfort and suffering. We are asked to heroically journey with God through suffering, hardship, ridicule, and even death! Ultimately, our desire from God must become our desire for God. It is only when this happens that the powerful words "thy will be done" will be found with sincerity and humility on our lips. Whatever God wishes becomes what we wish as we see this glorious union of wills. Our humble lives will then become powerful witnesses, and what happens to us in God's eternal kingdom the result of his mercy. We become true servants and find ourselves discovering God's definition of success. That definition has nothing at all to do with status, income, or privilege.

Do you ever find yourself longing for true catholic friendships?

Someone who understands your spiritual struggle and Catholic values...

For many of us Catholic women it is very difficult to find true friends who are rooted deep in their faith. For most of us we feel alone in a world we do not belong. At times we may meet fellow Christians, but it can be difficult for them to understand our struggle as the doctrines we share are for the most part different. If you are in between the ages of 20-40 years of age and a female I would like to invite you to Young Catholic Women of Connecticut Facebook page. Here we offer a space in where we can go deep in our faith while supporting other sisters through personal struggles. Here we help each other through spiritual deserts, parenting and so much more. We teach and help others know their Catholic faith and live in the beauty of the living Christ we receive every Sunday at mass. If you are interested in joining us in our spiritual Journey, please feel free to reach out to us on our site which is mentioned below. Please also feel free to reach out to the group admin as well. Have
