Youth Ministry POINSETTIA SALE

Poinsettia sale time is here again! Please help us decorate our beautiful church for Christmas by purchasing a poinsettia in memory of, or in honor of, a loved one. Plants are $10 each and will be used to decorate the church. They will be sold after Masses in the Gathering Space on the weekends of: December 4/5 & 11/12.

On our website you can download a form to print and return completed with payment. There is also an option to order/pay online: www.stannavon.org/poinsettia-orders

We will also be selling Oplatek, Polish Christmas wafers, in the Gathering Space after Masses on December 4/5 and December 11/12!

How We Can Help the Homeless During the Holidays...

Once again we will be putting together Christmas gift bags for the men at ImmaCare shelter. The bags not only have needed supplies and warm clothes, but also the message that we care at a time when it's easy to feel very alone.

We are requesting socks (warm or athletic), hats, scarves and gloves. Would also like to add large bars of soap and tubes of Toothpaste. Gift cards are always welcome!

Please drop off in the kitchen by Dec 14th. Thanks for your continued support of ImmaCare and know the shelter guests send their best wishes for a blessed Christmas!

AN INSPIRING NEW SERIES ON WEDNESDAYS

9:30 am Fr. Bennett Hall

Taken from The Great Courses program, "THE LIVES OF GREAT CHRISTIANS" and from Bishop Barron's Word On Fire program, "PIVOTAL PLAYERS," this series offers an interesting look at the lives of a few important Saints. The focus is on the way they lived their lives, providing us with insights on how to become a better Christian.

DECEMBER 8: St. Catherine of Siena (1 hour)
DECEMBER 15: (1 hr) St. John Henry Newman

NO NEED TO REGISTER *
DROP IN FOR JUST ONE OR FOR ALL SESSIONS

For questions call Janet Newman at: 860-573-3446
or email: wjnewman@sbcglobal.net

As we continue our Advent journey towards the precious gift of the Birth of Christ, the words of St. Angela of Foligno come to mind. "The Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist is the GIFT of gifts and the GRACE of graces." There is no closer union possible between God and man on this Earth than the gift of the Incarnation. Jesus, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, willingly takes upon Himself our human nature.

Reflection: The entire purpose of the Incarnation is our salvation. This is the reason why Jesus came into the world. God has created us for the eternal joy of Heaven. To attain Heaven is to be a saint. When you receive Jesus in Holy Communion, why not ask Him to make you a saint? The frequent, reverent reception of the Holy Eucharist is the surest path to sanctity. Leon Bloy, a French author and convert wrote, “The only tragedy in life is not to be a saint.”

Thank You for Your Generosity!

Your never failing kind hearted generosity and support is sincerely appreciated! Thank you also to the families who assisted for several hours at the Turkey Express truck! Together we serve all God's people!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

God's Personal Assistants

If you have ever planned a large-scale event, whether it's a musical performance or a religious conference, you may have dealt with someone's personal assistant. Possibly this person would be a representative of the keynote speaker or the master of ceremonies for the local bishop; perhaps it's even the staffer of a local politician or the lackey of a well-known musical act.

Personal assistants are masters of stewardship — overseeing things in their boss' absence. They prepare the way. This person's job is to get everything ready for the person in charge, so that when he or she shows up — whoever he or she is — it's smooth sailing for them to do whatever it is they need to do: sing, speak, pray, mingle, what-have-you. It's usually a big job full of little things, a gig where attention to detail is key.

God is the guest of honor in our life, the keynote speaker, the main event. And what He wants — what He needs — to do is to change our hearts. Constantly, over, and over, and over again.

We are all His personal assistants in this endeavor. We need to prepare the way of the Lord, to make straight His paths. We need to make everything ready so that when He shows up — however He shows up, whether it's in the form of a neighbor in need or a burning bush right in front of us — everything is ready for Him to do His job.

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

Sometimes, especially when life gets overwhelming and difficult, we can find ourselves feeling a bit downhearted and miserable. Wallowing in this uncomfortable darkness seems to be our norm and it's difficult to see a way out of, or through, this experience. If we listen carefully enough, we will hear God's voice calling out deep within, beckoning us to seek out its source and discover the inner calm and peace that can prevail over the darkness of despair. Faith tells us that God has already begun the creation of a good work in us and is with us, bringing it to completion, until Christ Jesus comes again. It is this light of God's glory for which we are asked to pave the way and straighten the paths of our lives so that it can shine. With all that life can ask of us and bring to us, it is our task to constantly discern what is of value. So that we do not get so weighed down by things that we no longer see, or feel, God's salvation.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

St. Ambrose shares some wisdom on our need to prepare the way and open the door for Christ. "You see that when the Word of God knocks hardest on your door, it is when his hair is wet with the dew of the night. In fact, he chooses to visit those who are in tribulation and trial, lest one of them be overwhelmed by distress. So, his head is covered with dew, with drops, when his body is laboring hard. It is important to keep watch so that when the Bridegroom comes, he is not shut out. If you are asleep and your heart is not keeping watch, he will go away without knocking; but if your heart is alert for his coming, he knocks and asks for the door to be opened to him." When life gets overwhelming and difficult and we find ourselves feeling a bit downhearted and miserable, these words can bring great comfort.

We sometimes choose to remain stuck in our uncomfortable darkness and being stuck becomes our norm. In this time of self-focus our hearts are closed to the graces and life God desires to give us. Wrapped in the robe of mourning and misery, we fail to see the mercy, justice, and love the Bridegroom wants to bring. If we take seriously the need to prepare the way for Christ and open our hearts in preparation for his visit, we can hear God's gentle voice calling us deep within. It beckons us to seek out its source and discover the inner calm and peace that can prevail over the darkness of despair. Sometimes our darkness is so dark that it may seem unsurmountable. Trusting in the spiritual friends who journey with us, and God's promise may bring a glimmer of light even when it is most difficult to keep our hearts' doors open. Sometimes, the only light in the darkness is found in trusting the faith of others both past and present.

We have to trust that God has already begun the accomplishment of good work in us and that humanity is on an incredible journey to something wonderful and awesome. God is not done. When we open the doors of our hearts, straighten the paths of our lives, and prepare the way, Jesus can come with God's simple gifts of peace, grace, and joy. Life throws a great deal at us. It is easy to get tired and confused. We have to train our hearts to keep watch, discern what is of value, and forge ahead. Not allowing ourselves to become so weighed down by things and brought out of focus is a tremendous goal to achieve this Advent season. God is knocking. Answer the door. You will see and understand life in ways you never thought possible before.

Maximize Your Year-End Gifts to the Church of St. Ann

Fall is traditionally when we think about making gifts to support our favorite charities, like the Church of Saint Ann. There are many options for tax-effective giving both for those who can continue to itemize their deductions and for those who will no longer itemize.

Making your gift from your IRA

If you are 70.5 or older, you can make qualified charitable distributions (QCD's) directly from individual retirement accounts (IRS's) using funds that might otherwise be taxed when withdrawn. Gifts can be made in any amount up to a total of $100,000 per individual per year. The benefits of a QCD are reduced for those who continue to make deductible IRA contributions.

Because you are giving directly from your IRA, you won't increase your adjusted gross income and possibly subject your social security or other income to higher levels of taxation. These tax-free gifts are particularly wise for those who no longer itemize deductions for income tax purposes. Consult your financial or tax advisor for more information.
