Winter Book Study:

The Holy Longing: The Search for a Christian Spirituality, Fr. Ronald Rolheiser

Each human being experiences restlessness – whether passion or desire, or simply the sense that ‘something more’ is out there. “Spirituality is about what we do with our unrest.”

In The Holy Longing, Fr. Rolheiser asserts that each person has an innate spirituality uniquely suited to them.

Finding yours can connect you to the Divine and open your heart to others on a profound level. For Christians, this involves balancing:

- a) private prayer and private morality
- b) social justice
- c) mellowness of heart and spirit
- d) communal worship

Come explore these notions in a 5-week book study on Thursdays beginning January 13th.

Groups will meet via Zoom at 10am with Terry Pendergast and 7pm with Claudine Meaney

Participant fee is $15 (books included)

Please register soon: ann.distefano@stannavon.com.

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

St. Louise de Marillac wrote, "With all of my heart I desire You, O Bread of Angels! Do not look on my unworthiness which separates me from You, but look on Your love which so often has invited me to approach You." St. Louise exhibited a tender humility in expressing her unworthiness to receive the Holy Eucharist. She was aware that in Holy Communion, she was receiving the living God.

Reflection: As we say the words, "Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof...", let us reflect on the fact that Jesus is ALIVE and PRESENT to us in the Blessed Sacrament. We are about to receive Him into our very being in a most personal and intimate way. How can we possibly be worthy of such a gift? How pleased Our Lord must be when He is welcomed by a humble heart. "Jesus, gentle, meek and humble of heart, make our hearts like unto Thine."

"O My Mother, it is to your heart that I come to lay down the anguish of my heart; it is there that I draw strength and courage."

PRO-LIFE MINISTRY

Hugs from the Heart

Pro-Life Ministry is sponsoring their Valentine's Day "Hugs from the Heart" Outreach to Two Hearts Pregnancy Care Center in Torrington.

Huggies or any brand of diapers will help them immensely. All sizes, but especially size 4 are desperately needed. They can use newborn sleepers and stretchy outfits. 12 months, 18 months, and 2T size clothes, baby lotions/wipes, or gift cards would also be greatly appreciated.

Please place the above items in the baby boxes found in the Gathering Space on or before the weekend of February 12th and 13th.

Thank you in advance for helping to support moms and their babies!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

The gift of the Mission

Early on in my work in parish ministry, I had to deal with a tough human resources situation, letting some staff members go and stepping into a role that demanded more of my time and energy.

In moments like this, stewardship can feel burdensome. Things take a turn we didn't expect, perhaps in spite of our best efforts. Maybe more is asked of us than we want or feel prepared to give.

But that's when we need to remember that stewardship isn't a job that we apply for. It's a gift bestowed directly from God, the Creator of all, and that can be scary all on its own, if we are preoccupied with our own unworthiness. What we might want to do is fall on our knees like Simon Peter and announce, "Depart from me, Lord — I am sinful."

But what if we stop looking in the mirror and look instead to God?

All those years ago, when I was faced with that ministerial challenge, I asked my wife to join me. What started as a tough situation turned into a decade of shared ministry with her — an experience I wouldn't trade for anything. It was a burden that became a gift.

We must remember that God knows what He is about. In His mercy, He gives us what we need as everyday stewards. When God calls out, "Whom shall we send?" we — in all our sinfulness — are allowed to cry out "Send me, Lord!" And He sends us out and behold — our nets tear with the bounty we harvest in His name.

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

When we encounter or even ponder God's magnificence, power, and awesomeness, we easily begin to feel our own smallness and perceived insignificance. After all, who can compete with eternal greatness, seraphim, or the ability to catch great numbers of fish? We unfortunately think that God's presence somehow overrides us, reduces our importance, and only seeks to judge our inadequacies and doubts. Things begin to change a bit when we realize that what we may have seen as overwhelming and frightening is really only unconditional, unmerited love. Love has tremendous majesty and power. When we listen to this power and stop seeing it as threatening or dooming, our fear dissipates and Divine friendship takes root. Remaining close to what we once preferred at a distance, we can journey to places we never thought possible and do things we never thought we could do. Strengthened by Divine friendship and encouraged by its life-giving power, we can say "here I am, send me!" when God asks, "whom shall I send?" Sin and fear no longer are of concern to the one who remains close to God in a bond of trust.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

"Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man," these words, uttered by Simon Peter, can be found on any one of our lips. What real significance do I have in the big picture of God's Divine plan? Even though we try our best to hide it, we all suffer from a lack of faith. We get tired, confused, and often lack any sincere desire to put anything into our relationship with God. It's easier to simply reap whatever benefits the world has to offer and call it a day. Floating along on the superficial currents of life doesn't require much effort and seems to get us through the day. Confronting our own infidelity, apathy, weakness of spirit, and doubt in God's providence, how can we even remotely be considered a worthy vessel of God's presence or credible voice for His message?

This is the irony of faith. God doesn't seek the perfect vessels. He likes the broken ones. There is something to be said about living honestly and sincerely, and wrestling with sin, imperfection, and weakness rather than skipping through the peripheries of life with pretention, arrogance, and mendacity. If we believe ourselves to be our own "god" and serve only ourselves, we close the door to ever being used by the real and only True God. But, if we at least acknowledge that there is One greater than ourselves, then even in our deepest poverty and lowliness, God can enter.

Lessons are best learned from those who suffer. Only someone who has been lonely and lost can attest to the beauty of both Divine and human friendship. Only those who have really lost their way know what happens when they are found. Only those who are afraid know what it is to be calmed by God. The Gospel is messy because life is messy. There are no black and white solutions to problems and challenges that are hazy and gray. When our hesitancy to encounter God gets replaced by friendship with God, we become more aware of our dignity and the fact that we are loved just as we are. We cannot be afraid to share our struggles, reservations, fears, and sinfulness with others. Our genuineness and sincerity will speak of the God who blesses us in our weakness.

ARCHBISHOP'S
ANNUAL APPEAL
2021

January 28, 2022

Reverend John W. McHugh
Saint Ann Parish
289 Arch Road
Avon, CT 06001

Dear Father McHugh,

I am writing to congratulate you and the parishioners of Saint Ann Parish for your generous support last year of the 2021 Archbishop's Annual Appeal. The parish responded to the call to be part of Reaching Out, Healing Together in a very gratifying way by exceeding its 2021 goal.

In every parish the success of our Annual Appeal depends in large part on the effort, enthusiasm, and commitment of the parish priest. I thank you for your leadership and all your efforts to present the Appeal in a positive light and for all you did to encourage your parishioners to support the Appeal, especially amid all the challenges posed by the pandemic.

I am confident that you will continue to help others to see that by their support of the Archbishop's Annual Appeal they are serving Christ himself through the many ministries, charities and spiritual works that benefit from their generosity.

Please communicate my heartfelt gratitude to your parishioners for their generous response, and be assured of my prayers and best wishes for you and for everyone at Saint Ann Parish. May God grant you a blessed and healthy 2022.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Leonard P. Blair
