WHAT'S A SMALL GROUP?

Getting Together With Friends: If you've heard us mention Small Groups at church, this is what we're talking about - regular gatherings with friends, where we talk, laugh, learn, pray and serve together. Lent is coming up (Ash Wed is March 2), and that's a great time to form a Small Group. There are three things you need:

- People - that's simple: invite your friends!
6-10 people keeps the conversation manageable
- Subject Matter - we have great materials to offer you, from books to videos on FORMED.org. For Lent, we're recommending the video series on FORMED.org, "Into His Likeness" - check it out: <https://watch.formed.org/into-his-likeness>
- A Process - we provide simple training for facilitators and a code of conduct for the group, to set expectations and maintain confidentiality; you decide when you'll meet

Come learn more at our info session, "All About Small Groups," on Thursday, Feb 17 at 7:15pm on Zoom.

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

"Blessed are they who are hungry, for they shall have their fill." Luke 6: 21

Reflection: When you come to Mass, how hungry are you to be filled with the riches of the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist? The more we long for the reception of Holy Communion and the more we desire to be united to Our Lord, the more graces, love, peace and joy will be ours. Much depends upon the disposition of our hearts. The graces which we receive are accordingly up to us.

PRO-LIFE MINISTRY

Hugs from the Heart

Pro-Life Ministry is sponsoring their Valentine's Day "Hugs from the Heart" Outreach to Two Hearts Pregnancy Care Center in Torrington.

Huggies or any brand of diapers will help them immensely. All sizes, but especially size 4 are desperately needed. They can use newborn sleepers and stretchy outfits. 12 months, 18 months, and 2T size clothes, baby lotions/wipes, or gift cards would also be greatly appreciated.

Please place the above items in the baby boxes found in the Gathering Space on or before the weekend of February 12th and 13th.

Thank you in advance for helping to support moms and their babies!

It's That Time of Year Again...

If you are a registered parishioner using envelopes or online giving, and would like a copy of our records of your weekly envelope contributions, please e-mail Kris in the Parish Office: kris.martino@stannavon.com or call 860-673-9858, ext. 221. Note: Contributions to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal are mailed separately from the Archdiocese.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

Planted Near Water

We all know that there are times when life can feel, as Jeremiah writes, empty and wasted. There are moments when we think we resemble a barren bush, thirsting in the desert sun.

That's why it is imperative for us to know the location of our water source. I promise you, it's closer than you think. God never planted a seed in barren ground.

For me, it's the Mass. Going to Mass is where I find total peace and renewal. I don't have any great theological explanation for this — Mass is simply where I can truly rest in God for a time, where nothing and no one in the world can touch me. And wouldn't you know it, it's in the toughest times that I need Mass the most — that my roots stretch harder for that water.

Woe to the rich, says Jesus — woe to the popular, to the content, to the happy. It's not because He hates to see us smile. It's because He knows our humanity. He knows our limitations. He knows that when things are going really well, we often stop looking for God.

What replenishes you as a disciple, as a steward, as a Christian? If it feels far away or hard to reach, why is that? How can you bring it closer?

We are all trees planted near water, to yield our fruit in due season. Let's pray for the strength to know where our water source is, and to seek it both in good times and in bad.

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

The human heart will always find itself wanting unless it finds its rest in God. Many people haven't yet figured out that pursuing purely secular ideologies and interests and side stepping their relationship with God causes them to fall short of their potential. When we seek our satisfaction, seek our strength, and establish priorities based entirely on the things of this world, we come up empty. There is never enough and we are always reaching for more. We develop distorted senses of justice, lose our moral axis, and lower our benchmarks for change, growth, and development. That is why knowing the beatitudes and God's vision they contain is so important. They remind us that our consumption, success driven lives can actually hurt and exploit others; quickly moving us away from God's idea of how things need to look. God ultimately will set things straight. We can assist in that mission now by trusting, hoping, and looking to God for our cues for how to live, set goals for ourselves and discern the best way to share this world with our brothers and sisters.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

What has been the most difficult challenge you faced in your life? Many difficult human experiences can "turn up the heat" in our lives, causing us to question the why of things or even fall into despair. Some people just somewhat passively accept what life brings, even death, and chalk difficult experiences up to happening "because they do." They seemingly endure and move on. Taking life at face value, there really is no ultimate meaning to things. It's easier to ignore that inner prompting calling us to understand why. It's there whether we admit it or not. To question or not to question — that is the question! People sometimes give up the God search because it causes too many questions. Once we open the door to the possibility of God's existence, then all of the awkward, challenging, and tragic pieces of life have to find their place.

It gets messy. But the search is so important to living. We can easily dry up and become arid, abandoning any hope for purpose and meaning because it's too difficult and non-rational at times. In searching for answers to the how and why of life, human beings also embark on a search for God. When one finally stumbles upon the real living tangible presence of God, then that discovery allows life's ironies and tensions to be held side by side with the all-encompassing totally unconditional, unmerited love of God! Then when life's heat gets turned up, difficulties and challenges abound, dryness and heartache become the norm, the soul remains in joyful repose. There is no fear.

The beatitudes celebrate life's ironies and tensions, holding them all together in the Kingdom of God. Poverty, hunger, weeping, being insulted and hated are not things we would normally associate with being God's friends. But they are! In fact, those who experience these uncomfortable realities of life are actually better off than those who do not. This is what makes Jesus' message so intriguing! Don't give up questioning. Questioning the apparent inequities and polarities of human experience will certainly challenge one's faith. But it's the only way to deepen it.

Movie Matinee

February 23 @ 12-3 pm

How have you learned to navigate times of challenge, suffering, and illness, of confusion, and darkness? Jesus taught us to respond to even the most difficult situations with authenticity and compassion, being fully present to the reality that confronts us, being true to what we know is the right thing to do, and being openly loving to those who need our support.

Join us for a viewing and discussion of Lars and the Real Girl, starring Ryan Gosling and Emily Mortimer. Discover the magical and graced reality we can create, were we to "respond with compassion and tolerance," in the words of screenwriter Nancy Oliver, to bring healing, hope, and new life to even the most impossible situation.

This program will be led by Celeste Calabotta, a member of the OLC Retreat Team.

Each participant will receive a boxed lunch to enjoy during the movie. To register for this movie matinee call (860) 677-8519.
