The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

St. Augustine believed that "If we live good lives, the times are also good. As we are, such are the times." Looking at our present world order, perhaps we should consider how our lives can become better. The Holy Eucharist contains the answer to helping us grow in goodness and grace. By our reception of Holy Communion Jesus enables us to become more like Himself.

Reflection: Imagine how abandoned Our Lord must feel as He remains in the tabernacles of our Churches. He is waiting to fill us with every good gift and yet so many have abandoned Him. Our society has become an increasingly pagan one. We turn away from the love and mercy of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. We ignore Him. Consider the anguish He must be feeling. As He revealed His Sacred Heart to St. Margaret Mary, He said "Behold this Heart which has so loved mankind and which is so little loved in return." Recall that the Holy Eucharist is the living heart of the Church and many have forsaken Him.

Attention Faithful Women of St. Ann

You are cordially invited to attend the Annual Women's Retreat at Holy Family Passionist Retreat Center in West Hartford, CT. This year's retreat theme is "In the Spirit of Trust". When we think about the idea of "trust", we may think about how much we trust the people around us, family, friends, society, government or religion. But as scriptures remind us, the most important form of trust we can have is our trust in God.

The retreat begins with a buffet dinner on Friday evening and concludes Sunday with Mass followed by a brunch.

There are three dates to pick from in Spring 2022:

March 4-6 * April 22-24 * June 3-5

Online sign-up links are on our website:

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

Thanking God for Missing Spears

Imagine how Saul must have felt when he awoke from his sleep and saw his spear missing from its resting place. Now imagine how he felt when he realized that the person who had it was the same person seeking his life — and there he sat, safe and sound. Now there's a day you don't forget your morning prayers.

I think if we look, we can all find a "missing spear moment" in our lives, when it hits us right in the gut that God has kept us safe from an impending disaster. This can be physical disaster, sure — but more commonly, I think it is spiritual disaster. Often the salvation comes through the gift of a person, or people, through whom God reveals His mercy.

When I was in high school, I had a circle of friends who were really into their faith. We were all in youth ministry together, and the bond we shared taught me a lesson that changed me as a person: we become those with whom we associate. I can look back now, all these years later, and see that these people are evidence of God's hand in my life.

Take a look at your life. In whose love has God shown you comfort? By whose hand has God brought you closer to Him, or kept you away from harm? Through whose friendship has God shaped you into the person you are?

Let's strive to remember to thank God for these people — and to thank them, too.

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

"Love your enemies and do good to them." We have such a hard time with this teaching! But it doesn't end there. Jesus continues with turning the other cheek when struck, giving to everyone who asks, doing to others as you would have them do to you, being merciful, stopping our judgment of others, forgiving, and giving. We are okay when God does these things but get a little anxious when we realize that God really wants us to do them too! Secular justice and Gospel justice are definitely not the same. We need to remember that we are made in the image of God, not the image of ourselves. The Christian is called to act like Christ even in those situations where a more assertive or defensive response may seem more justifiable. In order to live up to this call we have to leave our resentment and need for retaliation behind, lose our defensiveness and bring into our mind and heart the realization of who we represent in this world. We are not here to satisfy or promote our own well-being and agenda. We are here for God's. That's a hard nut to crack especially when it comes to loving and forgiving people who do hurtful and violent things.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Sometimes, Jesus' teachings don't seem to make practical sense. When we hear things like love your enemies and do good to them, turn the other cheek when struck, give to anyone who asks, do to others as you would have them do to you, be merciful, stop judging, forgive, and give to others, we get a bit unsettled. After all, it's okay for God to do all of these things, but does He really want us to do them, too? Many good-hearted Christians really draw the line with some of these ideals and say, "No way!" They even remark that if someone did something hurtful to someone they loved, they would have no reservations seeking severe retribution. There is still this persistent thinking, even among those who consider themselves Christian, that a violent action deserves a violent response. Somehow, we continue to justify this.

Yet, it is most clearly against the very grain of the Gospel. Part of our difficulty has more to do with understanding God's love. We wrongly think that sinful or hurtful actions and evil people somehow are seen as lesser in God's eyes. They are not. God loves the sinner as much as He does the saint. And, both of these inclinations exist in every human being, even those who consider themselves holy. Both the capacity for good and the disposition toward evil exist in every one of us. Viktor Frankl has this to say when reflecting on the Holocaust: "Our generation is a realistic generation because we have learned what a human being really is. When all is said and done, man is that same creature who invented the gas-chambers of Auschwitz; but he is also that being who walked upright into those chambers with the prayer 'Shema Yisrael' on his lips."

If we believe in God, we have to act like God. Whether we like that idea is another issue. If we don't then perhaps, we need to reconsider our faith and whether we really believe in Jesus Christ. We are made in the image of God, not the image of ourselves. The Christian must, at all costs, leave resentment and the need for retaliation behind, lose defensiveness and bring into the mind and heart the realization of who we represent in this world.

Movie Matinee

February 23 @ 12-3 pm
$25

How have you learned to navigate times of challenge, suffering, and illness, of confusion, and darkness? Jesus taught us to respond to even the most difficult situations with authenticity and compassion, being fully present to the reality that confronts us, being true to what we know is the right thing to do, and being openly loving to those who need our support.

Join us for a viewing and discussion of Lars and the Real Girl, starring Ryan Gosling and Emily Mortimer. Discover the magical and graced reality we can create, were we to "respond with compassion and tolerance," in the words of screenwriter Nancy Oliver, to bring healing, hope, and new life to even the most impossible situation.

This program will be led by Celeste Calabotta, a member of the OLC Retreat Team.

Each participant will receive a boxed lunch to enjoy during the movie. To register for this movie matinee call (860) 677-8519.
