2022 St. Ann Graduate Blessing

Sunday, June 5
 9:30 am Mass

All graduates, from preschool through college - & beyond - are invited to join us for a Mass with a special blessing of graduates on Sunday, June 5th at our 9:30am Mass. No matter your age or your stage, if you are celebrating an educational milestone and/or are transitioning to a new phase in your educational journey we hope you will join us!

Little Lambs

Little Lambs will be meeting at the 9:30am Mass again on all Sundays in May. All children are welcome to join us for the Children's Liturgy of the Word. Father will call them up after the Opening Prayer. No need to sign up ahead. Older siblings and Caregivers welcome too!

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

In today's Gospel (John 14:23-29) Jesus offers us a promise. "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him." In addition, Jesus also promises that the Father will send the Holy Spirit to teach us and remind us of all that Jesus has told us.

Reflection: When we receive Jesus in the Holy Eucharist, we also know that the Heavenly Father and the Holy Spirit are present to us. The Blessed Trinity comes to dwell within us and to fill us with the Divine life of grace. It is indeed therefore "the foretaste and the promise of the Paschal feast of heaven" to receive the Blessed Sacrament.

Thank You

from our Scholarship Committee
& St. Ann Cares Ministry

Thank you to all who contributed to the success of the 13th Perennial Plant Sale last weekend. Once again, we had a lovely, healthy selection from which customers could choose. $2,000 was raised to benefit the Social Justice Outreach Scholarship Program. Whether you donated plants, purchased plants, or volunteered your time, your support is greatly appreciated.

Thank you to all who came out this year to help with St. Ann Cares. It was a great day and everyone worked really hard to transform the house into a beautiful place. We were able to accomplish our goal in one day. Thank you also to those who donated food and drinks to keep our volunteers well nourished and hydrated. This year's homeowner was overjoyed with what was done. Many thanks.

Honor a Veteran with an Engraved Paver at Veterans Memorial Way

We are once again taking orders for engraved pavers at our beautiful Veterans Memorial Way at St. Ann Cemetery! Each paver purchased will be engraved with a veteran's name and information regarding their service. Pavers may honor veterans who are living or deceased. If you are purchasing a brick in honor of a deceased veteran, it is not required that they be buried at St. Ann's Cemetery. Order forms are available in the parish office or download and print on our website: stannavon.org/veterans-memorial-way-at-st-ann-cemetery

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

Management According to the Apostles

If you've ever worked in any kind of organization, for-profit or not-for-profit, I'm sure you have attended a conference or two. Whatever our expectations going in, I usually find these conferences expose me to communication and problem-solving styles that are different from my own, nudging me into a little unexpected self-discovery. And it's a great opportunity to meet new people and do something different.

Here's my idea for a leadership conference: The Management Style of the Apostles. Think about it, the only thing the Apostles had more abundantly than holiness was problems. Lots and lots of problems ... most of them of the human resources variety. It's no small feat, starting Christ's Church on earth. I wouldn't want to be project manager of that endeavor.

The Acts of the Apostles is, in some ways, a big book full of problems and ways to solve them. It's a blueprint for tackling interpersonal issues in the manner of a true steward, who encounters every problem starting from the same place: What would my Master want?

It's a question we should be asking ourselves every time we, too, encounter a problem — especially problems relating to other people. What is the truth in this situation, and how would God have me communicate it? How could I handle this in a way that is worthy of the name of my Master?

In Acts, we see a lot of characteristics of everyday stewardship. We see the Apostles mindfully acknowledge the lack of peace that is posed by problems like false teachings, this Gospel's problem du jour. They prayerfully confront the obstacles to salvation posed by these issues. Always, always, always, their main objective is to reveal the will of God, remaining committed to the truth while helping newcomers find avenues to salvation.

Maybe I'm just saying it because it's my idea — but it sounds like a conference we could all use. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

Everyone wants to experience peace. When we look to the world to provide this for us, we can easily get disappointed. We associate peace with an absence of war and conflict, good relationships between neighbors and coworkers, the achievement of success and even the absence of noise! While all of these are worthy endeavors, pursuing them exclusively as a path to experiencing peace sets us up for failure. When we look for peace outside of ourselves, it will never be found.

True and lasting peace is something that comes from within and not something we can produce on our own or receive from others. Peace is discovered when we experience an inner wholeness and harmony. It is born of a sense of connectedness with a God who is larger and greater than ourselves, gifting us with His presence. It is the only peace offered by the Risen Christ that can settle our hearts and calm our fears. Regardless of the degree of turmoil around us, this sense of completeness that Jesus gives anchors our boats and prevents us from sinking.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Jesus tells his disciples, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you." The peace that Jesus gives is far different than the kind that comes from the absence of war, conflict, or affliction. The peace that God offers is found alongside suffering and hardship, not necessarily in their absence. St. Teresa of Avila offers us a bit of wisdom regarding peace: "May today there be peace within. May you trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be. May you not forget the infinite possibilities that are born of faith. May you use those gifts that you have received and pass on the love that has been given to you. May you be content knowing you are a child of God. Let this presence settle into your bones and allow your soul the freedom to sing, dance, praise, and love. It is there for each and every one of us."

In order for us to experience the divine peace that Jesus offers, we have to allow God's presence to settle into our bones! It is only when this happens that we can be truly taught by the Holy Spirit to discern the true path to peace and find ourselves with untroubled hearts. The world and our lives are so unpredictable and changeable. If we look for a source of lasting and real peace only there, our search will never be satisfied. Something will always unsettle and disturb us. The Jewish disciples could really relate to what Jesus was saying about peace (shalom). They already knew that it was more a matter of achieving wholeness and wellbeing than anything else.

Wholeness and wellbeing are precisely what is uncovered when we begin to really see and know the height, depth, and breadth of God's presence and promise. The elegance of God's Divine life flows through our blood and the marrow in our bones. It is that close and deep. As we breathe in and exhale God's life, peace becomes what we know within and what is exhaled out. This remains in the midst of intense conflict, persecution, suffering, rejection, and even death.
