The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

"Once you understand the Eucharist, you can never leave the Church. Not because the Church won't let you, but because your heart won't let you."
 (St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta)

Reflection: These are the words of a person who has grasped with profound insight the greatness of the Holy Eucharist. She has truly begun to understand Who it is and Whom we possess and encounter with each reception of Holy Communion.

This is a good opportunity for each Catholic Christian to examine his or her conscience regarding the importance which we place on our relationship with Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. Our eternity depends on it.

LEARN MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC BIBLICAL SCHOOL

Have you heard someone talk about the Bible and wondered what Catholics have to say about it? Have you ever wanted to join in a conversation about the Bible but felt unprepared? Would you like to understand God's Word more fully? If your response to any of these questions is "yes," then the Catholic Biblical School might be for you.

The New England Catholic Biblical School provides an opportunity for adults to come to know, love and live scripture through an in-depth Bible study from a Catholic perspective. Through weekly classes students grow in an understanding of God's word and what it can mean in their daily lives. Graduates of the program tell us that attending the Catholic Biblical School has been one of the best experiences of their lives!

With CBS, you have the opportunity to study the entire Bible in four years, via virtual and in-person instruction. The classes balance small group discussions with presentations by professional Catholic teachers, as well as prayer related to the Bible lesson for each week. Whether or not you have ever studied the Bible before, please consider this exciting program. Enrollment information can be found at <https://www.catholicdaohct.org/catholic-biblical-school/about>

St. Ann's has several CBS graduates. If you'd like to speak with one of them, please contact Ann in our Adult Faith Formation office – ann.distefano@stannavon.com.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

When I Called, You Answered

Some of us have that friend about whom we are constantly discovering new things. Maybe we've known this person for ten or even twenty years, and one day at lunch we'll find out they're a direct descendant of a dead president or they once met a major celebrity.

"You never asked," they'll say with a shrug.

As annoying as this can be, it makes perfect sense, doesn't it? We never asked. There is something strangely sacred about the act of asking for something. It requires humility. It requires grace. It requires us to be awake, to be aware, to be vulnerable.

Too often we fall into a pattern of entitlement, even when it comes to information. We go through life thinking that a great cosmic conveyor belt of what we want is going to roll on past us, and we'll barely even have to extend our arms. We read our Bible and we hear all these amazing promises from the Father who loves us, and we get sort of complacent. He's got this, we think, and we shut our eyes to take a snooze on the road trip of life, confident that someone else is going to look out for stop signs and wrong turns.

It's true: God's got this. He is going to take care of us. But He wants us to be in relationship with Him. He wants us to be an active, receptive participant in our own salvation. See his patience with Abraham's entreaties on behalf of the righteous of Sodom: He wants to answer, not simply to tell.

He wants us to stay awake for the drive.

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

Ultimately, what does God promise to give us when we pray? The short answer to that question is God. God promises to give Himself to us in prayer. Prayer is about union with God, not receiving favors. When God comes to us in prayer, His presence comes with faith, hope, and love. When we find these virtues enhanced and nurtured, we know that our prayer has been heard and answered. When we seek out, listen to, and live by these virtues we find ourselves led back to God and more united with the Divine Presence. We struggle with what we want God to do and how we want our prayer validated. That's what makes Jesus' prayer, the Our Father, so perfect. It celebrates a deepening intimate relationship of trust between our Creator and us. When we persistently cry out for God in love, how can that prayer go unanswered?

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Meister Eckhart asks, "Who is the man whose prayers God always hears?" He answers, "God hears the man who appeals to God as God. When, however, man appeals to God, hoping for some worldly good, he is not appealing to God at all, but to what he is asking of God. He is trying to make God his servant. On this point, St. Augustine says: 'You pray to what you love, for true whole prayer is nothing but love!' Thus, we pray to what we love, and no one rightly prays to God but he who prays for God and has nothing on his mind but God." We struggle with what we want God to do and how we want our prayer validated. Meister Eckhart is correct. We often want God to be our servant. We further struggle with trusting that God knows what we need and that His will is best.

God's will is not some predetermined outcome of events that we must simply suggest. "Thy will be done" is not an invocation beckoning us to accept a particular state of affairs passively. Rather, it is the humble and confident placement of ourselves in the presence of the God we seek, whom we call "Father." We must remember that God is the God of life and light. It is from nothing that God brings something and from the darkness that God brings life. Prayer allows us to seek the One we love with the assurance that all will be well regardless of what course the events of our lives take. God is not about passive submission but the humble trust of love.

That's what makes the Lord's Prayer the perfect prayer. It provides us with proper disposition and focus, putting in line all of the essential relationships of our lives. It celebrates and fosters the ever-deepening relationship of trust we have with our Creator. It also calls us to keep open the doors of love between our brothers and sisters with the power that comes with forgiveness. If in one's darkest hour they can find the resolve to fervently pray this perfect prayer of Jesus' conviction, then there is no doubt that God will hear their plea, reach out in love, and bring them ever closer to His heart. What more does one need to weather the storms of life besides faith, hope, and love? These are God's most perfect gifts and all we really need.

REMEMBERING ROBBY

We hope you can join us in our fight against childhood cancer by supporting the 6th Annual Robby Brisco Open Golf Tournament.

Robby was just 16 when he was diagnosed with bone cancer. Sadly, Robby's fight ended just three years later, but his spirit to fight and stay positive lives on.

The RBO is a way to remember and honor Robby and other fallen cancer warriors, a way to inspire our local kids and families who are in the midst of fighting their own cancer battles, and a way to provide funding to fight this terrible disease. So far, we've raised an incredible $225,000 for the Pediatric Clinical Trials Program at Connecticut Children's Medical Center.

We invite you to join this cause—become a Robby Brisco Open sponsor, play some golf, or join us for the reception and dinner program.

Together, we have helped Connecticut Children's:

- Increase the number of staff, making all clinical trials available through a national consortium of clinical trials.
- Hire a full-time research associate.
- Fund research to evaluate the long-term consequences of chemotherapy on the heart, and to identify ways to prevent heart damage.
- Join the National Pediatric Cancer Foundation's Sunshine Project, to develop more targeted and less toxic therapies.

With gratitude and appreciation,
Doug Brisco
Tournament Chair
