ACTS:

The Spread of the Kingdom

The Acts of the Apostles is the story of how a few Christians empowered by the Holy Spirit were chosen to bring Christ and the Good News to the ends of the earth. ACTS: The Spread of the Kingdom is a Bible Study that traces how the gospel witness spread outward in waves from Jerusalem and reveals how the seeds of Church structure and authority took root. It shows how the struggles of the early Christians in living the life of Christ apply to us today.

St. Ann's will begin a 20 week Bible study; ACTS: The Spread of the Kingdom. Participants will meet weekly to view an engaging video presentation followed by a group discussion

WHEN:

On Thursday evenings from 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.
 Starting September 15, 2022

WHERE:

In person in Father Bennett Hall or on Zoom
 *We will take a break for the holidays.

Annual Parish Collection

Church of Saint Ann

Every parish family should have received a letter inviting to help support our 2022 Parish Annual Collection. The collection if successful will provide funding for the roof replacement of the Parish Wing. The participation of ALL parishioners is essential for the success of this effort. Thank you!

ROMANS: The Gospel of Salvation

St. Paul's letter to the Romans has been at the center of reflection, conversion, and controversy from the time it was written. Andrew Swafford and Jeff Cavins, (Ascension Press) provide an authentically Catholic, comprehensive, and simple way to understand the overarching theme of Romans—salvation. This presentation will help you to make sense of the difficult passages regarding faith, works of the law, and justification. Above all, it will help you to enter into a more meaningful relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ.

This 8-week program will start on Wednesday, September 14th at 9:30 AM in Father Bennett Hall

Group discussion is based on questions in the workbook and is followed by a 30-minute video. Purchase of the workbook ($25) also registers you to view any of the sessions online should you miss a session.

For more information or to register please call Janet Newman at 860-676-0037 or via email at wjnewman@sbcglobal.net.

God Has a Personal Message For You!

Join us for the popular Lectio Divina way of praying scripture, where you listen for what God is saying to you in the Gospel for the coming Sunday. It's also a great way to connect with others, and engage more fully in Mass.

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

We are all familiar with the parable of the Lost Son in today's Gospel. (Luke 15: 1-32)
 Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could reach out and touch each lost soul with Divine grace and cause them to return to the arms of Our Loving Heavenly Father?

Reflection: Are you aware that Jesus made such a promise to St. Faustina, as recorded in her writings, "The Diary of Saint Faustina"? He promised that for every hour a person spends in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, He would give a grace to EACH SOUL in the WORLD!

Pope St. John Paul II confirms this outpouring of Christ's Mercy in the Holy Eucharist. He wrote, "Anyone who prays to the Savior (before the Blessed Sacrament) draws the whole world with him and raises it to God." When was the last time that you stopped in for a visit to Jesus Eucharistic present to us and for us in the tabernacle of every Catholic church?

STEP BY STEP:

A Guided Journey Through the Catholic Faith

Catholicism is so broad and deep, it can be a challenge to navigate. Let us guide you "Step by Step" through the high points of our faith, via the engaging video series, Symbolon, from FORMED.org

WHO: Anyone who wants to better understand what Catholics believe, and why we gather, pray, celebrate and serve the way we do, from cradle Catholics to seekers curious about the Faith.

WHEN: Tuesdays, 6:30-8pm, Sept 20-Nov 22

WHERE: Fr. Bennett Hall

HOST: Andrea Pizzuti

COST: $20 (for printed materials)

RSVP: By Sept 13 via <https://www.osvhub.com/stannavon/forms/step-by-step-2022>

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

Rise, and Go to Your Father

"If you pull into my driveway and honk, you better be dropping off a package, because you're sure not picking anything up."

I first read these words in the pages of W. Bruce Cameron's "8 Simple Rules for Dating my Teenage Daughter," (that's Rule No. 5, by the way).

There's a certain respect that is shown by someone who takes the time to come to the door, ring the bell and wait to be greeted. Being willing to go through the niceties for the sake of appearances is a small act of deference on the part of the person doing the picking-up, even if it's not for a date. Without it, the whole scenario becomes entitled.

I want you to think of something that you want or need, but do not have. Is it peace? Is it financial stability? Is it strength? Is it friendship?

The brother of the prodigal son had a lot of unexpressed desires. He sees his brother heaped with gifts and favors, feasting on the fattened calf, and he is enraged. I haven't been given half of that, he thinks, and I've worked so hard.

But for all his faithfulness, one has to wonder — did this son ever simply ask for what he needed? Did he get out of the car, so to speak, and ring the bell? Or did he sit in the driveway leaning on the horn?

God wants us to come before Him. He wants us to ask. He wants us to be like Moses — sure enough of our Father's indulgence to boldly ask for it. Think again about what you need but do not have, and ask yourself: Have I approached the door and rung the bell?
- Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

So the LORD relented in the punishment he had threatened to inflict on his people. (Ex 32:14)

Psalm:

I will rise and go to my father. (Ps 51)

Second Reading:

This saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. (1 Tm 1:15)

Gospel:

"I tell you, in just the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance." (Lk 15:7)

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

It is easy to worship things other than God. Our perception of reality gets distorted as well as our understanding of truth. Ideologies and theories that find a popular reception are extolled when they are simply lies. Human beings easily get lost. God came to us in the person of Jesus Christ to rescue us from our sins and keep us where we need to be. But we have to realize that we are living in darkness before we can ask for light. We have to recognize that we are lost so that we can desire to be found. And, we have to know that we have sinned so that we can repent. God always patiently waits. God is delighted when one of His children chooses life over death and runs toward His unconditional Mercy. Let's not be so stubborn and stiff-necked that we fail to recognize that we may have wandered into the wrong pasture.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Since God created human beings, we have struggled to keep our focus on God. We wrestle with the question of "who is God" and foolishly believe some of God's job description can be better completed by us. We wander in different directions, lose our way, think that happiness can be found elsewhere and even construct golden calves to worship. Are we simply too independent or just blatantly stubborn? It's a good question to ask. Even with all of our silliness and distractions, God compassionately and patiently waits. He lets us assert our wills and knows that perhaps one day we will actually wake up and realize how lost we are.

"Since happiness is nothing other than the enjoyment of the highest good and since the highest good is above, no one can be made happy unless he rises above himself, not by an ascent of the body but of the heart. But we cannot rise above ourselves unless a higher power lifts us up ... Divine aid is available to those who seek it from their hearts, humbly and devoutly; and this means to sigh for it in this valley of tears, through fervent prayer (St. Bonaventure)." One of the biggest human struggles is discerning what, exactly, is the highest good. We are ordered to achieve it but if we pursue it with clouded vision, we will never truly find it.

One of the greatest obstacles to God's power and love is a stubborn, closed heart of stone. When we are fiercely determined to set our sights elsewhere for happiness or simply ride the popular currents of the day, we will never satisfy the deep ache and longing within. We know that ache well. It is precisely why we scurry all over the place, attempting to find the next best thing to take away its pain. Nothing in the created world ever can or will. We continue our journey. One day, people may wake up and realize that they are grazing in the wrong pasture and putting themselves in harm's way. When this awakening occurs, it will be a most joyous day as we will see God's wide-open arms waiting to receive us. "Lead me, Lord, in your path, and I will enter in your truth. Let my heart rejoice that it may fear your name (St. Bonaventure)."

Dreaming Together

Forming Disciples for Faith and Justice

September 17, 2022 at the Omni New Haven

Keynote Speaker: Rev. James Martin

The Center for Catholic Education & Formation and the Office for Catholic Social Justice Ministry of the Archdiocese of Hartford will sponsor a joint conference on Saturday, September 17, 2022 at the Omni New Haven at Yale. The theme, Dreaming Together: Forming Disciples for Faith and Justice takes its name from "Let us Dream" by Pope Francis, who encourages us to dream of a better future. The conference will include educational and practical pieces on faith formation topics such as lifelong formation, parent and family engagement, social justice issues, and Catholic social teaching. Attendees will gain skills in integrating social ministry and Catholic social teaching into classroom, parish, and family life.

Father James Martin, SJ will provide the keynote address. The address will emphasize the need to re-ground ourselves in why we do the work that we do. This conference will also include three (3) break-out sessions with a choice of 24 workshops, lunch and exhibits. Simultaneous translation will be available for the keynote and limited number of workshops will be offered in Spanish.

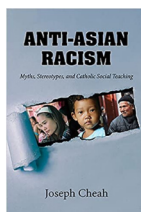

For more information visit www.CatholicEdaohct.org.

Registration will open in July.
