Food Collection This Weekend

October 8/9

Don't forget to drop off your food donations this weekend in the Gathering Space. Donations will be going to the Avon Food Pantry, and Catholic Worker House in Hartford

ImmaCare Shelter Update and Meal Donation Schedule

ImmaCare shelter has continued to offer accessible shelter and housing services despite the many obstacles Covid put in its way. While many times the men had to leave the shelter for isolated rooms because of major outbreaks, most of the time the shelter operation continued, although looking quite different as volunteers serving was now not allowed. Because of the generosity of this parish and the kindness of those who have cooked or donated for years, and the new people who heard about ImmaCare and offered whatever was needed, we were never in a position to not honor our commitment to bring a home-cooked, nutritious meal monthly. Supplemented by needed supplies, our support was deeply appreciated by staff, guests, and those of us who promised then prayed - way in advance.

We are now starting another shelter season of honoring a commitment Father McCarthy made 35 years ago when this Hartford church basement shelter struggled to feed people and began calling the suburban churches and he responded "Yes-St. Ann will help". We will not serve but will deliver plentiful, nutritious and delicious meals. With less men because of Covid restrictions, we will also bring much needed food and supplies, much of what will go on the Outreach Van to be distributed to those who for so many reasons, choose to stay outdoors until the weather is life-threatening. We have also begun delivering much needed supplies to the Prudence Crandall Center which is a shelter for women and children who are survivors of domestic violence. Their needs are many and they have been appreciative of the support St. Ann's offered over the past year.

We will be going the 3rd Thursday of every month beginning with Oct. 20 and continuing at least through May.

If you have already contacted us, I will be emailing you and it will be so good to be back in touch. If you want to be added to the list and are willing to cook or donate a needed item (ie. coffee, water, juice boxes, or a surprise "item of the month!" - just let me know! Our thanks in advance for all you have done in the past, and all that can be done this year.

Please contact Kfinocchio@gmail.com with any questions or to help.

Annual Parish Collection

Church of Saint Ann

We are very grateful for the generosity shown by so many to our Parish Annual Collection. If you have not yet had an opportunity to return your gift card, please do so as soon as possible. Every gift is welcome and sincerely appreciated. Please complete your gift card and return it to the parish office today or go online at www.stannavon.org to support this critical mission. Pledge forms can also be obtained in the Parish Office. Thank you!

PRO-LIFE MINISTRY

My Dear Children, "Pray, Pray, Pray" We are engaged in a Battle of Good versus Evil - A Culture of Death versus a Culture of Life. Our Blessed Mother has given us the greatest weapon for this time "The Rosary" and asks us to pray. She will help us if we storm Heaven with our prayers.

Please join us on SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15th at 12 noon at the West Avon Road Entrance to the Church Parking Lot.

We will unite our prayers with 20,000 Fatima Prayer Groups praying together across America.

"It is our duty to proclaim the Gospel of Life to the world. To proclaim Jesus is to proclaim life itself. Please bring your rosary and pray in Celebration of all Life from conception to natural death, for our country to once again be one Nation under God not just for some but for all of God's children, and for Love to overcome hatred, violence, and division. Remember Our Lady's words, "Finally, My Immaculate Heart will triumph." "Give me an army saying the Rosary and I will conquer the world." Pope Pius IX

God Has a Personal Message For You!

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

This week's theme: Profound Appreciation

The familiar story in today's Gospel of Jesus healing the ten lepers (Luke 17: 11-19) gives us an insight into how profoundly thankful we should be for all our blessings. And as Catholic Christians we should be especially thankful for the Holy Eucharist. Just as one leper returned to give praise, honor, worship and thanksgiving to Jesus for having healed him, so should we too do the same.

Reflection: The story is told of Bishop Sheen's travels with a Protestant Minister on a bus. As they passed a Catholic Church, Bishop Sheen made the sign of the Cross. The Minister asked him why. Bishop Sheen explained that the Church's tabernacle contained the Living Presence of Jesus. The Minister responded, "If I believed what you believe, I would enter that church, prostrate myself and never stop adoring Christ." What is your response after your reception of Holy Communion, since Jesus has just come to dwell within your very being with His healing, merciful, loving graces?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

The Zeal of the Convert

When you work in the Church, professionally or on a volunteer basis, you become familiar with the phenomenon known as “the zeal of the recent convert.”

Sometimes, it really seems that the newly baptized are just stronger Catholics than the cradle Catholics. They smile more at Mass. They are awestruck by the Eucharist. They come out of the confessional beaming.

It's not that they are naive. It's not that they are in some honeymoon phase of religion, living outside of reality. It's simply that they remember. They remember what it felt like before the Eucharist or before Confession. They recall before the sacraments and the oil and the grace and the relief. It was more recent for them than for some of us older Catholics — especially those of us who were baptized as infants.

Let's ask ourselves: Have we become too comfortable? Do we receive God's grace with expectation instead of surprise? Have we ceased to marvel and wonder at the goodness of God? If the answer is a resounding yes, don't despair. Look at the Gospel — a literal nine times out of ten, God goes un-thanked and un-noticed.

So many of us have forgotten, or never understood, what it meant when the leprosy was washed from our souls. But when we remind ourselves, we become more keenly aware of the extraordinariness of the gift we have received.

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

Expressing gratitude is a sign of a loving heart. When we have received a gracious gesture, the appreciation experienced forms a bond between the giver and receiver. This can only happen when abundance and kind gestures are seen as gifts and not something to which we are entitled. The power of gratitude is more profound when we realize all that we are and all we are given do not have a human source but are of God. Walking around believing that our glass is only half full leaves us always wanting more. We are never satisfied. We become nothing more than entitled pursuers of whatever we can get. Instead, the one who is eager to count their blessings and appreciate the wonder and beauty of the gift of life itself is at peace. Before they take another step or venture off on another journey, they bow in gratitude to the presence of God himself. They are most keenly aware that all would cease to be without God.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Ten lepers were cured. Only one returned to give thanks. When we fall victim to entitlement, we diminish our capacity to love. Never satisfied, we walk around with outstretched arms, eagerly searching for the next thing we want so that we can acquire it ourselves. Very rarely do entitled hands hold anything to freely give away to others. Entitled hands also find it challenging to reach toward heaven in a gesture of gratitude and praise. We are often more obsessed with celebrating our victories, securing our assets, safeguarding our futures, and stacking the deck of life in our favor rather than relishing and absorbing the gift of the moment and blessings received.

Entitled people find it difficult to pray properly. When the subject of our prayer is mostly about our needs and wants, we are falling into the trap of deception. We foolishly try to convince God that our tiny worlds are of greater importance than His. In ancient times, people would offer sacrifices to “the gods” to secure protection and favors. Our God desires mercy, not sacrifice, because He is about love and justice, not simply meeting our agendas. Every breath is a gift. Prayer, which is a celebration of that gift, acknowledges the Giver. Prayer strengthens the bond between Giver and receiver, creating a deepening awareness that nothing I am or anything I have can exist apart from His Divine Will. It also reminds us that we have done nothing to merit the unconditional love and mercy God showers upon us. Prayer is not just about getting what I need but celebrating who I am.

For St. Therese of Lisieux prayer is “a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy.” When our hearts “surge” toward God, we rush to the Source of our restoration and wholeness, knowing our longing for God's Divine embrace. Prayer is a response to God's graciousness with an act of gratitude returned by us. In prayer, we gaze upon each other in that sacred space where I give myself to God as He is, and God gives Himself to me as I am. We cannot take another step without saying thank you.
