With much gratitude and pleasure, the Social Outreach Committee reports the following successful collections:

The Peanut Butter Campaign for Haiti shipped 380 jars of peanut butter that were used in sandwiches to feed children in Carrefour throughout the summer. Your generous response made this protein food available to children who are suffering due to the current humanitarian crisis in Haiti.

Back Pack and school supplies provided much needed supplies to 62 children in Avon and the Catholic Worker House in Hartford. All ages of students benefitted from this collection.

Last week's parish wide food collection brought in much needed food for our Avon Pantry and neighbors around the Catholic Worker House in Hartford. Shelves in both places are filled with needed nonperishable food.

Our clients in Avon, many of whom are single seniors, were grateful for the expanded choice of food.

In November we will sponsor 2 special events on the weekend of Nov. 19 & 20:

International Fair-Trade Bazaar in Father Bennet Hall and our annual Turkey and Fixing's Drive. More information will follow soon.

May the Holy Spirit continue to inspire your good works and love of neighbor within our Christian Faith. May the blessings of your generosity fill your hearts with joy.

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

This week's theme: Bearing Good Fruit

Today's Gospel calls us to repentance and reminds us of the barren fig tree. (Luke 13: 1-9) Here we find a wonderful example of God's merciful patience with each of us. The Holy Spirit is the sanctifier of our souls. Have you ever considered how patient God is in working within each soul to bring us to salvation? In order to produce "good fruit", we need to become more Christlike. The Holy Eucharist was given to us by Our Lord to accomplish this transformation.

Reflection: St. Peter Julian Eymard wrote, "Jesus has prepared not just one Host, but one for everyday of our life. The Hosts are ready. Let us not forfeit even one of them." This saint understood the great value of Holy Communion. He knew that the principal fruit of receiving Holy Communion is our intimate union with Christ. Through this union Jesus enables us to produce the good fruits of a Christian life including the practice of the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

More Than a Buzzword

If you roll your eyes at the mention of the term stewardship, it's probably because, in the modern Church, stewardship has become something of a corporate buzzword. It's often used interchangeably with the concepts of financial endowment and volunteerism.

What's wrong with supporting your parish monetarily? What's the issue with giving of your time in service and ministry? Nothing at all, in fact — we should all be doing more of these things.

But as we do them, we should be constantly asking ourselves the all-important questions: Why am I doing this? How am I doing this? For whom am I doing this?

A donation to the parish school is a great thing. But ideally, the donor would have made the gift regardless of the ability to name the school gym. A tireless volunteer who always finds time for her parish certainly glorifies God with her commitment. But hopefully, her commitment would be just as enthusiastic if she knew there was no prospect of being written up in the bulletin as Volunteer of the Month.

God knows no favorites. The prayer of the Pharisee in the temple did not justify him because the Pharisee didn't really mean it as a prayer. His intent wasn't to thank God, his intent was to draw attention to his gifts. God did not reject the Pharisee's fasting and his tithes, he rejected the spirit in which they were offered.

God desires to transform us — our hearts, our souls, our communities. When we give of ourselves — either through money or through time — he is honored by the act of giving, not the gift itself. We should never make the mistake of thinking that stewardship is "time, talent, and treasure." Stewardship is the spirit of offering these gifts freely.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

To be humble means to see ourselves as we are. It comes with the recognition that we are never perfect, better than another, or free of sin. The humble person knows their faults and failings as well as their successes and triumphs. They also realize that they are nothing without God, especially God's mercy. The humble one knows who they are, who they can be, and how they have fallen short. Being desperately in love with God, they know how they have sometimes given in to their desires rather than God's will, almost with a sense of embarrassment. Being justified in our relationship with God is not about a list of the good things we do and the bad things we don't. We are vindicated when we realize how totally dependent we are upon God's gratuitous, abundant, and unconditional love. It is a gift we often take for granted and is often unappreciated.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

There is a thing called "false piety." It is when we wear a religious disguise of devotion, attend to our obligations, and outwardly abide by rules while being inwardly unkind, uncharitable, and exclusive. Wearing the right clothes, saying the proper prayers, being in sacred places, and reading devotional books, those exhibiting false piety craftily try to control others using the pretense of love. The Pharisees, consistently criticized by Jesus, are prime examples. Thinking they are superior to others, they foolishly believe they are better positioned with God and more worthy of God's attention. Forming an exclusive "club," they divide things between "mine" and "yours" and "us" and "them." They quickly criticize and point out flaws and errors in rituals and thinking. Conformity becomes the first commandment and control is the game's name.

The requirements for "club membership" are clear: do what we do, think what we think, and believe what we believe. Attempting to control others using the lure of "status" or "salvation," they seduce others into thinking that conformity is the only way to holiness. Clinging to "my beliefs," "my parish," "my way of thinking," they fail to see the more significant relationship with God that is veiled in all of these superficial rules and practices. Shallow, hollow, and empty vessels, they gloss over the more important virtues of justice, mercy, faithfulness, and forgiveness. Sparkling clean on the outside, but dirty on the inside. Spiritual arrogance is a grave sin. It alienates and hurts the little ones, those considered "least" in the kingdom.

God knows no favorites. Everyone belongs regardless of whether you are an official, bona fide member. Sometimes membership may be a detriment to actually living the Gospel if you're joining the team for the wrong reasons. The genuinely humble ones may not appear to be overly "pious." They may not know all of the proper prayers or abide by all of the correct rituals, but they know that they are broken and need mercy. There is no shame in being broken. In fact, many things need to be broken in order to be what they truly are! There is a reason Jesus told us to pray in private. It's only between you and God. It is nobody else's business. ©LPi
