PRO-LIFE MINISTRY

Hugs from the Heart

Pro-Life Ministry is sponsoring their Valentine's Day "Hugs from the Heart" Outreach to Two Hearts Pregnancy Care Center in Torrington.

Huggies or any brand of diapers will help them immensely. All sizes, but especially size 6 are desperately needed. They could also use newborn 24 month, and 2T size clothes, baby lotions/wipes, or gift cards would also be greatly appreciated.

Please place the above items in the baby boxes found in the Gathering Space on or before the weekend of February 11th and 12th.

Thank you in advance for helping to support moms and their babies!

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

We read The Beatitudes from Matthew 5:1-12 for our Gospel today. These are Our Lord's teachings on how to both be happy in this life and in the next. If you are seeking peace, live the Beatitudes. One of them deals with meekness. Meekness in this sense is synonymous with humility. In order to believe that Jesus is truly present to us in the Holy Eucharist and is not just a symbol, we must cultivate the virtue of humility.

Reflection: Jesus, meek and humble of heart, make our hearts like unto thine own. Let us see You in your profound humility in the fragility of the small, white consecrated Host. We know that St. Thomas Aquinas wrote the "Lauda Sion Salvatorem" in the 13th century to celebrate that every particle of the consecrated Host and every drop in the consecrated chalice contains the TOTAL presence of Christ. During that time period many erroneous ideas about the Holy Eucharist were rampant. Does that echo again in today's world?

The Humble of the Earth

When I think of the Beatitudes, I think of collectible coffee mugs emblazoned with the words Blessed are the peacemakers, with little pastel flowers stenciled in the white spaces of the lettering. I think of greeting cards and decorative wall hangings.

Why? These are the Beatitudes, for heaven's sake — revolutionary and radical. An uncompromising impeachment of worldly values. They are the opposite of banal.

But I cringed from my head to my toes when I read my first draft of this reflection, a retelling of a time in my life when I decided to embrace humility and meekness. I realized that the Beatitudes aren't something I can tell you about. Poverty of spirit, the hunger for righteousness, the gladness God gives to the downtrodden — these are concepts that must be animated within us. They must be lived. So instead of telling you my story, I want you to tell yours.

I invite you to think of a time when you were vulnerable. When you were discouraged or humbled or felt like a failure. A time when you were cut low. The loss of a job, perhaps, or the rejection of a loved one. The abrupt end of some road that you felt sure would be long and prosperous.

Resentment, envy, and vengefulness flourish in moments like this. Did you experience those feelings? Did you embrace them? Did you want to?

What did the world tell you this moment should mean?

What does Christ tell you it should mean? Have you figured it out, or are you still working on it?

God chose the foolish of the world to shame the wise, and God chose the weak of the world to shame the strong. — 1 Corinthians 1:27

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK Live the Liturgy

Every day, God offers each of us countless opportunities to embody the Beatitudes. Blink and you might miss them. Where is God inviting you to poverty of spirit? Where does he beg you to hunger for righteousness? How does he ask you to make peace?

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In my parents' bedroom there were on the wall two photos of my mom and dad from their early adulthoods. The photo of my mother entranced me when I was a boy. I loved looking at it, even though I saw her in daily life. Something about that picture captured her perfectly. It was an image of the joy, wisdom, beauty, and strength that enveloped me from the start of my life. It was an icon of the woman who fed, taught, and encouraged me. I felt a deep pride that I came from such beauty.

The beatitudes of Jesus are a kind of self-portrait. But it is a strange picture. At first, the blessings of being poor, mourning, and hungering and thirsting for righteousness may seem bizarre or, worse, a religious delusion. Who wants to look like that? But if we look again, we begin to see the characteristics of Jesus' form. He becomes poor and fills it with his riches for us, he weeps and mourns for us, and fills it with his joy, he hungers and thirsts for us to be righteous, and so satisfies us. And so on. It's the way he appears on the cross.

Perhaps we should put on our bedroom room walls the words of the beatitudes next to a crucifix of the Lord Jesus. Then we can do what the beatitudes are designed for, to gaze at the joy, wisdom, beauty, and strength of the one who is our origin, and who is with us every day. And little by little, we'll start to look like him.

— Father John Muir

THE BULLETIN BOARD

Archdiocese of Hartford's High School Collection:

THANK YOU!

WE ARE GRATEFUL! Catholic high school students in the Archdiocese of Hartford send their deepest gratitude and thanks to all who participated in the 2023 Catholic High School Collection. Your support will further enhance the outstanding educational experience our secondary schools offer and help students prepare for leadership roles and active lives of faith as they move forward. Thank you for your generosity.

January is Human Trafficking Prevention Month

PRAYER TO END HUMAN TRAFFICKING

God of Light, we pray for all the people – men, women and children – hidden in the darkness of modern day slavery. Help us shine Your light into the homes, streets, factories and brothels in our own neighborhoods and around the world where people are enslaved. The darkness is as light to you, O Lord. No person in any corner of the world is hidden from Your sight. Help us shine Your light.
Amen.

Evening for Couples: The Power of Gratitude

Tuesday, January 31, 7-8:30.
St. Mary's Star of the Sea.
You will be thankful that you did.

Gratitude is powerful. Grateful couples are healthier, happier, more spiritual, and more loving. In a one and a half-hour session, you will be introduced to the whys and hows of couple gratitude. You will be given a take-home guide that will start you on your way to a more grateful relationship.

There is no cost to attend, just a desire to spend time enriching your relationship and join other couples in a relaxed and supportive atmosphere. Light refreshments will be available, also at no cost.

Registration is recommended but not required.

Leave an acceptance message for Tom and Joan containing your name and parish at joantomgun@sbcglobal.net or 860-673-3647
