Confessions to Be Heard on Monday Evenings During Lent

If you have gotten caught up in the busyness of life and have fallen away from the Sacrament of Reconciliation, you can change that. This Lenten season, we continue the Archdiocesan-wide effort to inspire Catholics to experience God's love and mercy offered in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

The Church of Saint Ann will be open on Mondays during Lent from at 6:00pm for confessions.

KINGDOM OF HAPPINESS

Lent Reflection Series

Living the Beatitudes in Everyday Life

In this 8-part program, you'll learn how the Beatitudes are much more than nice sayings; they are the path to true joy charted by Christ himself. You'll also identify the false promises of happiness that leave us feeling empty.

Featuring insightful teachings by Fr. Jeffrey Kirby and inspiring video-profiles of everyday heroes living happy, satisfying lives.

Meeting Feb 24 – April 28

- Sunday Mornings, 10:30am-12pm in Room 3 and via Zoom
- Wednesday Evenings, 7:00-8:30pm in Room 3
- Friday Mornings, 9:45-11:15am via Zoom

It's That Time of Year Again...

If you are a registered parishioner using envelopes or online giving, and would like a copy of our records of your weekly envelope contributions, please e-mail Kris in the Parish Office: kris.martino@stannavon.com or call 860-673-9858, ext. 221.

Note: Contributions to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal are mailed separately from the Archdiocese.

Lenten Fast & Abstinence

- Ash Wednesday is a day of fast and abstinence; likewise Good Friday.
- Fasting means limiting oneself to one full meal. Two light meals are allowed, but no solid food should be taken between meals.
- Fasting binds those between the ages of 18 and 59; those who have reached the age of 14 are bound by abstinence.
- All Fridays in Lent are days of abstinence; that is, days on which no meat is to be eaten.

St. Maria Faustina - Prayer to be Merciful

Help me, O Lord, that my eyes may be merciful, so that I may never suspect or judge from appearances, but look for what is beautiful in my neighbors souls.

Help me, O Lord, that my ears may be merciful, so that I may give heed to my neighbors needs.

Help me, O Lord, that my tongue may be merciful so that I should never speak negatively of my neighbor, but have a word of comfort and forgiveness for all.

Help me, O Lord, that my hands may be merciful and filled with good deeds, so that I may do only good to my neighbors.

Help me, O Lord, that my feet may be merciful, so that I may hurry to assist my neighbor.

Help me, O Lord, that my heart may be merciful so that I myself may feel all the sufferings of my neighbor. I will refuse my heart to no one. I will be sincere even with those who will abuse my kindness. And I will lock myself up in the most merciful Heart of Jesus. I will bear my own suffering in silence.

May your mercy O Lord rest upon me. Amen.

The Holy Eucharist
DID YOU KNOW?

This week's theme:

Be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Today's Mass readings exhort us to "Be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect". The perfection that is referred to here is that we love our neighbor with the very love of God. In order to achieve this, we need the virtue of humility. We are unable to achieve perfection without understanding that it is God's grace which accomplishes all virtues within us. By ourselves, we are unable to achieve anything.

Reflection: St. Faustina, the saint of Divine Mercy, displayed her humility in these words, "Whatever good is within me is due to the Holy Eucharist." She recognized that it was Christ in the Blessed Sacrament who supplied every grace necessary for her to achieve any goodness in her life.

Thank you

Once again, the parish of St Ann came through with volunteers and shoppers to make our Used Book Sale a huge success. Thank you so much for your continued support of the St. Ann Scholarship Fund.

The following are some responses from students who are being helped:

"St. Ann Parish has continually helped me receive a great education here at East Catholic and has helped me grow towards the student and person I want to become."

"I guarantee to show how much this opportunity means to me through my school work, grades, and representing East Catholic High School."

St. Ann parishioners makes a difference in so many lives!!

-the St. Ann Scholarship Committee

Fr. Fontana will be celebrating the live TV Mass on Tuesday, Feb. 21st at 10:00am.
 The television Mass is broadcast on Comcast - WCCT-TV & My TV 1059.

(Practicing) Catholic, Recognize Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments, by Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Hardness of Holiness

Want to know the words I find hardest to say? "Lord, give me the strength."

The world tells us to push ourselves outside of our comfort zone if we're training for a marathon or applying for a job — but if we're talking about God, everything is supposed to be easy. If it comes "naturally" or without struggle it's supposed to be right.

Only God is perfect, the world tells us. What's the use of trying so hard?

I'm really good at finding excuses for myself, especially when it comes to holiness. Holiness, often (not always, but often), is about choosing the hard, but right, thing. The invitation to holiness is whispered in the hardest moments of my day when I am the most hopelessly human. After the kids' bedtime, when I really just want to watch Dateline and eat too much ice cream instead of saying the Rosary. When I've committed to helping someone, but it suddenly becomes incredibly inconvenient. When I see a social media post that's just begging for a snarky reply. When the conversation becomes gossip and I'm dying to make myself feel superior to someone.

The reason it's so difficult for me to mutter these five simple words is because I know that if I say them and I mean them, they form a prayer that God will always answer in the affirmative. He will give me the strength I ask for, and then I will have no excuse.

It's not unlike my kids claiming they're too tired to clean up the playroom. If they would just ask me for help, it would all be so doable. But where would that leave them?

With a job to do, that's where.

"Be holy, for I, the LORD, your God, am holy." — Leviticus 19:2

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

Want to be a real revolutionary? Defy the fallen impulses of human nature. Love your enemy. Pray for your persecutor. Give to those who would take. We can do hard things, Christians. We aren't perfect, but our God is.

©LPI

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Of all the things Jesus says which seem totally bat-crazy, this one might take the cake: "But I say to you, love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you." An enemy is someone who desires the destruction of you, your projects, or those you care about. To love and pray for them is to want their health, strength, and flourishing. But if they thrive, they are more likely to hurt you and others. So, aren't you indirectly willing your own destruction, or that of your friends? If you doubt that this problem is embedded in this teaching, when was the last time you actually prayed honestly for the people you really hate?

How can we solve this riddle so we might actually live this command? Recall that enemy-love is the surest sign that you love someone with God's love, and not with indirect egotism. After all, if my love for my enemy ends up hurting me or my loved ones, it can't be for me. Enemy-love costs more because there are no tit-for-tats. No reciprocity — just loved poured out, and often pain in return. That's why it is so precious and rare. "What is unusual about that?" asks the Lord about love for our friends. Jesus wants us to experience the unusual love which only comes from him.

When Jesus was being killed on the cross, he was loving his executioners. In fact, he was holding them in being as they nailed him to the cross. He loved those who were spiritually piercing his Mother's heart, while they were doing it. And when he rose from the dead, he showed us that this kind of love is always worth it. It's stronger than death. Real love is unusual.

— Father John Muir

THE BULLETIN BOARD

Please be aware that we have seen another increase in scam emails, calls &/or texts that claim to be from our clergy, church staff members, fellow parishioners or volunteers. These messages usually ask you to get back to them quickly...that they're busy and need a favor. If you accidentally get back to them they will usually ask for gift cards be purchased for something like a relative's birthday or a sick parishioner. These are fake e-mails in an attempt to scam people out of money. Do not respond to these emails.

Our parish does not make unsolicited calls or e-mails to request money, the purchase of gifts, or your personal information. If you are unsure of any correspondence that appears to be from our parish, please call the Parish Office at: 860-673-9858 to verify. Thank you for your vigilance and cooperation.
