The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

This week's theme: The Consolation of the Eucharist

We read the glorious miracle of Jesus raising Lazarus from the dead today. (John 11:1-45) How deeply touching are the words that "Jesus wept" upon learning that Lazarus, His friend, had died. We know that each of us must experience the profound sadness of some loss in life: the death of a loved one, a suffering of illness, a disappointment in family life, etc. We know that Our Lord weeps with us as well. He has not left us alone in our sorrows but gives us the great consolation of the Holy Eucharist. Through this gift of Himself, Our Lord accompanies us through all of our bitter trials throughout life to the very moment of our own death.

Reflection: One saint who understood the consolation of Holy Communion was Blessed Maria Adeodata Pisani. This 19th century Benedictine sister had a passionate love for Jesus Eucharistic. She kept a beautiful diary entitled "The Mystical garden of the soul that loves Jesus and Mary". She was beatified by St. Pope John Paul II in 2001. As she lay dying, Blessed Maria dragged herself from her death bed to attend one last Mass. Shortly after receiving Jesus in Holy Communion, she died. Blessed Maria obviously knew that the greatest consolation of all could be found only in one place: upon the bosom of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist.

Little Lambs

(Practicing) Catholic, Recognize Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments, by Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Offerings

Offer it up. My grandmother used this phrase with her children, and my mother, in turn, used it with me. It's a kind of verbal heirloom, a gift of wisdom from a generation that knew suffering all too well.

We know it to be true that God will work through our suffering if we invite him to. We know it and we have seen it — we have only to look at Lazarus and his sisters Martha and Mary.

But, often, I invite God into my suffering only to tell Him where I want Him to stand. I make an offering of suffering but expect God to do something very specific with it. Teach me this, please. Give me this specific grace. Show me this specific answer.

The happy ending in today's Gospel is not the alleviation of the sorrow Martha and Mary feel because it isn't alleviated, Lazarus is still human, and death still awaits him. Someday, his sisters will have to mourn at his tomb. That loss and pain will not be avoided.

The happy ending is that he is resurrected now, and in doing so, brings so many to belief. The happy ending is that Martha and Mary do not abandon discipleship because things didn't work out exactly the way that they wanted. They run out to meet Christ, eyes dim with tears. They fling themselves into his company and onto his providence.

They made an offering of their suffering, and their happy ending is that their offering was accepted.

"You are not in the flesh, on the contrary, you are in the spirit." — Romans 8:9

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

Though weighed down by grief, Martha rushes out to meet Jesus. She may not understand why he was absent upon the death of her brother, but her faithfulness is undeterred. In the hour of her heartbreak, she knows her only solace is in the embrace of the Lord.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Of all Jesus' miracles, the most unsettling might be when he made a dead person alive. We know of three times when he did so: a girl, a young man, and Lazarus. The miracle teaches us he has the power of life and death. He anticipates his resurrection. Sin hurts us. Some sin kills us, spiritually. The three miracles reveal to us that no matter our circumstances, Jesus can give life to us.

The three miracles are instructive of the three ways we feel dead. The little dead girl symbolizes sin before it has time to mature. She's in bed and, once alive, gets right back to her life. The young man is lying in his casket in a funeral procession. This is sin allowed to fester, to grow and become somewhat normalized. Once raised, he has a short walk back home. Lazarus, a full-grown dead man, lies wrapped in burial bands in the tomb. Once he is raised, much needs to be done. He'll need to remove those bands, find new clothes, and travel all the way back home. That is sin allowed to go all the way, unchecked for months or years. It's the most spectacular of the three and reveals Jesus' glory more than the others.

What hope that should give us, for us and those whom we love! Jesus knows our sin hurts us and can even kill us spiritually. No matter the extent of the damage, he is always ready for the miracle of making the dead fully alive.
