THE COUNCIL CONNECTION

The Parish Council is an advisory board that assists Father Fontana in serving our highly engaged parish community. We are excited to be working with Father Fontana who has expressed his appreciation for being able to collaborate with this ministry. The Council includes registered members of the parish who are actively involved in their faith development through worship, prayer, and the liturgy. The current members are: Jane Ellen Peregrin (chairperson), Bill Bachhuber (co-chairperson), Carole Anderson, Nelson Bondhus, Carla DuBois, JoEllen Oakes, Eileen Sibson, and Dianne Simpson.

The focus of our initial meetings this year has been redefining our goals. Revising the Parish Council Mission Statement, supporting Father Fontana and his plans for the spiritual and physical well-being of the entire parish community, ensuring that the needs of all parish ministries are met and increasing communication between the Council and the parishioners are of utmost importance. We are exploring various ways to improve communication by using technology, the parish bulletin, and the E-News; and hopefully, we will share the results in our next posting.

Parish Social After all Masses on May 7th

All are INVITED to join fellow Saint Ann Parishioners and guests for coffee, refreshments and children's activities on May 7th. This social will be hosted by our St. Ann's Prayer Groups.

The International Pilgrim Statue of Our Lady of Fatima will be presented for Veneration the weekend of May 6th and 7th. The rosary will be prayed after the 4pm, 7:30am and 11am Masses.

Thank You!

On behalf of the grateful recipients, thank you for your very generous responses to our Lenten Corporal Works of Mercy. Families in Avon, Hartford and Haiti, and prisoners enriching their faith journey are blessed by your neighbor to neighbor outreach. At least 85 hams were collected and enjoyed as a result of our Easter Food Drive, in addition to all the other supplies. Our faith in action is always most evident by your continuous generosity.

May you all be blessed in return!

HOPE Against Darkness:
The Transforming Vision of St. Francis in an Age of Anxiety

by Richard Rohr, OFM

Thursdays, May 18-June 15, 2023

9:30-11am, Room 3

Leader: Terry Pendergast

Cost: $12

RSVP by May 12:

ann.distefano@stannavon.com

Join us as we discuss Richard Rohr's description of how Saint Francis' way of forgiveness and love can guide us out of the postmodern storm of cultural biases, victimhood, and fearful attitudes toward one another and the Church/religion, transform our lives, and heal our culture.

The Holy Eucharist
DID YOU KNOW?

Today is Good Shepherd Sunday. The Gospel is from John 10:1-10. It is Jesus calling us to follow Him as faithful disciples. The sheep in the parable recognize the shepherd's voice. When we recognize Jesus and follow Our Lord, He makes us a trustworthy promise. "I came so that they (we) might have life and have it more abundantly."

Reflection: Our God is never stingy. He never gives us the abundant life of grace in dribs and drabs. Being generous Love, God pours out Himself to us especially when we receive Him in the Holy Eucharist. The only thing which hampers our reception of this abundance is our own disposition. We receive the amount of grace in every Holy Communion that we are disposed to receive.

PERENNIAL PLANT SALE

Sat., May 20, 2023

St. Ann's Parking Lot

8am - 12 noon

As you start to work in your gardens this spring, please consider sharing some of your perennials that are ready for dividing. Also, we would appreciate the donation of any Easter plants, such as tulips and daffodils, if you don't plan to use the bulbs in your own flower beds. In addition to plants, we would welcome the donation of small, gently used gardening accessories (e.g., tools, flower pots, statuary).

DONATIONS:

Please drop off in the parking lot (West Avon Rd side, under tree)

Thursday, May 18, from 8:30-10am and 5-7pm

Friday, May 19, from 8:30-10am and 1-2pm

Please IDENTIFY plants (name, color, sun/shade).

Proceeds will support the Social Justice Ministry's Scholarship Program, which supports deserving urban students with partial tuition to local Catholic High Schools

If you have any questions, or would like to volunteer, please call Jean Frey: 860.673.1949. We would be happy to have new volunteers join us!

God Has a Personal Message For You!

Join us for the popular Lectio Divina way of praying scripture, where you listen for what God is saying to you in the Gospel for the coming Sunday. It's also a great way to connect with others, and engage more fully in Mass.

*Friendly groups meet via Zoom & in person.
Newcomers welcome!*

(Practicing) Catholic, Recognize Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments, by Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Cut to the Heart

Everyone who has been married knows this feeling: you're in the midst of a disagreement with your spouse. You've really dug in your heels. You're ready to die on this hill. And you have the awful, heartbreaking realization that you are wrong. Whatever it is you're arguing about, you're wrong. You.

So where do you go from here? The only way forward is to own it. Fess up. Grab a fork and dig into that humble pie. It makes me cringe just to write about it, because it's the worst feeling.

I use the example of marriage because it's the one I'm most familiar with — my closest relationship, the one that teaches me the most about who I am and who God asks me to be. But this is a universal experience, and everyone — single or married, child or adult, lay or ordained — knows how badly it feels to realize that you're wrong. You're human. You messed up.

It is hard to recognize that the Christian life is one of ongoing repentance. It is painful to acknowledge the ways in which we are falling short, even as we strive to follow in Christ's example.

It can, in the words of today's reading, "cut to the heart."

But that feeling of despair is what propels forward motion. We have to allow ourselves to feel bad, that's the fertile ground of penitence. We are meant to have not just life, but life "more abundantly." Stasis isn't the goal. Baptism isn't the finish line.

Examining our conscience is hard. It cuts to the heart. It cuts to the truth.

"Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins." — Acts 2:38

2023 Archbishop's Annual Appeal

Our sincere gratitude to those who have already made a gift or a pledge. Each parish is asked to raise a target amount — essentially, our parish's portion of the overall Appeal goal of $10 million. To date we have raised 69 % of this goal with gifts from 200 households here in our parish or 12% Participation Rate. As a parish family we are striving for a 75% Rate of Participation. If you have not yet made your contribution to the Appeal, I ask that you take a few moments in the days ahead to consider prayerfully your gift decision. Your help is very much needed. Each contribution ensures that the ministries, programs, and services of the Church remain strong throughout the Archdiocese of Hartford.

All funds contributed to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal are used exclusively for the purposes outlined in the Appeal literature, which can be found at <https://archdioceseofhartford.org/appeal/>. No Appeal funds are ever used for legal fees or settlements.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK Live the Liturgy

We know the voice of our shepherd. We know he speaks a language of love, of patience, of long-suffering sacrifice. The voice of the thief will offer us freedom, but it is a freedom that ends in destruction. There is only one gate that leads to everlasting life. ©LPi

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

"Let the whole house of Israel know for certain that God has made both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified." (Acts 2:36)

Psalm:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23) Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

For you had gone astray like sheep, but you have now returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls. (1 Pt 2:25)

Gospel:

"I am the gate.

Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture." (Jn 10:9)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I recently rescued a dog. She's a terrier and rather adorable. And she's crazy about me. She could spend all day with me. But I'm a pastor at a parish and sometimes I leave her at the front desk of the church office. She constantly amazes me by her ability to distinguish between my voice and that of everyone else. If I say one word, even if I'm hidden around a corner, she'll sprint toward me and jump up into my arms.

This week the readings focus our attention to the voice of the risen Jesus Christ. Comparing his disciples to sheep and himself to a shepherd, he says, "They recognize his voice." He speaks to us and wants us to respond. When we hear his voice, we follow. Throughout this coming week, we will experience many interior promptings to receive God's love, and to love Him in return. That's his voice. Follow it into the safe and tender arms of Christ.

By contrast, some voices we will hear do not convey God's concern and love for us, but rather produce fear, despair, and other harmful mischief. Jesus calls these voices those of robbers. Does an idea or thought make it harder for you to love God? If so, run away. Let it go. It is most likely not the voice of the Risen Lord. Keep waiting for him to speak. You will recognize his voice. Then run to him as fast as you can.

— Father John Muir

THE BULLETIN BOARD

Check out Deacon Tim's New Book This Spring!

Deacon Tim has written a new book, More Tales for the Masses, picking up where he left off with the original Tales for the Masses. If you enjoy his homilies, you'll definitely enjoy this book too, which contains stories, poems, reflections and even a piece of "music!" At the end of each chapter are reflection questions that you can use in your small Christian Community or similar faith-sharing groups, or just for personal reflection.

If you hate his homilies and wish he'd just go away, you should still buy a copy and read the chapter entitled "How to Listen to a Bad Homily."

The book's available at Amazon, Barnes and Noble and directly from Deacon Tim. Here's a QR code you can use to go right to the book's page at Amazon:
