Thank you to all who contributed to the success of St. Ann's Perennial Plant Sale, which was held on May 20th. Once again, we had a lovely, healthy selection of plants from which customers could choose. The selection included flowers, groundcovers, shrubs, herbs, and even some house plants. Our 14th and most profitable sale to date, over $2,600 was raised to benefit the Social Outreach Scholarship Program. Whether you donated plants, purchased plants, or volunteered your time, your support is greatly appreciated.

Thank you!

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

Today is the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity. We celebrate the Three Divine Persons in One God: God the Father, our Creator; God the Son, Jesus, our Redeemer and God the Holy Spirit, our Sanctifier. The LOVE which exists between the Father and the Son is the Holy Spirit. Because it is the nature of love to seek union, and this Triune Love is a perfect, divine love, the three Divine Persons are One. Recall that St. Patrick used a shamrock as a symbol of this teaching.

Reflection: When you receive Holy Communion today, reflect upon the truth that the Blessed Trinity, the Living, Triune God is dwelling within you. Recall the words of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen, "The highest unity in the Divine Order is the unity of the soul and Christ in Communion." It's all about LOVE.

2023 Archbishop's Annual Appeal

No Appeal funds are ever used for legal fees or settlements.

(Practicing) Catholic, Recognize Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments, by Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

We Bear the Name of the Lord

The name of the Lord is a curiously powerful thing. Say it deliberately, even in a group of people who are not particularly religious, and you'll know what I mean. There is a shift in the mood, a change in the atmosphere. When we utter the name of the Lord, He turns His head.

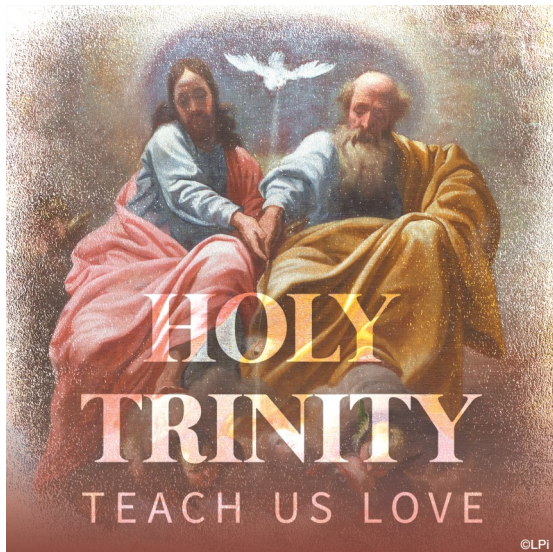

Once, in confession, I admitted to the sin of using the Lord's name in vain. "When you do that, tell God that you love him," advised the priest, who was wise enough to know that I would repeat this sin at some point. "You've said His name, after all. You have His attention."

We hear the name of the Lord, and we think of what it represents — John 3:16, salvation history summed up in a neat little sentence, the why and the how and the who of it all laid out before us. The Lord, so slow to anger that He offers us a million chances. The Lord, so rich in kindness and fidelity that He literally gave Himself to us that we might be saved.

But the name of the Lord is more than that. It is not just a symbol, it is an invitation. I think of Moses clutching the commandments, beseeching the Lord: "Come with us. Forgive us. Receive us as your own." The Lord accompanies us down the mountain. We bear the name of the Lord into the world with us wherever we go.

I have to ask myself: do I do that name justice?

"Blessed is your holy and glorious name, praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages." — Daniel 3:52

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK Live the Liturgy

On this Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we are reminded to encourage one another, to show affection and support. Can we do it? Can we do it in our daily interactions, in our families? Can we even do it on social media?

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In my experience, one of the peculiarities of being a man is the somewhat unlikely ability to look into the mirror, no matter how out of shape he may be, and declare with full confidence: "Looking good, buddy!" Ask a man. He'll probably confirm it.

Therein lies a mystery. You might think I refer to man's ability to deceive himself or his propensity toward vainglory. But in this case, I refer to the mystery of a healthy and proper sense of self-love. We human beings (both men and women) have the utterly weird ability to look at ourselves as if we were another. Then we tend to love this "other." Then, somehow, that love becomes a bond between the two. We are three and yet one.

This Sunday is Trinity Sunday. We ponder anew that God in His unity is a play of multiplicity: Lover, Beloved, and shared Love. Or, as we also proclaim, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. If we allow it, this mystery heals our temptation toward self-hatred and destruction. We all know how awful it is to look into the mirror and not know the person we see, or, equally bad, to know and hate who we see. Jesus, the Son of God, draws us into the dynamics of authentic self-knowledge and self-love. Perhaps we could ask the Holy Trinity this Sunday to teach us to truly look at ourselves and to properly love who we see looking back.

— Father John Muir
