PRO-LIFE MINISTRY

There is still time to honor the Mother of God by taking a Baby Bottle or envelope for Two Hearts Pregnancy Care Center from the display in the Gathering Space at Church.

By doing so you are helping Two Hearts assist "Moms in Need". They desperately need your help due to the rising costs of diapers and especially infant formula.

Please return the Baby Bottles to the display this Sunday, June 11th. Envelopes can also be returned by the same date or mailed directly to Two Hearts. Pro-LifeMinistry thanks you for your generous support to this worthy outreach.

As another year of preparing home cooked meals for the men at ImmaCare ends, we thank everyone for all their support. Throughout the 37 years of the St. Ann/ ImmaCare friendship there have been so many changes. Number of guests has fluctuated. When Covid hit, people serving went to dropping off food at the door. What has remained consistent is the dedication of the St. Ann parish whose support never wavered .

To those of you who cook or bake, thank you - your home cooked meals are legendary! Thanks to all who drop off all the supplies needed to make a meal complete. The donations for those who are sought out by the ImmaCare outreach van, people living under bridges or on the streets, has been so appreciated .

Looking forward to starting up again in September.

Have a blessed summer !

thank you

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

"THE HOLY EUCHARIST IS A LIVING PERSON."

Bishop Robert Barron

Reflection: In "The Diary of Saint Faustina", the saint records these words of Our Lord, referring to the Blessed Sacrament Jesus tells her, "People treat me like a dead object." We need to ask, when we receive Holy Communion, are we aware that we are in the presence of the truly, living, loving Person of Jesus? Do we interiorly respond accordingly to Our Lord's presence within us? Living Faith touches the Heart of Jesus. How alive is your Faith in the Holy Eucharist on this great Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ?

God Has a Personal Message For You!

Join us for the popular Lectio Divina way of praying scripture, where you listen for what God is saying to you in the Gospel for the coming Sunday. It's also a great way to connect with others, and engage more fully in Mass.

*Friendly groups meet via Zoom & in person.
Newcomers welcome!*

If you are purchasing a brick in honor of a deceased veteran, it is not required that they are buried at St. Ann's Cemetery. Order forms can be obtained in the Parish Office. You can also download a form from our website; look for the Veteran's Memorial under the "Resources" tab.

(Practicing) Catholic, Recognize Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments, by Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Priesthood and the Eucharist

"These two Sacraments were born together," wrote St. John Paul II of the priesthood and the Eucharist, "and their destiny is indissolubly linked until the end of the world."

The Eucharist is such a beautiful example of how God, conscious of our limitations, bends to meet us. He once came to us cloaked in the flesh, that we might recognize Him. Now He comes as the very means by which we nourish ourselves: food and drink, the most familiar and comforting thing in the world to us. How easy He makes it to fulfill his command that we become one with Him. How generous He is to make such a sacred thing also accessible.

We can say the same of the priesthood, and of the men He calls to its number. How generous of Him to make such an accessible thing — our sons, our brothers, our uncles, our cousins — sacred. How generous of Him to allow these human creations — who share in our own faults — to be the means through which He comes to us in the Eucharist.

Without the Eucharist, we would have no eternal life. Without priests, we would have no Eucharist. On this, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, let's give thanks for our priests, and redouble our prayers that God will send us good and holy ones — manna from Heaven in our wandering exile.

"Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day." — John 6:54

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK Live the Liturgy

The Eucharist is the most sacred thing in the world, and yet in his mercy, God has made it accessible. In the Eucharist, God bends to meet us. Appearing under the appearance of our daily nourishment, he makes it not just possible but simple — blessedly simple — to fulfill his commandment.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Years ago, a woman at daily Mass approached me in the communion procession. She had her arms crossed, indicating she wanted a blessing instead of the Sacred Host. She had tears in her eyes. I gave her a little blessing. She returned the next day. And the next. The same thing repeated. After a few weeks, I asked her why she didn't receive Holy Communion. She said she wasn't Catholic yet and was preparing to become so. I asked her why she wanted to be Catholic. She said, "Because I long to be in a real communion with Christ and with everyone I love." That, I submit, is a darn good reason. A few months later, she became Catholic and received the Body and Blood of Christ with unspeakably great joy and still does to this day.

Saint Paul says of the Eucharistic bread, "Is it not a participation in the body of Christ?" For Paul, the answer is obvious. Yes, it is exactly that. Which is why he can say, "we, though many, are one body." Jesus is truly, really, and substantially present in the Holy Eucharist. This is no magic trick, but a mystery of our salvation. He feeds us with the Sacrament of his body so that our communion with him — and with the other members of his body — is built up and becomes mature. That's why the Eucharist quenches our deep thirst for love and communion. The Body and Blood of Christ is the best reason to be Catholic. It's our participation of love in the one we love.
