Come Join Us for Coffee...

...after ALL Masses on Sunday, October 29th in Father Bennett Hall. Our guest speaker will be Mike Mongillo (a Holy Family Retreat Team member), who will give a brief presentation about the Men's and Women's Retreats, and other programs offered at Holy Family Passionist Retreat Center in West Hartford.

This is a great opportunity to ask questions and explore the many ways Holy Family Retreat Center ministers to our parishes and the wider community.

No obligation to commit to anything, just talk.

Hope to see you there!

St. Ann's YOUTH MINISTRY

Calling All Confirmed St. Ann Teens!

Please join us for our kickoff Youth Ministry Meeting and see what it's all about. All Junior & Senior High School students are welcome. We will meet on Monday October 23rd in Room 1 beneath Father Bennett Hall. Pizza will be served. Please rsvp to rosemary.neamtz@stannavon.com by Saturday October 21st.

A Miracle Happens at Every Mass

How do we make it our own?

- "I don't know how some people have the strength to meet their challenges. I wouldn't have it in me."
- "I connect with God through nature, Bible study, personal prayer... I don't really need Mass."
- "I find it hard to believe the bread and wine actually transform into Jesus."
- "It's boring to repeat the same prayers and rituals each Sunday; we need to change things up."

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

Rendering to God what belongs to God is the subject of this weekend's Gospel (Matthew 22: 15-21) What do we owe God? The Church teaches that we owe God "latria", which is worship. The most profound act of worship is the Holy Mass. The Mass is the Sacrifice of Jesus on Calvary in an unbloody manner. We stand at the foot of the Cross with Mary and St. John at each Mass we attend. How can we ever repay Our Lord for the Pascal Mystery of His Passion, Death and Resurrection which has purchased for us our personal salvation?

Reflection: The past week on October 19th the Church celebrated the Feast of the North American Martyrs: St. Isaac Jogues, St. Jean de Brebeuf and their companions. These brave Jesuits offered their very own martyrdom for the conversion of souls. They rendered to God the ultimate gift of their lives in love of God and neighbor. What a courageous example of giving back totally to God all that He had given to them. This heroic virtue is not possible without the graces of the Holy Eucharist.

If you've been thinking about exploring becoming Catholic, or if you were baptized Catholic but are missing sacraments, now is the time to inquire!

Our program for adults (RCIA) is about to begin. Contact ann.distefano@stannavon.com

The Council Connection

The Parish Council is an advisory board to Fr. Fontana representing the entire parish community. The Council includes registered members of the parish who are actively involved in their faith development through worship, prayer, and the liturgy. The current members are: Jane Ellen Peregrin (chairperson), Bill Bachhuber (co-chairperson), Carole Anderson, Nelson Bondhus, Carla DuBois, JoEllen Oakes, Eileen Sibson, and Dianne Simpson.

We encourage everyone to serve with one of the many ministries that help to meet the needs of parishioners and the greater community. For a complete list of ministries and contact information please check the parish website (www.stannavon.com).

If you have any questions or suggestions for Parish Council, we invite you to email us at parishcouncil@stannavon.com or use the Parish Council Comments/Suggestion Box located in the Gathering Space.

Children's Christmas Pageant

"Please let us know if you are interested in your child(ren) participating in our upcoming Christmas Pageant! The pageant will be held on Saturday, December 16th at 6pm and we would like to get a sense of how many children are interested in participating as soon as possible! Please fill out this form as soon as possible. Thank you!"

Do You Know Anyone Who Could Use the Comfort of a Prayer Shawl?

St. Ann's Prayer Shawl Ministry has shawls available! If you know of someone who is going through an illness or time of need and feel a prayer shawl will lift their spirits or provide comfort, please contact Tina Dibble, 860-331-1673, (tmdibble@comcast.net), to pick one up. In addition, we might also have a few lap robes, which are ideally suited for someone who is wheelchair bound.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp, subduing nations before him. (Is 45:1)

Psalm:

Give the Lord glory and honor. (Ps 96)

Second Reading:

We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love. (1 Thes 1:2-3)

Gospel:

"Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." (Mt 22:21)

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

With little more than a year until the United States' national elections, I find myself feeling, like many Catholics, both dread and energized. Dread, because our democratic republic can be a messy endeavor and campaigns a long, nasty, and unedifying slog; energized, because hope for positive societal change can be enticing and engaging. As a pastor, I see similar conflicting attitudes in those whom I serve. How can Catholics best engage our political arena in a way which is truly helpful and worthwhile?

This week's gospel reading offers wisdom in this regard. Jesus says, "Render therefore to Caesar the things are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." This riddle forces us to answer for ourselves a hidden question: what is the relationship between political and divine authority? Two common but false answers lead to mischief. If we answer that the two are equivalent, politics becomes our absolute authority. This happens whenever religion is slave to the state, as in the travesty of the pro-Nazi German Christian movement in the 1930s and 40s. It also usually occurs when there is an official state religion. If we answer that the two are totally unrelated, we end up with an unchecked aggressive secularist state as we often experience now. Thus, religion becomes a weak and private pastime.

What's a better alternative? At our best, Christians hold that political authority does indeed have its own legitimate autonomy but is nested within God's all-encompassing authority. Think, for example, of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s respect for politics while also being able to criticize unjust human laws because he recognized a higher heavenly law. In other words, Caesar owns politics — and God owns Caesar. So, we should allow Jesus' words to lead us to have a deep respect and willingness to peacefully engage in politics without making that engagement our religion. We bring our faith to bear on our politics knowing confidently that Caesar isn't God — but he is indeed God's. — Father John Muir

Questions of the Week

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

God revealed to the Persian King, Cyrus, that he would be an instrument of the Lord, proving that no other gods exist. What convinces you there is only one Lord of the universe?

Second Reading:

In his opening words to the believers in Thessalonica, Paul offers a prayer of thanksgiving to God for their faith and hope in Jesus. For what or for who are you thankful to God?

Gospel:

The religious leaders in Jerusalem tried to "entrap" Jesus with the question, "Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" How often do you feel you have to defend your faith?

CATHOLIC

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Tax of Caesar

Too often, I confuse this world with the next.

Every day has its set of problems that need dealing with. Some are very easily discernible as problems of this world: I am tired, and I need a nap and a latte. Some are very obviously problems of eternity: I need to ask for forgiveness, but I'm not ready to admit it.

Most problems are a subtle, maddening mix of the two: my body feels tired, obscuring how tired my soul also feels, while making me very cranky, which is keeping me from asking for the forgiveness I need.

It's not that the nap and the latte aren't solutions. Heaven forbid! I would never propose such a thing. Sleep and coffee, I am confident, can fix almost any problem in this world. This world.

Too often, I slap a one-size-fits-all earthly band-aid on all my problems and rush on to the next thing. But if the problem is an issue of my soul, I may as well pay for a parking ticket in Monopoly money.

I render unto Caesar, and I forget about what is owed to God. I apply solutions meant for the here and now to problems that have eternal consequences. The spiritual problems are dismissed, shoved to the back of my mind. For when I have time, I tell myself. For when I am ready.

But the only time we have is now. God is no king of this earth, and he does not ask for a tax offering. He asks for our heart. He doesn't want us for minions but for children.

"I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not."

Human Needs Committee Art Show: The Many Faces of Mary

As a first-century Jewish woman, her features and clothing were indicative of that era.

Yet, in her numerous appearances to us, the ways in which she communicates with us, and how she presents herself to us, differs from country to country and region to region reflecting, her role as a mother of all God's people and uniting her to the universal mission of Christ. In a sense, she transcends time and culture, immersing herself in our world, while helping us to become immersed in hers. What is it about Mary that is so attractive and surpasses the distinctiveness of each culture?

Join us for an art exhibition on Friday, October 27, 6:30-8:00 pm, in the Parish Hall, that shows beautiful artwork of our blessed Mother Mary as she is seen in different countries around the world. Cider, wine, and cheese will be served.

Bring your family & friends

As we pray urgently for peace, we recall especially all the families and individuals suffering from these events.
