Holy Day of Obligation

Masses will be at:

9:00 am, 12:10 pm and 7:00 pm

Let's meet Deborah Benson

our new K-8 Faith Formation Director

Growing up in Avon until she was 8 years old, Deborah attended Roaring Brook school and even made her First Communion here at the Church of Saint Ann; now she will get to lead our second grade classes as they prepare and make their own First Communions! Her family then moved to Manchester when her parents bought a bakery business. While there she attended St. James School, East Catholic High School and then graduated from Salve Regina University...I believe that's a Catholic school trifecta!

In 2002 she married Michael Benson, and in 2013 they moved back to Avon and once again she was worshipping at Saint Ann and has served as a catechist for 10 years.

Deborah and Michael have three children: Katelyn (18) attending Bentley University, Kimberly (15) attending Avon High School and making her Confirmation this Spring, and Michael Jr., attending Thompson Brook School.

Please join us in welcoming Deborah and may God bless her and our Faith Formation program!

Welcome, Mrs. Benson!

-K.M.

All Souls Day

Thursday, November 2nd

The Feast of All Souls is a wonderful Catholic tradition whereby prayers are offered for the departed souls who have made such a wonderful impact in our lives. If you use our envelope system, an envelope for All Souls is included in the packet you received in the mail. You are able to write down the names of those you would like to remember. Additional All Souls envelopes are available in the pews by early November. They can be dropped in any collection basket and will be placed on the altar throughout the month of November.

All Souls Day Candles...

There will be a limited number of All Souls Day candles after Masses this weekend (Oct. 28/29).

These have been donated by a generous parishioner so please take only one for your own family. Thank you!

Annual Parish Collection Church of Saint Ann

Every parish household is asked to prayerfully consider a sacrificial gift to assist the parish in funding our 2023 Annual Collection. Please complete your personal gift card and return it to the parish office via mail or go online at stannavon.org to make an electronic gift in support of St. Ann's parish. Thank you!

as of 10/23/23:

Come Join Us for Coffee...

...after ALL Masses this Sunday, October 29th in Father Bennett Hall. Our guest speaker will be Mike Mongillo (a Holy Family Retreat Team member), who will give a brief presentation about the Men's and Women's Retreats, and other programs offered at Holy Family Passionist Retreat Center in West Hartford.

This is a great opportunity to ask questions and explore the many ways Holy Family Retreat Center ministers to our parishes and the wider community.

No obligation to commit to anything, just talk.

THANK YOU!

BOOK OF GOSPELS

A big "Thank You" to Deacon Jeffrey Sutherland for donating the Book of Gospels for the Parish of Saint Ann. The Book of Gospels is a symbol of Christ, along with the altar and cross. It is carried in by the deacon and given a special veneration and liturgical honors.

Father Al Fontana, Pastor

Knights of Columbus – Stand For Life

You may have noticed our members standing at the entrance to St. Ann's parking lot on Saturday mornings with signs emblazoned "Love Life Choose Life". We stand in silence for one hour from 10:00 – 11:00 am on the first Saturday of each month. We invite all who would like to join us – we have plenty of signs. The next Stand For Life is scheduled for Saturday, November 4, 2023 at 10:00 am. We look forward to seeing anyone who can join us.

The Holy Eucharist
DID YOU KNOW?

The two greatest Commandments are the focus of today's Gospel. (Matthew 22:34-40) Love of God is the First Commandment and Love of neighbor is the Second. Bishop Robert Barron teaches that "The goal of life is to become a participant in the Divine Nature." Through the grace of the Holy Eucharist, Jesus transforms us into Himself. In so doing we have a share in the Divine nature of God and becoming more like God, we are enabled to love our neighbor more and more.

Reflection: This is one of the amazing transcendent gifts of the Blessed Sacrament. We should never forget this grace of Holy Communion. St. Peter Julian Eymard wrote, "Receive Communion often and Jesus will change you into Himself."

The Council Connection

The Parish Council is an advisory board to Fr. Fontana representing the entire parish community. The Council includes registered members of the parish who are actively involved in their faith development through worship, prayer, and the liturgy. The current members are: Jane Ellen Peregrin (chairperson), Bill Bachhuber (co-chairperson), Carole Anderson, Nelson Bondhus, Carla DuBois, JoEllen Oakes, Eileen Sibson, and Dianne Simpson.

We encourage everyone to serve with one of the many ministries that help to meet the needs of parishioners and the greater community. For a complete list of ministries and contact information please check the parish website (www.stannavon.org).

If you have any questions or suggestions for Parish Council, we invite you to email us at parishcouncil@stannavon.com or use the Parish Council Comments/Suggestion Box located in the Gathering Space.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry.

My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans." (Ex 22:21-23)

Psalm:

I love you, Lord, my strength. (Ps 18)

Second Reading:

For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven. (1 Thes 1:9-10)

Gospel:

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." (Mt 22:37)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

Questions of the Week

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

We hear today some of the laws that Moses received from God on Mount Sinai. Namely, God's expectation that we show compassion for those most vulnerable in society. How could you show care for those in need this week?

Second Reading:

Paul praised the Thessalonians for being role models of the faith for the surrounding regions of Achaia and Macedonia. How do you model your faith to family and friends?

Gospel:

For Jesus, love of God and love of neighbor and self are the most important commandments. Which of these commandments do you do best?

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In our secularized culture, we all struggle with belief in God, at least to some degree. An atheist man named Robert Bridges once wrote to his friend, the Jesuit poet Gerard Manley Hopkins, asking how he could possibly learn to believe in God. Hopkins pithily responded: "Give alms." Would that help someone tempted by atheism today, like you and me?

I think so, and here's why. This week Jesus speaks of love for God and neighbor. These dual commands were nothing new when Jesus used them to sum up the Jewish law. What is new is the way he links them together in mutual dependency. In Jesus, God and man have become one. Human-love and God-love are now inseparably married forever.

The newness of the God-man means that there is now a permanently counter-intuitive way into the knowledge and love of God: love of our neighbor. To experience charity is to know God. That's what Hopkins was getting at for his friend. How we treat our fellow human beings is inseparable from faith in God. Do you want to have a stronger sense of God's loving presence and goodness? Commit to serving someone today and this week. Love him or her. Don't wait for love for God to appear in your heart before loving others. Jesus has united divine and human love. If you want to believe more in God, give alms.

— Father John Muir

(PRACTICING)

CATHOLIC

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

27 Words That Matter

One of the quickest things you learn as a parent is how dangerous it is to explain too much, especially when your kid is teetering on the brink of a rebellion. The fewer words you use, the more power they have. A kid who is about to be carried away by their feelings needs to be brought back to earth with a tether made of short, succinct directions.

There are a lot of similarities between the Pharisees of Scripture and a toddler on the edge of a meltdown. Stay with me — this will make sense, I promise. Think about it: both toddlers and Pharisees have lots of feelings and lots of opinions. Both toddlers and Pharisees think you're out to get them. Both toddlers and Pharisees keep trying to trick you to get what they think they want.

A thorough Google search informs me that there are about 80,000 words in the Torah. Eighty-thousand words, and Jesus can boil it all down to 27: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind" and "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

It doesn't make the excess words untrue; it doesn't even make them unnecessary. Sometimes I need the long explanation, the full and complete picture.

Because sometimes, as much as I hate to admit it, I act like both a toddler and a Pharisee. I am carried away by my feelings. I don't trust God. I am about to bolt.

When that happens, I need to be told in short and simple terms what my salvation means. I need a tether made of short, succinct directions.

*"The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."
— Matthew 22:40*
