Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament Tuesday Evenings from 6-7:30pm,

The National Eucharistic Revival is a movement to restore our understanding and devotion to the great mystery of the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist by helping us renew our worship of Jesus Christ's Eucharistic face exposed in a monstrance on the altar.

At The Church of Saint Ann, we are participating in this Program and offering more opportunity to visit with Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. Beginning on the Feast of the Presentation of The Most Blessed Mother on Tuesday November 21, 2023, and every Tuesday thereafter, we will have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from 6PM to 7:30PM. We ask all parishioners and families to make this powerful devotion. Come and see. Speak to Jesus in your own words and in your own way.

THANKSGIVING PRAYER

*This Thanksgiving, let us remember all the good things, and people, who have come into our lives. We focus on thanking each one who has helped us, and ultimately thank God for the good gifts of this world.
Let us pray...*

God our Father,

Graciously accept from your humble people
a thankful heart and spirit.

Everything we have and are able to share with others
ultimately comes from your love of your creations.

Often we think that everything we have is our own creation;
we ask you this day to create in us a spirit of gratitude,
that we may always know
that all good gifts come from you.

We ask this through Christ
our brother,
in the power of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

Today's Gospel is the parable of the talents. (Matthew 25:14-30) God gives each of us unique gifts. Service is our work. The talents we've been given are ours so that by using them, we can be a gift to others. At the end of Mass, after our reception of the Holy Eucharist, the words of dismissal are to go out.

Reflection: Reception of the Eucharist nourishes us both spiritually and physically to go and bring Christ's love and charity to others. The last words of our Gospel today are "Come, share your Master's joy." True joy consists in giving our gifts away to our neighbor. Blessed Eurasia wrote, "It is not riches, but doing the will of God that makes our heart happy."

Warm Clothing Drive for the House of Bread

In conjunction with the House of Bread soup kitchen in Hartford, St. Ann is participating in a clothing drive to provide warm clothing to those without this winter. This drive will benefit the homeless who visit the kitchen for a warm meal. We are collecting gently used or new warm clothing, like sweatshirts and sweatpants, jackets coats and sweaters, warm hats, gloves and socks. There is a particular need for men's large sizes, but all is useful. You will find a blue bin labeled "House of Bread" in the gathering space where you can deposit your donation. The clothing will be picked up twice a week and distributed to those in need.

Thank you very much for your generosity.

For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. (1 Thes 5:4-5)

I will give you great responsibilities.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I was a kid, I hated playing Monopoly because my siblings and friends always seemed to win. But worse was how it happened. Scared to risk my fake money on buying properties, I'd hold on to it. My opponents hungrily bought up the various real estate squares on the board. Then, inevitably, my poor, low-equity self would land on their spots, pay them rent, and my money would drain to zero. It seemed so unfair. The rich get richer, and the poor get poorer. I had to learn that monopoly money is meant to be spent. I was scared to lose some of it. So, I lost all of it.

How do we see what we possess? Jesus' parable about the talents is not really about economics but about the instability of everything he entrusts to us. How marvelous that everyone in the fable who places talents in the open market doubles their investment. The only one who doesn't is the man who fearfully buries his one talent. Jesus' success strategy for us seems to be, whatever we have, get it out of our possession. Risk it as quickly and as fully as we can.

You and I have precious gifts. We have valuable things to invest — time, talents, treasure. The Lord invites us to be brave and even somewhat reckless, to give as much away as possible. If we give it away in the direction of love and truth, it will grow. If we hold on to it in fear, the little we have will be taken away. Let me challenge you this week: find something in your life you're holding on to, and risk it by giving it away. It won't double if you hold on to it.

— Father John Muir

Questions of the Week

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Proverbs describes the ideal wife who runs her household with wisdom and grace. How would you describe your household growing up?

Second Reading:

Paul reminds the Thessalonians to stay alert and sober for the day when the Lord Jesus will return. Why do you think the date of this event is hidden from us?

Gospel:

Jesus teaches about the importance of using our God-given gifts faithfully and prudently in the parable of the talents. What gifts have you used well in your life?

What Remains

When my grandfather died, my parents, siblings, and I were left with the question: what's to become of the house?

Anyone who has inherited property knows that it's not simply a matter of assuming ownership of a plot of land upon which sits four walls and a roof. Those four walls and a roof usually contain memories and objects — an enormous volume of both, in the case of my grandfather. When they're left to you, you have to sift through them, the memories and the objects, and with each one you have to think: Is it worth it? Do I keep it? Will I need it?

And slowly, painfully, you disassemble the physical existence of the person who lived here. You accept, with a pang, that most of it must be given away or discarded. You cry when you bag up the clothes to take to Goodwill. You can't even bear to look when they break the piano into a hundred pieces and throw it in a dumpster, realizing that no one wants or has a use for something that was once so precious.

But when you come upon a rosary that was used so many times it has begun to fall apart, you don't even think twice before keeping it, and not because you need the rosary. You need what it means. You need what it reminds you of.

When all is said and done, each of us will be called before our master to settle accounts, just as my grandfather was.

"Where are the gifts I gave you? What remains of the fortune to which I entrusted you?" he will ask us. "What have you done with the peace? What have you done with the love? What have you done with the mercy?"

"You yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night."
