Saint Luke Productions

About the Production:

Tolton: From Slave to Priest is a powerful new live production based on the life of Fr. Augustus Tolton, the first African American priest. This compelling true story of courage, forgiveness, and reconciliation resonates deeply with modern American audiences. Bishop Joseph Perry of Chicago, postulator for Fr. Tolton's canonization cause, is calling Tolton a production that will "inspire a new era of peace, hope and forgiveness in America."

Tolton is a riveting multimedia drama not to be missed. The production runs 75 minutes, and is suitable for middle school age and up.

About Father Tolton:

To characterize Fr. Augustus Tolton's life as remarkable is an understatement. He was born a slave on a Missouri farm in 1854, and his mother risked everything to reach freedom in Illinois with her three small children. After settling in the town of Quincy, Illinois, the family continued to experience hardships and prejudice. In spite of this, he persevered in his deep desire to become a Catholic priest. When every seminary in the United States rejected him, Augustus did not give up, and he was finally ordained in Rome. Upon his return to Illinois, Fr. Tolton worked tirelessly to serve people of all races, especially the former slaves who flocked to Chicago.

Fr. Tolton saw the Catholic Church as the antidote to the discrimination and rejection that he experienced in his own life. "It was the priests of the Church who taught me to pray and to forgive my persecutors," he said. "We should welcome all people into the Church, not send them away."

At the young age of 43, Fr. Tolton died after collapsing from heat exhaustion in Chicago. Now his cause for sainthood is moving forward, as more and more people are beginning to recognize the humble perseverance, courage, and compassion of this extraordinary man.

About the Actor:

Jim Coleman is excited and honored to be playing the role of Father Tolton. Having appeared in more than 50 national commercials, Jim is best known for his role of Roger Parker in the hit Nickelodeon show My Brother and Me.

"Father Tolton's story needs to be told," says Coleman. "As a black man, this very important part of history is something that I want the world to hear about. I truly feel blessed to be the one to share Father Augustus Tolton with all who will listen!"

Jim and his wife Robin reside in Florida; they are the proud parents of six children.

Prayers for Those Currently Serving in Our Military

Do you have any family members in the military currently on active duty? We would love to include their names in our bulletin (which is also available on our website) so that our parish family can pray for them and their safe return. If you are interested, please contact Kris Martino in the Parish Office with their name/s (include spelling): 860-673-9858, ext. 221 or kris.martino@stannavon.com.

We'd like to share some of our Faith Formation students' offerings of their time, talent and/or treasure.

Name	Gave of their Time-Talent-Treasure
Brianna R.	Helps kids who fall while skiing
James L.	Collected & delivered his neighbor's mail
Rosie	Brought dad his slippers, made Valentines Day cards and donated treasure
Jayce R.	Prayed & helped
Olivia	Sings in the children's choir at church
John R.	Helped lift heavy things
Amiyah S.	Went to Mass and sang
Addy V.	Prayed and danced

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

Bishop Robert Barron states that when we receive the Holy Eucharist, "We are infused with the Divine Life of Christ." Our worthy reception of Holy Communion has a tremendous effect upon our souls. In the sacrament of Baptism, we become children of God. In the sacrament of the Eucharist, we are filled with the life of God, which is sanctifying grace. By this means we are deified and are made holy children of God.

Reflection: The depth of the grace that we receive in this sacrament is dependent upon us. How focused are we in our prayer after the reception of Holy Communion? The amount of grace that we receive depends upon our openness to Jesus, who is truly present within us.
