The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

Notice in today's Gospel (Matthew 28:16-20) when the disciples accompanied Jesus to the mountain, they worshiped Him, but they also doubted. Jesus then states that "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me."

Reflection: In spite of the fact that Our Lord affirms that all power has been given to Him, do you still doubt that the Holy Eucharist is the Living Christ: Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity?

We pray for the safe return of those currently serving in our Military

Prayer for the Fallen

God our creator and sustainer, today our country brings to our memory
those who have defended this nation in times of trouble.

They have sacrificed their lives to protect our shores
from those who would limit our freedoms or enslave us to ways that are against your will.

Bring all those who have died in service to our country into your heavenly presence.

We humbly call down your blessing on those still serving;
grant your heavenly protection to these men and women,
and open your Sacred Heart to give them peace and comfort.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

When you hear "marriage enrichment," what typically comes to mind?

Maybe you think marriage advice is only for newlyweds.

Or maybe only useful for couples who have been married for several decades and have lost their original "spark."

Some people think marriage enrichment is for couples who "have it all together," or appear to have "a perfect marriage."

The truth is simple: marriage enrichment is for couples at all stages of marriage.

Whether you've been married for six months or sixty years, you and your spouse can benefit from some marriage TLC.

Come and invest in your marriage!

Please help Girl Scout Troop 66703 spread cheer to children at CCMC!

Troop 66703 is collecting donations to make slime kits that include a message of positivity for the children at CCMC.

They are looking for donations of:

- 6 oz. Elmer's Washable Color Glue
- Elmer's Magical Liquid Slime Activator (any size)
- Gallon Sized Zip Lock Bags
- 16 oz. Clear Plastic Screw Top Jars

A collection bin will be in the Gathering Space of the Church for donations from May 18th - June 2nd.

Thank you in advance for helping this Troop to spread kindness and for your support! Any questions reach out to Paula Marino at pkuhn3@gmail.com.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"This is why you must now know,
and fix in your heart, that the LORD is God
in the heavens above and on earth below,
and that there is no other." (Dt 4:39)

Psalms:

Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.
(Ps 33)

Second Reading:

For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear,
but you received a Spirit of adoption,
through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!" (Rom 8:15)

Gospel:

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations,
baptizing them in the name of the Father,
and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." (Mt 28:19)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

We are children of God, and as His children
God shares with us a magnificent inheritance:
suffering that becomes glory, fear that becomes strength, death that becomes life.
With this mighty gift in our hearts, let us go confidently into the world.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Once I was at a meeting with representatives of various religions. On a coffee break, a man from another religion mused to me: "You know, with all our differences, all religions are really about being good people." I lowered my cappuccino and said as warmly as I could, "That's not what mine's about." His quizzical look begged for clarification. "Mine is about plunging into the life of God," I said.

Just before Jesus ascends into heaven, he commands the eleven apostles, "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." (Matthew 28:19-20). The word "baptize" means "to immerse in, to plunge into." It presupposes the use of water. But what does it mean to be immersed in God's name? In the Bible, God's name is identical to God Himself. So, to be baptized into water, using Jesus' formula, is to be plunged into the life of God. Said another way, it is to die with Jesus and rise with him as a member of his body.

The Trinity isn't a doctrine simply to accept and ponder. It's more like an ocean: a mystery into which we are baptized ... inserted, immersed, dunked, plunged. Baptism gives us power to live our lives as beloved children of God, patterned after Jesus himself, who is always with us, until the end of the ages. Hardly the same as being good people. Stranger, but much better.

— Father John Muir

Questions of the Week

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Moses taught the Israelites the best response we can give to God's fidelity and love is to keep His statutes and commandments. How do you respond to God's generosity in your life?

Second Reading:

Paul taught the Romans that as believers we are led by the Spirit of God. Where do you sense God's Spirit leading your family?

Gospel:

Jesus's final command to his followers is to make disciples of all nations and baptize them in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. How can we encourage others to follow Jesus?

Precious Things

I once wrote an article about a school that embraced the Reggio Emilia approach to education. This meant, in practice, a lot of fascinating things, and it was a fun piece to work on. But all these years later, I could not accurately describe the Reggio Emilia style of learning to anyone except to say this: they give the kids glass bowls and china plates.

That's what stuck with me, and that's what sticks out in my memory amidst the hundreds of intervening articles and interviews on other equally fascinating topics. I remember those glass bowls and cups lining the shelves, the fine china dishes, the beautiful shiny cutlery the children used for lunch.

This was a pre-school, and these students were three-year-olds. "If they drop a cup and it shatters, then they learn that glass can break. We clean it up," the teacher said with a shrug. The idea was that a child will never learn to handle a fragile, precious thing — and grow into an adult who can respect and cherish a fragile, precious thing — if they are not sincerely trusted with a precious thing whose fragility they bear personal witness to.

The breaking, you see, was part of the education.

The disciples worshiped, but they doubted. And yet, Christ gave them the Great Commission anyway, something fragile and important, something that could be easily dropped and easily broken. Christ knew who they were, what they were. They were mere human beings, deeply imperfect, scared and hesitant, a little slow on the uptake. He knows that's exactly what we are, too. But he gives us the Great Commission just as he gave it to them. Because that is what the Faith is: it is something perfectly beautiful, passed from one flawed person to another, throughout the ages — constantly dropped, constantly broken, and constantly, miraculously, pieced back together again.

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations." — Matthew 28:19-20
