The Council Connection

At a meeting in April the Parish Council discussed the ministries that we have in St. Ann's providing service to address the needs of people in our parish as well as those near and far. It was noted that there are several new ministries, and it would be helpful if we could get an up-to-date account of the role of each ministry to ensure they have the support needed to accomplish their goals. A brief survey was developed and sent to the ministry leaders. At a subsequent Council meeting the results of the survey were discussed. It became apparent that there are three ministries who need additional members at this time: Bereavement Committee, Youth Faith Formation K-8, and Eucharistic Ministers. If you are interested in obtaining more information about these ministries in particular or any other ministry, please contact Chip Janiszewski, Ministries Coordinator, at chip.janiszewski@stannavon.com. We are grateful to all volunteers who are actively involved in the ministries. Their dedication, time commitment and selfless efforts are an indication of putting faith into action. There are plans to post a complete list of ministries in several places like the eNews and the Parish Bulletin.

It has been almost a year since we initiated a Comments/Suggestions box in the Gathering space. All the thoughts, concerns, and ideas submitted have been discussed at Council meetings with Father Fontana (my favorite was the child who requested more cookies...) and have been addressed. We would like to share the decisions that are made with those who take the time to submit a note card; but, we need your contact information to do that. In the future, please consider giving an email address or telephone number if you would like to know the outcome; however, this is not mandatory.

Best wishes for a fun-filled, safe and relaxing summer!

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

We have two wonderful miracles to contemplate at Mass today: the raising of Jairus' daughter and the healing of the woman with the hemorrhage. (Mark 5:21-43)

Reflection: Do you doubt Christ's power to heal, to forgive, to raise a child from the dead, to change bread and wine into His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity? Do you doubt that Christ would love others more than yourself? The miracle of the Holy Eucharist is the miracle of Christ's love for you.

Worship & Meditation: 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Sin isn't given its due these days. Downplaying sin is dangerous. But there is also another spiritual misstep in which we make way too big a deal out of sin. It happens, for example, when we persistently wonder if our confessed sins are "really" forgiven, or suspiciously ponder what God "really" thinks about us, behind His merciful face. Or when someone returns to Church, and we question whether his or her conversion was genuine. Or when we commit some sin and put on a sad face for days, thinking, "Maybe my sins are too great for God to deal with." God save us from that attitude!

Well, he does just that, this week, in the raising of Jairus' daughter. The dead twelve-year-old's house is filled with a spirit of excessive moaning and groaning, tumultuous weeping and wailing. They even laugh at Jesus in a mocking tone. It's shocking how easy it is for him to raise the dead child. It is equivalent to gently waking a kid from a light nap. And then he sends her off to get some lunch. No big whoop. The overactive drama is actually part of the problem, and removing it is a key part of the miracle.

Friends, sin can and does kill, but Jesus is always ready and able to raise us back to life, often without much hullabaloo. His ease of forgiving should never be a pretext for presumption, minimizing sin, or taking lightly the cost he pays for our sins on the cross. But for God's sake, we often need Jesus to put out the weepers and wailers. He's the Lord. And remember, the girl is not dead, she's just sleeping.

— Father John Muir
