The next day John was there again with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he said, "Behold, the Lamb of God."

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Friends,

"What are you looking for?" These are the first words of Jesus in John's Gospel. This simple question is addressed to two disciples who follow Jesus down the road. He turns and asks them this question, "What are you looking for?" sometimes translated as "What do you want?"

It is no accident that John has included this question at the beginning of his Gospel. I am sure that this question that Jesus asks is intended not only as a question of the first disciples but also as a question for every reader of this Gospel…And what a question.

In fact, isn't this the question. Every philosophy, every religion, every person asks this question of their life–what is it that I want? What am I looking for? What is life really all about? This is a big open-ended question.

I don't know about you, but for me certainly, the problem is that a lot of the time I don't even really know what I want. Perhaps, the disciples aren't even really sure either. They don't answer Jesus directly, but instead they inquire about where he is staying. They want to spend time with Jesus and get to know him, after all, John has been making big claims about this man.

And so, Jesus replies: "Come and see" or as the Message translation of the Bible puts it: "Come and see for yourself."

What an invitation that is. That is the invitation of Jesus to the first disciples, and it is the invitation to every reader of John's Gospel ever since–"Come and see for yourself."

At the start of a new year, perhaps there is no better invitation? At the beginning of every new year, we are more prone to ask the question "what is it that I am looking for?" We are more inclined to examine our lives and ask the question, "Am I happy with where I am at?" "Is this what it is all about?"

I think the invitation from the Gospel reading this morning is to hear this question on the lips of Jesus, "What are YOU looking for?" And then the follow up invitation…"Come and See."

It is very important for us to hear this invitation for what it really is. Jesus doesn't offer a three-point sermon to the disciples. He doesn't give them a sales pitch or try and convince them that he really is just as amazing as John, the Baptist has made him out to be. Jesus simply invites these new disciples to be with Him.

For me, this is truly what being a disciple of Jesus is about. It is about being in the company of Jesus and learning from Him, getting to know Him, growing in relationship with Him. The disciples perhaps, don't know quite what they are looking for. Even if they did, it does not seem that Jesus is going to give it to them all at once. What we discover quickly here in John's Gospel is that the answer to the deepest longings of humanity isn't an intellectual solution or philosophy, it is a person. It is a relationship. The word became flesh.

The disciples are invited to come and stay with Jesus. The invitation is to stay and to remain with Jesus, to abide with Him. What an invitation for us at the beginning of a new year. This invitation is for us all. It is not conditional. It is not as if the disciples had done anything to qualify as special. Jesus openly invites them to be with him, and He invites us, too.

Excitedly answering the invitation, Father Denis

This is a reminder that you no longer need to RSVP for a seat at Mass. All Welcome!

No Mass Monday, January 18, 8:30 a.m. due to MLK Day Holiday.

We are now in Ordinary Time, although our Sunday celebrations are not "ordinary" but very important for our daily living throughout the week. Ordinary Time is the time not associated with Advent, Christmas, Lent or Easter. It begins with the Baptism of the Lord Jesus just as the season of Christmas ends with the same. And Ordinary comes from the Latin "ordinalis" which means ordered or numbered in a series. Our weeks in Ordinary Time are numbered as this Sunday is the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time. During these early weeks we see Jesus emerge from his home life to begin his public life of preaching the "Good News". In the gospel, John sees Jesus and declares him to be the "Lamb of God," which makes our Communion song to be very appropriate, "Behold the Lamb" by Martin Willett, an Oregon Catholic Press composer. Jesus is the light who came into the world to shine God's love and the lamb to be sacrificed so that we may have eternal life.

SET THE WORLD ON FIRE

BLAZE IS COMING TO

OLV starting January 17 @ 6:30 p.m.

blaze is a Walking with Purpose ministry for middle-school girls. It was created to counteract the way our society drives girls to question their identity, worth and beauty. Through BLAZE, we emphasize how a girl's identity is rooted in Christ as God's chosen, beloved daughter. An antidote to bulling, anxiety and body-image issues, BLAZE replaces lies with truth and strengthens girls from the inside out through the use of Scripture-based programs.

SIGN UP YOUR DAUGHTER FOR BLAZE at olvnorthville.org:

- 20 weekly lessons / 40 minutes per meeting
- Each week, participants are led through an ice breaker activity and short lesson based on a lie found in the world and a truth found in Scripture.
- The girls leave with a small take-home gift corresponding with the lesson.

As the girls are introduced to the Bible in relevant and fresh ways, they will hear Jesus telling them how loved and beautiful they are

JESUS, WITH SKIN ON – THANK YOU!

Again, we want to offer a huge Thank You to all of our parishioners who participated in many different ways to help those who needed to feel the love of Jesus during Christmas!

This reminds me of a story I have heard called, "Jesus with skin on." It is about a child who is afraid to sleep alone on a dark, stormy night. She calls out to her mom who tells her that Jesus is right beside her. The child replies, "But mom, right now I need Jesus with skin on!"

This is a perfect picture of all of you at OLV who show others by a simple word, or deed, that you care about them! We have some pictures of a few of those special people delivering your gifts with love!

Also, one of our parishioners has been contacting area stores soliciting donations not only for our Christmas outreach, but for our outreach on an ongoing basis. The stores in our area have been graciously generous in giving! If you shop at these stores, please let them know you are from OLV and how much you appreciate their commitment to helping those in need!

- Meijer Store Manager in Canton is Mrs. Hena Patel: $1,000.00 in Gift Cards (doubled their gift)!
- Costco Store Manager in Livonia is Ms. Narguita Steanhouse: $200.00 Gift Card
- Kroger Store Community Services Manager in Novi is Mrs. Staci Griffes: $500.00 in Gift Cards!

The story continues and never ends. Thank you and God Bless!

OLV MLK Service Day!

Youth Ministries from across the Archdiocese of Detroit will be honoring the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. by witnessing to the power of God's Mercy during the Martin Luther King Service Day on Saturday, January 16! This event, hosted by individual parishes, and taking place at home with families or physically distant on parish grounds, will mobilize hundreds of young people to serve in their communities! Whether your parish has participated every year or will be for the first time this year--the world hungers for an experience of God's Mercy like never before! Are you in?

OLV has committed to continue helping St. Aloysius with Hygiene Kits and items that help keep those in need warm during the cold weather! We will be making Fleece Blankets, as well. Please let us know if you can help. If you have any questions, please contact Colleen at cmisiak@olvnorthville.net.

In today's Gospel (John 1:35-42) Jesus asks, "What are you looking for?" Often, we are looking for happiness in very selfish ways, however we find that when we look for ways to make others happy, it is then that we truly become happy.

We cannot be true disciples of Christ unless we wait to hear God's call and respond by transforming our lives, as evidenced by being obedient to God's will. This is more than keeping the commandments, it means our lives are directed to waiting and listening for God's self-revelation. Sometimes this revelation comes through others—perhaps in their cry for help. Sometimes it comes through prayer where we take time to listen to God. When the revelation or call comes, if we respond, we will be transformed. And Jesus will turn and ask us, "What are you looking for?" (Living Liturgy, p.42)

If you feel the pull to move outside yourself and to begin or expand your journey of outreach, please consider joining OLV's Society of St. Vincent de Paul Conference. To learn more about this calling, leave your name and contact information on the OLV SVdP Hotline (248) 349-2622 or e-mail to: stvincent@olvnorthville.net

We provide this service so that you have the option to manage your contributions to the church from the comfort of your home PC or smartphone. At any time you can change your offerings, update your giving options and keep your account information accurate. This service is safe, secure and convenient for you. The vendor that we are partnered with to provide this service is the same as the one that provides us our offertory envelopes, Our Sunday Visitor (OSV). The options to donate are the same as an envelope—weekly offertory and special gifts for holy days and charities but also allows one time donations and monthly or quarterly withdrawals, too. Plus you also have the option to use your credit card!

HOW DO I GET STARTED?

- From your home PC or Mac: You can access the Our Lady of Victory's online giving page at: https://www.osvonlinegiving.com/4609. This link is also available at www.olvnorthville.org--just look for the Online Giving icon. Create an account. Log in and choose the option to Give a New Gift.
- From your Apple or Android product: Download the Online Giving App at either the App Store, Google Play Store, or go to OLGapp.com. You will need OLV's unique ID number = 4609.

If you need help setting up your gifts for the church or are an existing user but have a question, please call the Parish Office and ask for Julie Stedem. She will be happy to help you out!

Using the online service to donate to the church and other charities replaces the mailing of the offertory envelopes to you every two months. This saves Our Lady of Victory money and helps save the earth's resources. Thank you for your support.

Happy New Year From the 4th Grade!

By Mrs. Laurie Murphy

During the first week back at school of 2021, the 4th grade students reflected on the past few months and made some resolutions for the upcoming year. Some things the students want to do more of or learn in 2021 include getting better at playing the piano, multiplying fractions, visiting the church, making animations on the computer, learning how to make muffins, and getting better at drawing cars. Some things they want to do less of include talking back to mom and dad, having a messy desk, not eating so much junk food, and waiting until the last minute to do homework. Heading into the new year, some things they are thankful for are family, friends, teachers, nurses, doctors, and belonging to the OLV community.

Everyone is looking forward to making more great memories in 2021!
