Third Sunday of Lent

Dear friends,

Like many of us, the woman at the well, “has a history, a story.” Things done and left undone, some good some not so good. Guilty feelings and life-time regrets. She is filled with fears, wounds and sorrows. Lots of secrets, too... She is a woman with a past.

If you study the history of this text, read a variety of commentaries, maybe even listen to a podcast or two, you will learn that her past is generally seen as one of the “material of gossip!” The evidence? Five spouses and now living unmarried with a sixth man. And the woman in the story... oh she’s looked at but not seen, labelled but nameless. She remains unknown to everyone. Everyone, that is, except Jesus.

How easily we forget that women of her day had very little choice or control over their own lives. If she is divorced it is because the men divorced her. She had no right of divorce. That was exclusively the man’s right. Maybe it was a just divorce but often it was not. If she’s not divorced then she has suffered the death of five husbands, meaning of course, left alone and abandoned five times. Can you imagine being... five times nameless, faceless, and of no value, five times starting over. Maybe some divorced her, maybe some died. We don’t know. Either one, divorce or death, is a tragedy for her life.

So, let’s not be too quick to judge. We don’t know the details of her past. Maybe we don’t need to. Maybe it is enough that she mirrors for many of us our own lives. We, too are people with a past, people with a history. We are all the “women at the well.”

So frequently, people like her, people like us, people with a past, often live in fear of being found out. It is not just the fear that another will know the truth, the facts, about us but that they will do so without ever really seeing us and without ever really knowing us. We all thirst to be seen and to be known at a deep intimate level. We all want to pour our lives out to one who knows us, to let them drink from the depths of our very being. That is exactly what Jesus is asking of this woman when he says, “Give me a drink.” It is the invitation to let herself be known. To be known is to be loved and to be loved is to be known.

We all go down to some well. For some, like the Samaritan woman, it is the marriage well. For others it is the well of perfectionism. Some go to the well of hiding and isolation. Others will draw from the well of power and control. Too many will drink from the wells of addiction and abuse. Many live at the well of busyness, denial, trying to find happiness or fulfillment.

Each of us can name the wells from which we drink. Day after day, month after month, year after year we go to the same well to drink. We arrive hoping our thirst will be quenched. We leave as thirsty as when we arrived only to return the next day. For too long we have drunk from the well that never satisfies, the well that can never satisfy. Husband after husband this is the well to which the Samaritan woman has returned.

There is another well, however, it is the well of Jesus. It is the well that washes us clean of our past, the well from which new life and new possibilities spring forth. It is the well that frees us from the patterns and habits that keep us living as thirsty people.

That is the well the Samaritan women in today’s gospel found. She intended to go to the same old well she had gone to for years, the well that her ancestors and their flocks drank from. But today is different. Jesus isn’t interested in her past but future, your future and mine!

“Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty.” This is the living water of new life, new possibilities, and freedom from the past. This living water is Jesus’ own life. It became in the Samaritan woman “a spring of water gushing up to eternal life.” She discovered within herself the interior well and left her water jar behind. She had now become the well in which Jesus’s life flows.

It’s not enough, however, to hear her story or even believe her testimony. Until we come to the well of Jesus’s life within us, we will continue returning to the dry wells of our life. We will continue to live thirsty. We will continue to live in fear of being found out. So, I wonder, from what wells do we drink? How much longer will we carry our water jars? But there is another well, one that promises life, one by which we are known and loved. Today, the Gospel invites you, invites me, to “come to a new well, come to the well of Jesus’s life, Jesus’s love, Jesus’s presence that is already in you.” So, today, come to the well that is JESUS himself and then drink deeply. Drink deeply until you become the one you have drunk.

Drinking at the well, Father Denis

2023 LENTEN ALMSGIVING

As we prepare for this season, perhaps consider that Lent isn't necessarily just about giving things up, but doing a little something extra for someone. Our theme this lent is "Hope in My Heart". What a wonderful way to give others Hope by sharing the Hope you carry in your own heart. Donations will be collected through March 26. All items due Sunday, March 26.

Right to Life/LIFESPAN Baby Shower for Wee Care Collection

Wee Care provides help to women and their babies when other organizations or public agencies cannot meet their needs. Over 600 families are helped each year because of your generosity. During Lent, let's show how much we care by picking up an egg in the Gathering Space—each contains a needed basic baby item to purchase. If you would like to make a monetary donation, please make checks payable to: LIFESPAN Wee Care and drop off at the Parish Office or place in either collection offertory boxes.

Short Sleeve Onesies (Size 3mo or 6mo.), Sleeper (light wt.-Size 3mo or 6mo.), Crib sheet, Receiving Blanket (light wt., Baby wipes, Baby Bath Towel and Washcloth, Baby Wash/Shampoo/Lotion, Pacifiers and Baby Socks.

First Communion Suits, Dresses and Shoe Collection

Please consider donating new or cleaned but gently used First Communion dresses, veils, suits, ties, socks (boys / girls) and shoes for children in Detroit area parishes who would otherwise go without. Many parents are struggling financially and purchasing such items can be almost impossible. If purchasing new items, please consider sizes 8, 10 or 12 or consider purchasing a DSW (Designer Shoe Warehouse) gift card to purchase shoes. The need is great. All outfits can be hung on the clothing rack in the Gathering Space.

Children's Easter Baskets for St. Dominic's Outreach Center

In the Gathering Space you will find tags with requests for Easter baskets for a Boy or Girl (Ages 3-12) for St. Dominic's Outreach Center. We are hoping to collect 100 baskets (50 girls and 50 boys). Please return your filled basket to the crate found in the Gathering Space. Ideas for a basket; puzzles, books, sidewalk chalk, silly putty, play dough, water bottle, outside games, sport equipment, art supplies, small figurines, matchbox cars, jump rope, and candy are just a few suggestions. Please consider keeping basket value between $15-30.

Camp Ozanam: Donations so kids can go to Camp!

St. Vincent de Paul (SVdP) owns and operates a free summer camp program for qualifying boys and girls, ages 8-14. Camp Ozanam has served over 119,000 children since 1923 and is located on the shores of Lake Huron. Your generous donation will make it possible for children who would otherwise not be able to go to camp. Please make checks payable to St. Vincent de Paul—memo line: Camp Ozanam.

Christian Appalachian Project (CAP) is a ministry founded by Fr. Ralph Beiting in 1962 and serves the people of Appalachia. Far too many children, their families, and seniors in Appalachia live in desperation. No matter how hard they work, they have trouble escaping poverty, hunger, and fear that have held their family's captive for generations. You can help provide essential services that transform lives. Through Hunger & Poverty Relief, Child Family Development and Disaster and Elderly Services, CAP helps build hope, while sharing Christ's love. Much of CAP's services come from volunteers. Our Lady of Victory Teens along with Deacon Ric and Colleen Misiak have been among the volunteers who have served throughout the years. Please make checks payable to Christian Appalachian Project. For more information, please visit their website at christianapp.org.

Gianna House: The goal of Gianna House is to provide a safe residence for pregnant teens and their newborn infants while providing spiritual, educational, and parenting support and resources to all pregnant women. The vision at the Gianna House is to change the lives forever of teen moms and their baby by providing them with the opportunities to live in a safe and loving environment, that provides educational, life skills and career planning. The Gianna House suffered a setback this past December because of broken water pipes. All moms and babies are safe and being cared after, but extra help is needed to recover from the water damage. Please make checks payable to Gianna House. For more information, please visit: www.giannahouse.org.

OLV SCHOOL NEWS

Middle School Math

By Mrs. Whited
OLV Middle School Math Teacher

To say we are all thrilled that it's March and the sun has (somewhat) been shining is an understatement. Spring is on the horizon and middle school is excited! Here are some of the things we've been practicing in middle school math:

- My On-level 8th graders, Honors 8th graders, and Advanced 7th graders have been working on important concepts that they will be seeing more of next year in Algebra 1: Solving Systems of Linear Equations and/or Inequalities. Whether it be using multiple methods to solve traditional problems, or creating equations/inequalities to represent and solve real-world scenarios, they are getting a good start on something that they will be delving deeper into in high school.
- Honors 7th grade is finishing up its unit on an Introduction to Trigonometry-remember SOH CAH TOA? They have been using sine, cosine, and tangent to find unknown sides and angles in right triangles. Advanced 6th grade will be starting this unit soon!
- Last, my Honors 6th graders will be starting their geometry unit on Surface Area and Volume, which will be a nice break from the equations and graphing unit they are currently working on.

Below are some pictures of my Honors 7th graders participating in a Board Wars competition to prepare for their Trigonometry test!

OLV St. Vincent de Paul Society Conference #437

Live Your Faith.

Join the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

In today's Gospel, Jesus says: "My food is to do the will of the one who sent me and to finish his work."

Thirst is a metaphor for conversion; it captures the dynamic of encountering Christ, hearing his voice, seeing our lives for what they are, and then turning to Christ who is the source of our thirst. Christ is the "gift of God" who gives us the "living water" of his own preaching, dying, and rising. Our mission is to drink deeply and we, too, will never thirst again. Then we will be able to say with Jesus, "My food is to do the will of the one who sent me and to finish his work." (Living Liturgy, p.72)

If you would like to know more about OLV's SVdP Ministry and its activities, please leave your name and contact information on the OLV SVdP Hotline at (248) 349-2622 or e-mail us: stvincent@olvnorthville.net. A Vincentian will contact you. Or join us at our next meeting this Tuesday, March 14, at 7:00 PM, in the St. John XXIII room.

St. Vincent de Paul CLOTHING DRIVE

Saturday, April 29, 11:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

Sunday, April 30, 8:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m.

We are so glad to be helping St. Vincent DePaul and provide you a chance to clean out a closet or two! You can help those in need by bringing your clean, gently used clothing, shoes and coats to the church parking lot during the drop-off times. All items donated will be delivered to the SVdP Thrift Store. Please make sure to place items in plastic kitchen sized garbage bags and not to fill them too much since our volunteers have to lift and load them onto the truck. "Thank you for helping us help others".

We need volunteers for any amount of time to help with unloading cars and loading the truck. Please contact Nancy Tolkacz, nancytolkacz@att.net. High School students can also earn community service hours while donating time to a worthy event!
