Rev. Denis B. Theroux, Pastor

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Dear Friends,

This past week, I spend some time with the Scriptures and discovered that Sheep are mentioned more than 200 times in the Bible, more than any other animal. It makes sense of course, because sheep were important as sources of wool, milk, and meat, and throughout the Bible, sheep served as symbols for God's people. Jesus is portrayed as the shepherd of his chosen flock in the prophetic words of Isaiah and Ezekiel, and most famously in the 23rd Psalm, all in which belongs to the Good Shepherd.

If you have been around sheep, you know that sheep are followers. Following isn't something sheep have to think about—it's an instinct. Sheep remember faces. They recognize faces of other sheep and even of humans who work with them regularly. They are almost human, because sheep remember who treats them well—and even more, they remember who handles them harshly. Sheep find safety in numbers, and when grazing, sheep will keep at least 4-5 other sheep in view. They are very social and extroverted animals, for they do not do well alone, and they value supporting each other by sticking together at all costs. A lost sheep is critical because they do not do well alone.

When Jesus begins a statement with "Amen, amen I say to you" it means serious business in the Gospel of St. John. Twice Jesus says this to make a strong point, and he also says he is the gate twice—for he is the true gate. The Pharisees who deny Jesus as the way are no better than thieves trying to climb over the wall of a sheepfold, instead of entering through the gate.

I believe that the message of this parable is that Jesus is the true shepherd. He is the Good Shepherd who was willing to die for those who put their faith in Him. Any other person who claims to be the true shepherd is a robber or thief, for they are a false shepherd. Imagine a world where people do not expect to be served but are all eager to serve and care for one another! Jesus is the Good Shepherd who cares, watches, and protects those who believe in Him. This is an incredible message for anyone who seeks peace with God.

In the Rule of St. Benedict, it mentions sheep three times—in Chapter 1: The Kinds of Monastics; in Chapter 2: The Qualities of an Abbot or Prioress; and in Chapter 27: How Concerned the Abbot or Prioress Should Be about the Excommunicated (using the lost sheep as a metaphor). Benedict invites his followers and all of us, to listen with the ear of the heart, to listen to Jesus, our Good Shepherd, with hearts open.

To be in Jesus's flock is to be in a life-changing, transformative relationship with the Lord. To know the Lord Jesus is to see our life changed by that very relationship. It is to know the voice of Jesus and be able to distinguish it from others, so that in all things God may be glorified.

With much love and peace, Father Denis

Right to Life – LIFESPAN

Human Trafficking Red Flags

A useful resource for international life and family issues is The Center for Human and Family Rights, C-Fam for short, found at <https://c-fam.org>. C-Fam is very active at the UN especially. Nations are currently negotiating a new World Health Organization (WHO) pandemic treaty at the UN. The current U.S. Ambassador to the U.N. proposes to require all nations to consider, “sexual and reproductive health services,” as essential health care in any future pandemics. It is another attempt to subvert nations with pro-life policies. Become a LIFESPAN member to help spread your pro-life values by calling (734) 422-6230 or emailing wcd@rtl-lifespan.org.

OLV St. Vincent de Paul Society Conference #437

Live Your Faith.

Join the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Today, we celebrate "Good Shepherd Sunday" where we reflect on Jesus' care, his love of us and hear his words (John 10: 1-10), "I came so that they may have life and have it more abundantly."

Jesus is the gate, the sole point of entry to the fold. The image of the gate directs our thoughts to Jesus the Risen One, who always recognizes us and cares for us to Jesus our Shepherd. This is where our resurrection faith leads us, 'that we might have life and have it more abundantly.' Christ is truly here for us, calls us by name and leads us to life. (Living Liturgy, p.130)

If you have an interest in knowing more about OLV's SVdP Ministry, please email your name and contact information to: stvincent@olvnorthville.net; or leave your information on the OLV SVdP Hotline (248) 349-2622 and one of our Vincentians will contact you to share their experience.

Or join us at our next monthly meeting on Tuesday, May 9, at 7:00 PM, in the St. John XXIII room.

You can drop off the non expired items in the bins at church or when you drop off your clothing items in the church parking lot.

Most Needed Items: canned meat (chicken, tuna, stews, chili mix), Instant Oatmeal mixes, Cereal, Canned Vegetables (corn, peas, green beans), canned fruit and Side Dishes (Rice a Roni, Knorr's etc).
