Rev. Denis B. Theroux, Pastor

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Friends,

The Pharisees and Herodians were local authorities in Galilee who did not enjoy popularity among the inhabitants. They decided it was time to kill Jesus. At the command of the priests and elders, they wanted to know whether Jesus supported them or whether he was against showing obedience to the Romans, it's a deliberate question, and full of malice! Under the guise of fidelity to God's law, they sought grounds for accusation. If Jesus had said, "Pay," they would have accused him along with the people of being a friend of the Romans. If he said, "Don't pay," they would accuse him of being subversive. They set a loop for him.

But Jesus is aware of their hypocrisy. In his answer, he does not discuss with them, but goes to the heart of their question: "Whose image is this? And whose inscription?" "Caesar's," they replied. Jesus then concludes, "So give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's." They had already paid the emperor what belonged to him, for with his money they bought and sold and even donated to the temple! So the question was pointless. Why ask something that is so self-evident in everyday life?

The coin had important political power in the ancient world. The rulers issued them with their own image and inscription on them. In a sense, it was considered the personal property of the ruler. Where the coin had power as a means of payment, the ruler had political power over the people. Because the Jews used Roman currency, Jesus explained that what belonged to the emperor should be given to the emperor.

With their questions, they pretended to be God's servants, but they forgot the most important thing, they forgot to give God what belongs to God! Jesus saw how by their deceptive teaching and conduct they prevented people from entering the kingdom of God. With the words, "and to God what is God's," he meant exercise righteousness as required by God's law.

But the story has an even deeper meaning. Like a coin, we carry an image—the image of God. We are created in His image: "God created them in his own image...male and female, He created them." We do not belong to ourselves, but to God, who created us and redeemed us with the very blood of his Son, Jesus. That is why the apostle Paul encourages us to offer our bodies alive, holy, and pleasing to God. We are chosen for God's children, sons, and daughters in Jesus, so our lives and all we have belong to God and not to ourselves. Therefore, we give to God what belongs to God and by which He wants to reveal His divine kingdom of peace, justice, and love in this time and space.

Trying to return to the Lord all He has given me, Father Denis

VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION LUNCHEON

Sunday, October 29, 12:30-3:00 p.m., Fr. Ernie Center

All Volunteers welcome to our Harvest themed Event!

PLEASE RSVP BY SUNDAY, OCTOBER 22

In recognition of your dedicated service and love, please join us for a volunteer luncheon on Sunday, October 29, from 12:30-3:00 p.m., in the Fr. Ernie Center. Please rsvp at olvnorthville.org or call the Parish Office at (248) 349-2621. We hope to see you there!

Dear Friends, each year, the Catholic Services Appeal provides us an occasion to celebrate the many ways our Church in Detroit responds to the material and spiritual needs of individuals and families within our community. No single parish could meet these many needs. Through the sharing of our gifts and our service, we can answer the charge given to us at the end of every Mass: "Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord."

I am so grateful for the ways you have contributed to the life of our Parish as well as the Archdiocese for the past sixteen years, during my tenure as your Pastor. As a community, we have so much to be proud of...The new school opened in 2006, the old school was converted into the Administration Offices in 2008, and the total renovation of the Church, Gathering Space, Father Ernie Center and the parking lot beginning in 2014 and completed 2015. Time and time again, we have joined together and have been financially successful in every goal we have set.

Unfortunately, the past two years we have not made our CSA goal. This year, we are drastically below where we should be at this point in the drive. If you have not donated to the CSA this year, would you prayerfully consider a gift? Your generosity makes it possible for 170 ministries, services, and programs to love as Jesus loves and bring the indescribable joy found in Him to our communities.

I recognize that some may not be able to support the CSA financially at this time, but if you are able, will you please help me? In order to make our goal last year, the Parish paid over $30,000 to complete our goal.

Know that you and your family are always in my prayers. I am so very appreciative of all of your kindness and goodness to me and to our community. I ask Our Lady of Victory to intercede for us, that together, we will see yet another "Victory" in our Faith Community.

Blessings and peace, Father Denis

2023 Concert Series

The next concert will take place this SUNDAY, OCTOBER 22, AT 7:00 P.M. featuring pianist KELLY RIZZO-MCLAIN. She will be performing music by Debussy, Beethoven, Chopin, and Gershwin. Kelly is a fantastic musician and pianist! Make plans to attend this wonderful evening of classical piano music!

Sunday, November 12, at 7:00 p.m.

A Contemporary Christian Praise and Worship Concert featuring Kate Baumer & Band

Kate Baumer is a Catholic Christian speaker, singer songwriter, and recording artist from White Lake, Michigan. Kate has ministered to all kinds of audiences, both on and off the stage, for over ten years. Following her call to ministry in college, she released her debut album in 2016. Both with a band and solo, Kate has led worship at hundreds of local praise & worship events and Masses, as well as many national events such as Faith Fest, Big Ticket Festival, Creation Fest, the National Catholic Youth Conference, and more. Kate's greatest passion is leading others to meet Jesus-and she believes music offers the perfect bridge to encounter Him.

Kate will be joining us on Saturday, October 28, at the 5:00 p.m. Mass and on Sunday, October 29, at the 11:30 a.m. Mass. Feel free to stop by after one of these Masses to meet her and say hello!

Johnny Kash, Music Director

THANK YOU OLV!

Thank you Our Lady of Victory for your willingness to give and to help those in need in our community. Our combination St. Vincent de Paul Clothing Drive and Civic Concern Food Drive started off wet and just darn right miserable. The only ray of light shining through on Saturday was from our parishioners and volunteers who showed up throughout the day donating their items, talents and time. By the end of the weekend the truck was 3/4 full of donated items and we had plenty of volunteers who took 2-5 hours out of their weekend to help make the combination drives a success. A special thank you to the following people Tom Coseo, Agnes & Rick Frost, Donna Medved, Sue DeMilia, Tom, Gary Gurgold, Barbara Barrel, Tony DePaulis, Eric Magnan, Ann Tobon & her niece Peggy, Bill Bechtel, Liam, Brennan, Julian, Andre, Julia, and Lara. These volunteers helped unload cars, packed the truck, handed out receipts, dated food items, packed up and cleaned up when the event was over and/or volunteered to take food items to Civic Concern. You are the special lights who shine forth in our community. Without the volunteers, this event could not happen and we could not help others.

Thank you, Nancy Tolkacz

SEASONED SAINTS SENIOR GROUP LUNCHEON

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 12-2 P.M.

ST. COLETTE CHURCH

Leaving Your Legacy

A historical genealogist will talk about how our family history can be found and the importance of leaving your story for future generations. Where you grew up, worked, or raised a family are all important stories to share with your family.

Please RSVP by Monday, November 6. Visit olvnorthville.org/seasoned-saints, scan the QR code, or call the Parish Office at (248) 349-2621. All Seniors welcome!

SAVE the DATE: The last Season Saints Luncheon in 2023 is December 13, at Our Lady of Victory.

Wear your favorite Christmas sweater and join us in the Fr. Ernie Center from 12-2 p.m.

OLV St. Vincent de Paul Society | Conference #437

Live Your Faith. Join the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Since 1833, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul has been servicing those in need.

In today's Gospel (Matthew 22:15-21), Jesus says: "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." When God is the center of our lives there is no problem with giving others their due.

Your SVdP Conference extends our heartfelt THANKS to all who donated gently used clothing and unexpired food items at last weekend's fall SVdP Clothing & Food Drive. Your kindness serves the needs of those in our community and your donations allow God's mercy to be poured into your hearts.

We also would like to extend an invitation to share with our OLV community the beauty of the birth of Jesus by participating in our upcoming No Room at the Inn Nativity display. Information on displaying your personal Nativity scene(s) at this event is available online, at the Parish Office, church bulletin board or by sending an e-mail to stvincent@olvnorthville.net.

Again, thank you for all you do to support OLV's SVdP Ministry

Are you interested in learning about OLV's St. Vincent de Paul Ministry? If your answer is YES, we are always looking for additional talent, so please call us at (248) 349-2622 or e-mail to: stvincent@olvnorthville.net. One of our members will contact you and answer any of your questions. Or join us at our next SVdP meeting on Tuesday, November 14, at 7:00 PM, in the St. John XXIII room.

OLV Youth Ministry

www.olvnorthville.org/high-school-youth

Thank you to all who were able to help out with our Mercy in Action Service Project last Sunday! It is always appreciated.

If you are coming to the Three Cedars Farm event on Friday, October 27, don't forget to meet at OLV at 6:40 p.m. We will drive there as a group and will return to OLV between 9:45-10 p.m. If you had not planned on coming, but can now, please contact Colleen on Monday, October 23. Cost is $20.

Permission Slips are online (scan the QR code) and in the Parish Office.

OLV SCHOOL NEWS

Happy Autumn from Kindergarten!

Ms. Jennifer Blazejewski

Welcome fall! This year we carry on the tradition of our kindergarten field trip to the pumpkin patch at Three Cedars Farm in Northville! The weather this year was cool, damp and cloudy, but we still had a wonderful time on our field trip. Kinders and many of their parents went on a hayride out to the pumpkin patch, where everyone picked their own pumpkin. Then we rode back to the farm and enjoyed delicious fresh cinnamon donuts and apple cider. Afterwards the students played in the playground area, had fun in the corn pit, rode the train and fed the farm animals. What a great opportunity to be together with our friends, classmates and families-outside in God's creation!

Look for Us this Weekend!

This weekend, the International Order of Alhambra Manresa Caravan will be having their annual canister drive. Look for us outside all church doors before and after all Masses accepting donations. These donations will help put smiles on the faces of developmentally disabled children by funding charitable events and projects. There will be a table setup in the Gathering Space if anyone is interested in joining our organization or would like more information about who we are and what we do for God's special children!

~Thank you, Dave Maertens

Have you been thinking about God lately? Friday, November 3-Sunday, November 5

Perhaps this is a special time of life for you. Renew your inner life at our Parish Weekend Retreat for Men November 3-5. The retreat theme this year is "DANCING WITH GOD". You will be amazed at how much the retreat will help you find God in your daily experience and what peace this awareness can bring you. Call in your reservation now by contacting Dan Donohue at (248) 974-5011 or the Retreat Center at (313) 535-9563.

THANK YOU to all who stopped by last Saturday and Sunday to learn about Walking with Moms in Need (WWMN) and to share your thoughts and ideas about how to take WWMN forward.

For those who were not able to attend, Walking with Moms in Need is a ministry where we as a parish recognize and respond to the call from Pope Francis that our parishes need to be "islands of mercy in the midst of a sea of indifference."

Pregnant and parenting moms in need are in our parishes and our neighborhoods and everyone in the Parish community should recognize this and know where to refer a pregnant woman in need. We also believe we are called on by our Lord to lend a hand to pregnant and parenting mothers in need. Our goal, therefore, is to develop and implement a plan to connect and share resources and our God-given talents with those seeking help. As we move forward with our implementation plans, we invite you to join our Parish Support Network. If you feel called to do this, please contact jpolicic@yahoo.com with your name, phone, and email address to stay updated about our implementation plans and be advised of any opportunities to volunteer.

Northville Civic Concern

Shelves are Bare. Please Help Fill Them!

Northville Civic Concern is asking for our help with filling their shelves with food and products that many of our neighborhood families count on each week. Your support is very much needed!

- Boxed: Macaroni & Cheese, Rice, Potatoes, Noodles
- Pasta & Pasta Sauce
- Canned Meals, Fruit or Vegetables
- Jelly
- Cereal (unsweetened) Breakfast Bars
- Instant Oatmeal Box (individual packets)
- Dish Soap
- Small Laundry Soap
- Paper towels
- Kleenex Boxes
- Shampoo, Conditioner

Please place your donation in the bins located in the Gathering Space near the steps towards the Fr. Ernie Center or drop it off at the trucks during the St. Vincent de Paul Clothing & Food Drive. Thank you for your support!

Advent by Candlelight

Tuesday, November 28, 6:00-8:00 p.m.

Fr. Ernie Center

RSVP by November 21

You're invited to ring in Advent with us and take some time to relax, reflect and renew your spirit to prepare for Jesus! Come together with other women as we enjoy the beauty of the Advent season. Bring friends and family!

Reserve your Seat today!

For more information and to RSVP, please visit olvnorthville.org/advent-by-candlelight or scan the QR code. There is no cost for this event, but you are welcome to bring an item for a newborn to be distributed to local pregnancy centers.

Our Speaker this year is Anna Feola. Raised in a Protestant home and spending many years in active ministry and mission work, Anna will share her story of how the Holy Spirit led her into the Catholic Church and revealed Jesus's real presence to her in the Holy Eucharist. Join us as Anna shares her story while weaving in the witness of other women in the faith to inspire, encourage and renew within each of us the very thing Jesus is seeking. Anna and her husband, Anthony, share 23 years of marriage and have five precious children ranging in age from 8-21, and eight God-children.

Centerpieces, table linens, tea, coffee, wine and desserts will be provided!

If you have any questions please contact Kim Minniear at kminniear@olvnorthville.net or (248)349-2621, ext. 2277.
