The Solemnity of Christ the King

Dear Friends,

Today, Jesus is talking with his disciples about the time when the Son of Man will come in glory. He is telling them that everyone on earth will be gathered, and He will separate the peoples, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. The sheep will have a privileged place on his right hand and the goats will be on his left.

To the sheep, Jesus says: "You will be at my right hand. You fed me when I was hungry, and you cared about me and you were attentive to me." However, the people listening to Jesus were confused. They knew that they had not clothed Jesus, nor had they quenched his thirst. The people asked Jesus: "When did we do these things?" Jesus told them that when you fed the hungry, clothed the naked and helped others in a multitude of physical or spiritual ways, you helped me. Clearly, Jesus is instructing them that whatever goodness and kindness they do for the people around them, they also do for Him.

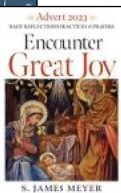

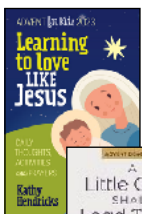

The goats then begin to complain or make excuses to Jesus. They tell him that they had not had the opportunity to serve Him in this way. Jesus bluntly tells them that they were not concerned with the people who were in need. They did not clothe them or feed them or minister to them. They simply ignored them.

Jesus then makes it clear that what we do or do not do for others is a determining factor for our future. In a real sense, we are the ones who make the choice about our future. We have the power to choose to help others or to ignore them and their needs. If we choose to help others, hopefully it is not simply because we want to be with Jesus in heaven. Hopefully our desire to help others flows from our concern for them and perhaps our gratitude for the times when someone else helped us. Perhaps, we wish to help others as we have been helped.

As we go through our day today, may we be attentive to the times when someone could use a helping hand or a listening ear. There are people in need all around us! The question is: will we see them and will we reach out to them?

Trying to be a good sheep, Father Denis

OLV St. Vincent de Paul Society | Conference #437

Live Your Faith. Join the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Since 1833, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul has been servicing those in need.

Today we celebrate Christ the King. In the Gospel (Matthew 25:31-46), we hear Jesus say: "...whatever you did for one of the least brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

*Devotion to Christ the King means loving and serving those who find themselves in desperate circumstance. OLV St. Vincent de Paul Ministry members see the face of Christ in each neighbor in our greater Northville community who we are able to help because of your generous contribution of time, talent and financial assistance. THANK YOU!

Are you a young person interested in learning how you can help those in need in your community? OLV's SVdP Ministry seeks participation from ALL generations. So if you'd like to learn how you can be involved in helping others, please leave your name and contact information on the OLV SVdP Hotline (248) 349-2622 or e-mail to: stvincent@olvnorthville.net and one of our members will contact you. Or join us at our next SVdP meeting on Tuesday, December 12, at 7:00 PM, in the St. John XXIII room.

OLV Youth Ministry

www.olvnorthville.org/high-school-youth

Sometimes we hear people say, "What is there to be thankful for?" And, if our only criteria in being thankful was "How are my successes, desires and wants from my perspective going?", then for a lot of us it would be a stretch. But, thankfully, God's lens is a whole lot wider than ours and our joy is based on lots more than "How's it going for us."

We hope this Thanksgiving Holiday allows you the opportunity for a realization of being loved unconditionally! Despite what and in whatever circumstances, allow that joy to lead you into a deeper relationship with Jesus. Take a moment and say this Thanksgiving Prayer.

*Lord, we thank you for the goodness of our people and for the spirit of justice that fills this nation.
We thank you for the beauty and fullness of the land and the challenge of the cities.*

*We thank you for our work and our rest,
for one another, and for our homes.*

*We thank you, Lord:
accept our thanksgiving on this day.*

*We pray and give thanks through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen. —from Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers.*

Tune up those voices for a bit of Christmas Cheer! Next Sunday, December 3, we will share our voices by visiting various parishioners.

Meet in the Neumann Room at 6
p.m. so we can head out from there —driving together.

OLV SCHOOL NEWS

Hello from Middle School Writing/Grammar & Literature Class

By Dr. Laura Sweet

Hello! The holidays are quickly approaching, and we have been busy in middle school writing and reading! This year, I have combined to teach writing/grammar and literature. 7th graders are working on A Christmas Carol and will soon be attending the play at Meadowbrook Theater. Additionally, 6th graders are writing about Thanksgiving and reading The Westing Game! They are so creative and excited to share their writing pieces! Holiday excitement emanates throughout middle school! OLV has continued to be part of my family's routine, and my family has also been a staple within the community. I wish you all a blessed and safe Holiday season!
