The Epiphany of the Lord

Dear Friends,

This ancient Feast of the Epiphany reminds us that the whole universe is in God and that God is in us. It celebrates the presence of God who is revealed to us in wondrous ways: in creation; in our dreams; in our day to day experience; in our sacred stories. Readiness to encounter God in these diverse ways has nothing to do with naive dependence on our own judgment or on the judgement of others. It has more to do with a way of being in the world that involves openness to the unexpected and a critical and careful communal dialogue between our life experience and our faith tradition. A deep awareness of our place in the world and connection with the more-than-human teaches us respect for all that God has created and respect for the power of God's Spirit to lead us beyond ourselves towards a more profound encounter with the divine.

Epiphany has long been associated with the "Kings" or the "Wise" or Astrologers "from the East" who are led beyond themselves and their immediate location by the rising of a star. They form their own initial assumption and travel west to search out the meaning of this sign. Their questioning in Jerusalem attracts the attention of Herod, the Roman-appointed "king of the Jews" who turns to the official interpreters of the Jewish scriptures for information on the birthplace of the Messiah. They follow the star that leads them to Bethlehem, to the new born child, the incarnate Wisdom of God. The gospel does not stipulate how many wise ones or magi come to pay homage to the child who has already been named in the text as Emmanuel, God-with-us.

The three gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh have traditionally been associated with three different characters, usually kings, of diverse nationality and color. These strangers are the first to recognize "God-with-us" in the person of Jesus of Nazareth. They also come to recognize in a dream the duplicity of Herod, who senses a threat to his political power from the birth of a new-born king of the Jews. They have the good sense not to consent to Herod's request to bring him word of the newborn king. They return home "by another road".

The story-teller Matthew leaves room in the description for the insertion of the wise ones who will emerge through the ages. There is an invitation for us to enter into Matthew's drama, to be the wise ones, to join with people of different cultures, to engage in our own search for Wisdom, and to follow the star that leads to truth and lasting peace. There is also an invitation to be careful of those who find their positions threatened by a different sort of power, power based on vulnerability and openness to new life.

Blessings on this wonderful Feast, Father Denis

Rosary in the Chapel
Thursday, January 11, 7:00 p.m.

We can finally catch our breath after the flurry of activity leading up to and through the celebration of Our Lord's birth on Christmas. Praying the Rosary has the unique effect of quieting the mind and centering our focus on Mary who is always here for us in the same way that she has been for Jesus.

Please join the Knights of Columbus on Thursday, January 11, in the Chapel at 7:00 p.m., for the monthly Rosary recitation. As always, everyone is welcomed!

OLV Adult Choir

The OLV Adult Choir welcomes those in the community who have a passion for singing. The Choir maintains an exciting and active rehearsal and performance schedule. The choir typically sings at the 9:30 a.m. Mass on Sundays. In addition to this the choir will sing for Holy Thursday, Good Friday, the Easter Vigil and for an Easter Concert in April accompanied by Brass Quartet. Singers must be in the 9th grade or older and the only requirement is the ability to be able to “carry a tune”. Rehearsals resume on Thursday, January 11, 700-8:30 p.m.

Are you an experienced chorister and unable to join us every Sunday? Consider singing with us for our spring concert! The OLV Adult Choir is performing an Easter Concert featuring music for Choir, Organ, Brass, and Timpani on Sunday, April 21, at 7 p.m. We will begin rehearsing for the concert this week, January 11, starting at 8:00 p.m. Regular attendance is required as well as the concert rehearsal on Saturday, April 20, from 10:00 a.m. to Noon. Please reach out to me if you are interested or have any questions.

Right to Life – LIFESPAN

2024 Rose Mass is Wednesday, January 17

LIFESPAN invites you to join us for the annual Rose Mass at 6:00 p.m., on Wednesday, January 17 at Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church in Plymouth. This beautiful mass includes the solemn Rose Ceremony as volunteers walk down the main aisle to place a single red rose in a baby crib as a brief reflection is read to memorialize the pre-born lives lost for each year of legal abortion in Michigan since 1973. The collection at this Mass benefits LIFESPAN's efforts in the community. This week, also say a prayer for our youth who are taking buses to Washington for the National March for Life from January 18-20. See milifespans.org to learn how to become a LIFESPAN member in 2024.

20*C*M*B*24

At Epiphany, some people write a special sign in chalk over their front door. It is a reminder of the Wise Men that visited the baby Jesus. The sign is made from the year split in two with initials of the names that are sometimes given to 'the three wise men', Caspar, Melchior and Balthazar, in the middle. So, 2024 would be: 20*C*M*B*24. The sign is meant to protect the house for the coming year. Get some chalk and make your own sign.

This weekend, we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany, a day where we honor the mystery of the manifestation of Jesus Christ to all peoples.

As we prepare to rollout Walking with Moms in Need at Our Lady of Victory, we would like to thank the Lord Jesus and the Blessed Mother along with Father Denis, Deacon Fred, and our Family of Parishes' Administrative Support Team for guiding and supporting our Core and Parish Support Team members as we worked to create Walking with Moms in Need at OLV. Our newly developed plan to provide support to pregnant women or parenting moms, dads, and families was presented to the Parish on October 14-15, 2023, and includes:

A Communication Plan:

- Letting moms know we are here,
- Raising awareness that we are a Walking with Moms community, and
- Creating multiple ways for pregnant and parenting moms, dads, and families to contact us (phone, e-mail, and website).

A Material Needs Plan:

- Establish a team of pregnancy help center liaisons,
- Understand the needs of the local pregnancy help centers, and
- Communicate our desire to service the spiritual needs of their clients.

An accompaniment Plan:

- To train volunteers to accompany moms, dads, and families in need using Into Life,
- Establish a call team using Into Life,
- Build a team of volunteers to mentor moms, dads, and families in need.

Look for more information in next week's bulletin on our plans to roll out Walking with Moms in Need at Our Lady of Victory.

OLV St. Vincent de Paul Society | Conference #437

Live Your Faith. Join the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Since 1833, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul has been servicing those in need.

Today we celebrate the feast of the Epiphany, where the Magi find the newborn king and offer him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

What would happen if we led our life as if the star stopped on us? The answer is most startling when we consider the gospel as a whole: what it means and what happens is that the only way to light and life is to die to self so darkness can be overcome. Life has its sorrows and sufferings. It also has its joys and celebrations: the mystery of salvation has been revealed in Jesus....and in us. (Living Liturgy, p.32)

To learn how you can help those in need in our community by joining OLV's SVdP Ministry, please leave your name and contact information on the OLV SVdP Hotline (248) 349-2622 or e-mail to: stvincent@olvnorthville.net and an OLV Vincentian will reach out to you. Or join us at our first SVdP 2024 meeting on Tuesday, January 9, at 7:00 PM, in the St. John XXIII room.
