*Not a hair on your head
will be destroyed*

Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church

"As Disciples of Jesus Christ, we are a giving, growing Catholic family. Through the intercession of Mary, we worship, we pray, we study, we serve and we witness in Faith."

AROUND THE TABLE

Rev. Denis B. Theroux, Pastor

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Friends,

In today's reading, Jesus was in the temple. As He was sitting there, some of the people around Him were speaking of how the temple was adorned with precious stones and there were many people making votive offerings. Jesus said: "The things you are contemplating: the day will come when not one stone of this temple will be left on another and all this will be torn down." Some of the people who heard Jesus make this statement questioned Jesus: Teacher, "When will this take place? What signs should we look for?" Jesus cautioned his listeners to be discerning. They should take care not to be misled by false prophets who would "come and preach in the name of Jesus." They also should be discerning about what they hear. They should not be dismayed when there are prophecies and warnings of wars and insurrections. These events will not necessarily mean that the "end time" is at hand.

Jesus then predicts: "Nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom. There will be horrific natural disasters; and you will be persecuted and perhaps, be put to death because of my name and your faith in me. This is what my followers will experience. However, do not be afraid; I will give you the words to speak and the wisdom to give witness on my account. Do not worry. Hold fast to your belief in me and in my promise. I will not fail you."

Take a few minutes today and ask yourself: Do I truly believe Jesus' words? Do I trust in His promise, even though He says: "You will be delivered up even by your loved ones and you may be put to death! Many will hate you because of your belief in me, yet not a hair of your head will be harmed."

I suspect that Jesus' words may create some anxiety in us. We do not like to hear about "the end times" or what may happen when we die. Yet every day we create our future by the choices and the daily decisions we make. Today we can make choices that bring us life and spread love and acceptance in our world, or we can be indifferent and blind to the pain, hurt, and need around us. How will I choose to live my life today?

Trying to always choose love, Father Denis

KNIGHTLY NEWS

Welcome New Members!

Please join us in welcoming Jeff Duneske and Dan Phillips as the newest members of our Council here at OLV. If you would like to learn more about the Knights, please contact Rick Bennett at rickbennett@peoplepc.com or (248) 912-8338.

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY

Thursday, November 27 through Friday, November 28

OLV Campus Closed ★ No Mass

This Weekend . . .

A special word of thanks to Lynda Fulgenzi and Craig Wojtalewicz for filling in for me while I take my annual pre-Advent/Christmas rest and recharge! Your support and leadership are greatly appreciated!

Next Weekend . . .

Our Church will celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. We will honor this festive Holy Day with special music, featuring a trumpeter at the 5:00 p.m., 7:30 a.m., and 9:30 a.m. Masses. Additionally, our Parish Choir and Handbell Ensemble will enhance the 9:30 a.m. Mass with their beautiful music.

OLV Parish Children's Choir

The OLV Children's Choir is a wonderful group of young singers who rehearse every Tuesday after school. This Tuesday they have a special treat—a rehearsal with Mr. Eric Taylor!

Mr. Taylor is the Director of Music at St. Malachy in Sterling Heights. He holds a bachelor's degree in Vocal Music Education and a master's degree in Choral Conducting from Wayne State University. With years of experience teaching singers of all ages, he brings a wealth of knowledge and energy to this special rehearsal. We are thrilled to welcome Mr. Taylor to OLV and can't wait to see the choir shine under his guidance!

Sing with the OLV Parish Choir—Even Just for Special Events!

Do you love to sing but can't commit to regular Sunday Masses? The OLV Parish Choir welcomes singers who wish to participate on a flexible basis!

While many members sing throughout the year, others join us just for special liturgies and concerts such as Christmas, Easter, or other parish celebrations. This is a wonderful way to share your voice and be part of something beautiful—without a long-term commitment.

Whether you've sung in a choir before or are returning after some time away, we'd love to have you with us. Rehearsals are enjoyable and uplifting, and you'll experience the joy of making music in community and for the glory of God.

If you're interested in singing for concerts or other liturgical celebrations, contact me for more information. Come share your gift of song—even part-time! New members will be welcome to join the choir beginning on January 8, 2026.

Save the Date! OLV Parish Christmas Concert is on Sunday, December 14, at 3:00 p.m.

Join us for one of OLV's most anticipated musical events of the year! The OLV Music Ministry—featuring the Children's Choir, Adult Choir, Handbell Ensemble, and Contemporary Music Group—will come together for a festive concert celebrating the joy of the Christmas season.

Enjoy inspiring performances, sing along to beloved Christmas carols, and delight in a special pre-concert organ performance beginning at 2:30 p.m. by Mr. Dave Calendine, organist for the Detroit Red Wings and Detroit Tigers.

Mark your calendars—you won't want to miss this heartwarming celebration of music and community.

Mentor Moms in Need From the Comfort of Your Home

Do you have a heart for helping moms in need but struggle to find the time? Our Lady of Victory's Walking with Moms in Need Ministry invites you to become a Mentor Mom—offering friendship, encouragement, and prayer to mothers who could use extra support from the comfort of your own home. One call a week is all that is needed.

We expect that our need for mentors will increase thanks to a new Archdiocese of Detroit grant that will grow our ministry as we work to create five new Moms Support Groups over the next year, with materials also being translated into Spanish to reach more families.

What's Involved:

- Seven-week Into Life and Mentor Mom training
- One-time, three-hour Protecting God's Children session
- Flexibility to mentor from home
- Ongoing support from our ministry team

If you feel called to walk with moms in need, contact us at wmominneed@olvnorthville.net or (248) 349-2621, ext. 2882 to learn more.

KETTLE BELL RINGING for the SALVATION ARMY

Christmas must be coming because OLV is ringing the kettle bell at the Northville Post Office again this year!

Please join us in ringing in the season by signing up to ring the bell for an hour or two. Beginning Friday, November 21, OLV parishioners will be standing outside in front of the Northville City Post Office to assist the Salvation Army in all the good they do for the local communities.

You can easily sign up online at olvnorthville.org or scan the QR code. 1 hour shifts are setup for every Friday and Saturday through December 13. Bell Ringing takes place OUTSIDE of the Northville City Post Office (200 S. Wing Street). Please dress according to the weather. This is a great opportunity for any student looking for service hours.

For more information or to signup without a computer, please contact: Tony Albanese (248) 425-5360 or Karen Martin at (248) 797-3888.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHBISHOP OF DETROIT

NOVEMBER 15, 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Since arriving in Detroit this past March, I have had the great joy of meeting many of you at parish celebrations, diocesan gatherings, Mass, and other liturgies. In every encounter, I have seen something truly beautiful. I have witnessed your deep love for Christ, your local parish, and our Archdiocese. I also have witnessed your intense desire to see the Church of Detroit flourish for generations to come.

Along with our many blessings, I have also heard the candid expression of your concerns and your understanding of the challenges we face now and into the future. Please know that I hear you and that I see these challenges, too. Many of our churches were built during a time of tremendous growth, when more than 1.5 million Catholics called this Archdiocese home. Today, our Catholic census is closer to 900,000, with a smaller number regularly attending Mass. We have been struggling to maintain buildings, ministries, and structures that were designed for a much larger Church. The situation that unfolded in the last 50 years has left us stretched, sometimes stretched too thinly to serve as well as we want. Moreover, as we struggle to care for buildings and parish structures where there are very few people, we are also seeking to ensure the presence of the Church as we follow the Catholic population in those areas where the Church is growing.

While I believe that our commitment to Christ and his Church means that we must face these challenges, I do not believe that this moment in time need be marked primarily by anxiety or despair. Rather, I believe the situation we are facing is one that holds real and blessed opportunities. I believe with all my heart that God is inviting us to reimagine parish life, priestly ministry, and our mission. I believe God is asking us to face our future with creativity and deeper faith and trust that if we ask Him, then He will show us the way toward building something vibrant, sustainable, and enduring into the future.

This is why I am inviting every Catholic in our Archdiocese to join me in a serious two-year process of Archdiocesan restructuring. It will be a journey of discernment that I believe we can accomplish only together—a time for us to chart the best path forward for each of our parish communities and regions. In such an endeavor, every voice matters, just as every prayer matters. The end result will affect each parish and community of our Archdiocese, so each of you has a part to play in shaping the future of our Church.

It is important to be honest about what this restructuring may bring. We know that we cannot maintain the same number of parish buildings that we have today. Some parish communities may see changes in how or where they gather, while others may be called to see church buildings closed—structures that have been dear to their hearts for generations. But just as there will be mourning over losses or changes in parish life, there likewise will be new blessings with enhanced locations, renewed communities, and the ability to redirect our efforts toward sharing the Gospel and making disciples. I believe that as we work to right-size the Archdiocese and reallocate our personnel and financial resources, the footprint of the Church's presence—her mission, her faith, and her people—will remain.

Our work will be guided primarily by three key pillars:

- Vibrant parishes: We want every parish to be a living heartbeat of faith, where people encounter Christ, grow in discipleship, and build real community.
- Flourishing Priests: Our priests are at the heart of parish life. They must be supported and free to focus on what they do best: preaching the Gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, and caring for the faithful.
- Mission ready: By realigning our clergy and financial resources wisely, we will bring the joy of Christ to the next generation with energy and purpose. We will hand the next generation a Church that is vibrant, thriving and alive in every way.

Next spring, each parish will host two listening sessions where you will have a chance to share your insights, hopes, and dreams for the future of your local parish and the Archdiocese. In the meantime, I ask for your prayers. Special prayer cards will be made available for this purpose at each parish. You can also access the prayer at restructuring.aod.org, along with other resources related to this effort.

Additionally, every step of the restructuring will be covered in Detroit Catholic, the Archdiocese's free online news source. The best way to be kept up to date with how the restructuring unfolds is to sign up to get Detroit Catholic delivered to your email inbox either daily or weekly at detroitcatholic.com/subscribe.

Brothers and sisters, thank you for your generosity of time, prayer, talent, and faith. Together, and with God's grace, we will fashion a Church in this Archdiocese that is vibrant, flourishing, and fully alive in the mission of the Gospel.

May God bless you abundantly,

Most Reverend Edward J. Weisenburger

Archbishop of Detroit

PRAYER FOR ARCHDIOCESAN RESTRUCTURING

Come, Holy Spirit.

Make your presence known as we restructure the parishes and ministries of our archdiocese.

Be our light on the path we walk together.
Help us hear your voice in the quiet of our own hearts,
in the wisdom of others and in the world around us.

We know you are with us in every step of the process.
Give us clarity, understanding, and direction.
In all things, help us share the light of your love. Amen.

Ste. Anne, pray for us.
Blessed Solanus Casey, pray for us.
Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for us.

An OLV Christmas...

Everyone loves OLV at Christmas time, and year after year I'm told how BEAUTIFUL the Church and our property look! The Challenge...is that everyone loves the way it looks, but it takes many hands to create this beauty. Won't you PLEASE lend a hand? A schedule of days and times to decorate have been established. Show up any time during the scheduled hours. All help is greatly appreciated!

- Saturday, December 6, 8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m.: Exterior

Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts
-Romans 5:5

We hope for many things, for ourselves, for our loved ones, and others. Pope Francis proclaimed that the year 2025 would be JUBILEE YEAR OF HOPE, marked by the hope that does not fade, our hope in God.

Deacon Fred will be presiding a Holy Hour for Hope on December 8, after the 7:30 p.m. Mass for the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. There will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, communal and personal prayer, and Benediction. All are welcome!

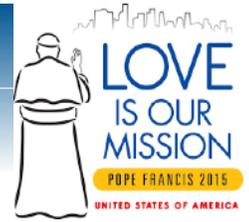

Live Your Faith. Join the Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Since 1833, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul has been servicing those in need.

Grow spiritually. Help those in need. Develop Christian friendships.

The Gospel today predicts end times: our challenge though is to live faithfully now.

St. Vincent often asked this simple question: "What would Jesus Christ do, if he were here in my place right now?" Would he hoard his money? Would he ignore the poor, the sick, the lame or the homeless? Ask the Holy Spirit to guide you. How can you bring Jesus's love to others? Please consider helping others by giving food to Civic Concern or by donating to our St. Vincent de Paul conference to help us help our neighbors in need of rent or utility assistance. Hope is planted. Now let it grow.

If you would like to know more about our St. Vincent de Paul conference, kindly provide your name and contact details by calling the OLV SVdP Hotline at (248) 349-2622 or email to svincent@olvnorthville.net. A member of our conference will reach out to you. You are always welcome to attend our upcoming meeting on Tuesday, December 9, at 7:00 p.m., in the St. John XXIII.

OLV SCHOOL NEWS

By Mrs. Jennifer Kraus, 3rd Grade Teacher

Hello from the Third Grade!

The third graders at OLV School have been busy in our science class! In our first few months of school, we have visited our STEM room, studied germinating seeds, and used hydroponics to grow bean plants. Currently, we are exploring different types of skeletons and the connective tissues that make a body work. Our observations of the rodent bones we found in owl pellets were very helpful in making comparisons to a human skeleton. Soon, we will learn about exoskeletons when we host crayfish in our classroom!

See everyone this Sunday evening for our Life Night!

Ever feel like you're facing an obstacle and there is no one there to help out?

In this week's Gospel, Jesus let's us know we are never alone, even when the going is tough. In fact, Jesus lets us know that by just following and believing in him we might get ridiculed and people thinking not very kind thoughts about us. All because we're Christians. But despite that, Jesus tells us to never give up on Him, or give up telling others about Him.

Do you know someone who could use a caring friend during a tough time?

Our Stephen Ministers are trained to provide confidential, Christ-centered care to those who are hurting. They are ready to offer support, encouragement, and a listening ear to anyone facing life's challenges.

If you or someone you know could benefit from this ministry, please call the STEPHEN MINISTRY confidential message line at (248) 349-0216 and leave your name and phone number.

A Stephen Minister Leader will return your call.

HAITI OUTREACH MISSION

I cannot thank you all enough for your generosity to Haiti Outreach Mission. Donations are still coming in following my appeal to all of you a few weekends ago. I would also like to thank our dear Knights of Columbus for a generous donation which jumpstarted this fundraising campaign.

HOM just sent additional funds which have been received by the priests in Haiti, who reported that much of it will go toward housing for individuals displaced from Mirebalais following the gang invasion. The invasion was in March, and when these individuals eventually found places to live, they had six-month leases. It is now renewal time for many of them and with that comes the need for housing assistance as many have been unable to find work after becoming displaced. We were also able to provide money for medical supplies. The individuals who previously worked at the St. Pierre Clinic in Mirebalais (which HOM funded) now find themselves unemployed, but are serving those in need with funds we provide for medical supplies and medications.

Please visit our website at www.haitioutreachmission.org to see the impressive work HOM has done over the years. And, of course, please pray for the people of Haiti, including the gangs, that their hearts may be changed.

-Mary Beth Dawson
