

*Imitating Mary,
you will not go astray.
Praying to her,
you will not despair.
Thinking of her, you will not err.
Supported by her, you will not fail...
Embraced by her, you will be saved.*

Vocations Crucifix

The Vocations Crucifix is a special crucifix that travels from family to family to inspire prayer for vocations. It is to intercede for vocations and encourage families to discuss priestly or other religious vocations.

The Crucifix, prayer brochure, and sign up sheets are on the vocations table in front of the Altar. Thank you for your commitment to praying for vocations.

The Sanctuary Light will burn this week in loving memory of: Jerry Pignolo, requested by Fannie, Children & Grandchildren; Karylyn Mundy, requested by Dolly Roy.

If you would like to have the Sanctuary Light burn in memory of a loved one, call the Church Office. The donation for the Sanctuary Light is $10.

The flowers in church this week were donated in loving memory of: deceased members of the Altar Society.

Church Flowers—Anyone who wishes to donate the flowers in church in memory of a loved one for a particular weekend may call the church office. The donation is $35 payable to the Altar Society.

St. Luke

The evangelist St. Luke was St. Paul's companion and a physician. The Gospel of Luke has some of the most loved stories, including those about the birth of Jesus. Luke shows the compassionate Jesus who loves all people, especially the poor. His Gospel is called the Gospel of the Spirit, the Gospel of Prayer, the Gospel of Women, the Gospel of the Poor, and the Gospel of Joy. Besides his Gospel, Luke wrote the Acts of the Apostles, considered to be part two of his Gospel. St. Luke's feast day is October 18.

Luke is called the winged ox, since he deals with the sacrificial aspects of Christ's life and since his version of the Gospel begins with a temple scene.

Legend has it that Luke painted a portrait of the Blessed Mother, the icon of Our Lady of Czestochowa, also known as the Black Madonna. According to this tradition, he painted it on a board from the table St. Joseph built for the Holy Family. Historical studies, however, place the icon's origin between the fifth and eighth centuries. Today it can be seen at Poland's Jasna Gora monastery, where it has been a symbol of Polish spirituality and a place of pilgrimage since 1382. It is said to have traveled from Palestine to Byzantium, then to Hungary, and on to Ruthenia, and finally to Poland. (One legend says that angels finished a picture of Christ that was outlined by St. Luke; another, that Luke is the anonymous painter of Our Mother of Perpetual Help.)

This year, both the school and PSR will be trying to memorize a scripture verse each month. All the verses have to do with the Gospel Value for this year "Inclusion". We invite the parishioners to join us in this effort. The verse for October is: "A faithful friend is a sturdy shelter; he who finds one finds a treasure." Sirach 6:14

All Souls Day at OLPH

Please join us for our All Souls Day Mass at 7:00 p.m. on Friday, November 2, 2017. If you have lost someone since last All Souls Day, who has been entered into our Book of the Dead, you should receive a letter of invitation to celebrate this special Mass with family and friends followed by hospitality. Pictures of the deceased will be displayed and a beautiful lighting of candles will take place. Family members and friends are asked to take part in carrying and placing candles. If you have lost loved ones or friends, at any time, even years ago, please join us, as prayer for the dead is one of the greatest acts of charity. Through our prayers, we help the faithful departed during their time in Purgatory, so they can enter into the fullness of Heaven. Fr. Kyle would like to have many people come to support those who are dealing with their recent loss and those whose loss is in the past. We help one another with our prayers and support.

If you offer the following prayer for a particular person, you can substitute "him" or "her" for "them."

Eternal Rest

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

They've done a lot of planning and work for this event and it will be a wonderful day!!

The cost is $35 dollars, with $15 being reimbursed to your CYO account if you register on time and attend. That cost includes a T-shirt to commemorate the day. The theme this year is "FEARLESS." If you have monies in your CYO account to cover the cost, you can elect to use those for registration for this event.
