Jeff Cavins is recognized both nationally and internationally as one of the most effective and engaging speakers in the Church today. Few can communicate their love for Jesus Christ with as much zeal, clarity, and enthusiasm as Jeff Cavins.

After twelve years as a Protestant pastor, Jeff returned to the Catholic Church under the guidance of Bishop Paul Dudley. His conversion story, one of the best known and inspiring stories of its kind, is chronicled in the best selling book, My Life on the Rock.

Over the past several decades, Jeff has dedicated his life to developing The Great Adventure: A Journey through the Bible, a practical, interactive program that helps people read the "big picture" of God's plan in Sacred Scripture and understand its meaning for their lives. The Great Adventure presents the entire sweep of the Bible in a way that is easy to understand and genuinely fun. Its unique Bible Timeline learning system has revolutionized Catholic Bible Study for hundreds of thousands of Catholics since 1995. Jeff received his MA in Theology from Franciscan University of Steubenville.

Jeff has been a leading figure in Catholic media for over two decades and has appeared as a guest or host on Catholic radio and television hundreds of times.

OLPH is very fortunate to welcome Jeff Cavins to our church on Saturday, March 9th for several talks throughout the day. More details to follow!

Saint of the Week

St. Blaise

Saint Blaise was the bishop of Sebastea and a doctor. The first known record of the saint's life comes from the medical writings of Aetius Amidenus, where he is recorded as helping with patients suffering from objects stuck in their throat. Many of the miraculous aspects of St. Blaise's life are written of 400 years after his martyrdom in the "Acts of St. Blaise."

Saint Blaise is believed to begin as a healer then, eventually, became a "physician of souls." People often turned to St. Blaise for healing miracles.

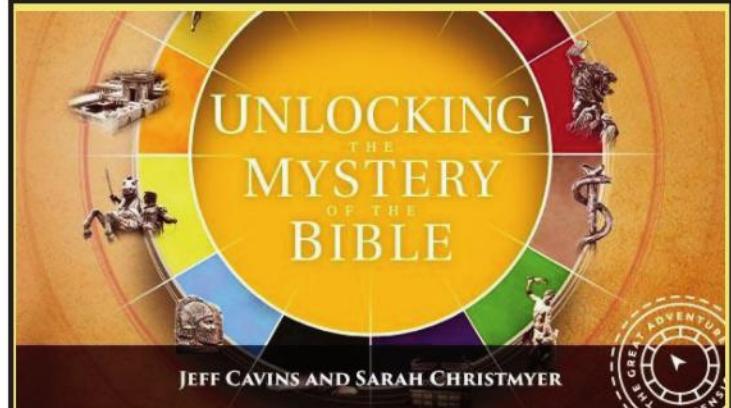

In 316, the governor of Cappadocia and of Lesser Armenia, Agricola, arrested then-bishop Blaise for being a Christian. On their way to the jail, a woman set her only son, who was choking to death on a fish bone, at his feet. Blaise cured the child, and though Agricola was amazed, he could not get Blaise to renounce his faith. Therefore, Agricola beat Blaise with a stick and tore at his flesh with iron combs before beheading him.

In another tale, Blaise was being led to the prison in Sebastea, and on the way came across a poor old woman whose pig had been stolen by a wolf. Blaise commanded the wolf return the pig, which it did -alive and uninjured- to the amazement of all. When he reached Sebastea, the woman came to him and brought two fine wax candles in an attempt to dispel the gloom of his darkened cell.

In the Middle Ages, Blaise became quite popular and his legend as a beast tamer spread. He was then referred to as the "saint of the wild beast."

Saint Blaise is often depicted holding two crossed candles in his hand, or in a cave with wild animals. He is also often shown with steel combs. The similarity of the steel combs and the wool combs made a large contribution to Saint Blaise's leadership as the patron saint of wool combers and the wool trade.

If you would like to have a deeper relationship with God and a better understanding of your faith, then join us for Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible. You will not only benefit personally from being part of this study; you will also help to bring about a profound renewal in our parish as we grow closer to Christ. OLPH will begin Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible with a Kickoff from Jeff Cavins when he visits OLPH on Saturday, March 9th. We will continue with the bible study on Wednesday evenings, 6:30—8:00 PM, beginning March 13th. For more information or to sign up, contact the church office at 504-394-0314 or churchoffice@olphbc.org.

Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible helps you uncover the story woven through Scripture with its clever narrative approach and ingenious color-coded Bible Timeline. It is a great way to get the "big picture" of the Bible and see how our Catholic Faith is rooted in Scripture. You'll see how the Bible reveals God's loving plan for your life, and you will learn helpful ways to put your faith into practice.

Prayer Spaces and Times

No matter the type or types of prayer you practice, it is important to deliberately schedule a time and place to pray each day. Consider morning prayers (a Christian song, with petitions for friends and people you have promised to pray for), a walk at lunch each day to quietly meditate on a scriptural quote, or time before bed to read quietly or pray some favorite prayers. A prayer space may be a corner of the breakfast table with a prayer book; rosary beads kept in a car ashtray; a candle, icon, or cross on a dresser near your bed; or a favorite chapel you can walk to or drive past each day. Remember, prayer is a discipline. It takes time to make it part of your daily routine. But the rewards are eternal.

Next Sunday is the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is. 6:1-2a, 3-8. Here I am! Send me.

1 Cor. 15:1-11. I preach what they preach, and this is what you believe.

Lk. 5:1-11. They left everything and followed him.

After prayerful discernment, it has been decided that Sunday, March 3, 2019 will be our last 7 PM Mass. This Mass was originally started to try to get more youth in attendance following our HSR classes. While this strategy worked for a brief amount of time that is no longer the case. Since it has begun, we have not seen an increase in attendance, but only a disbursement of our same weekend attendance. We hope that our regular attendees will find a home at one of our other scheduled Masses.

This year, both the school and PSR will be trying to memorize a scripture verse each month. All the verses have to do with the Gospel Value for this year "Inclusion". We invite the parishioners to join us in this effort. The verse for February is

"There is one lawgiver and judge, he who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you that you judge your neighbor." James 4:12
