MISSION STATEMENT

We, the Church of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, are a living and growing Catholic community of faith, striving to follow and serve Christ. We are an evangelizing community, and we welcome others to fullness of life in Christ. With Mary we say "Yes" to God's call to pray together, worship consciously, and serve joyfully.

NEW PARISHIONERS

We welcome you to a very friendly and enthusiastic community. Please fill out the information in the Binder on the Welcome Table located in the back of church or register at the Church Office. A Census Form can also be found on our website at www.olphbc.org.

Sacraments

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM: Baptisms are usually celebrated after any weekend Mass. Currently we only schedule one family at a time. Parents and godparents are required to attend a seminar prior to the Baptism. The seminar is usually held on the third Monday of the month at 7:00 p.m. in the Day Chapel in Church. More information and required forms can be found on our website.

SACRAMENT OF FIRST COMMUNION: First Eucharist is celebrated the first Saturday of May for students in the 2nd grade or above. Children older than 2nd grade will be prepared on individual situations. The Sacrament of Reconciliation must be celebrated prior to Communion.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION: Confirmation is celebrated in the Fall of 11th grade. Candidates who attend Catholic high school or are enrolled in the High School of Religion program come together for Sacramental preparation. All candidates are asked to pre-register in their freshmen year and no later than December of their 10th grade year. Information and registration can be found on our website: www.olphbc.org.

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE: Contact the Church Office at least nine months prior to the planned date. No other arrangements should be made before contacting the Church Office.

For more information on any of our Sacraments, contact C.C. Merritt in the Church Office or email cre@olphbc.org.

VISITATION OF THE SICK: Inform the Church Office when someone is sick, shut-in or hospitalized and unable to attend Mass.

FUNERALS: Inform the Church Office as soon as possible when someone in the family dies, preferably before contacting the funeral home.

Religious Education

The mission of OLPH's Religious Education program is to bring the "Good News" of God's love to all children and their families and to call them to commit their lives to Christ. Religious Education is available for children in Kindergarten through adults. We encourage parents to be parishioners of OLPH when registering students for Religious Education classes. Census forms can be obtained from the Parish Office during regular business hours, in the gathering area of the church or you can register online. Call C.C. Merritt, 504-394-0314, or email cre@olphbc.org for more information.

SUNDAY LITURGY OF THE WORD: Children in grades K-2nd are invited with a catechist during 11:00 a.m. Mass to the Day Chapel for the Liturgy of the Word for Children (September-May). A summary of the readings of the day is discussed on their level.

PARISH SCHOOL OF RELIGION: Our PSR program is divided in two parts. Family Faith Formation is the "academic" part with the textbook discussed at home as a family. Our Encountering Engaging Events are a chance to come together as a community to worship together, do crafts, or engage in traditional events like our Nativity Play and Living Way of the Cross.

HIGH SCHOOL OF RELIGION: Students in 9th through 12th grade not attending a Catholic High School are offered Faith Formation with academics at home, working at their own pace, but also some time to get together to discuss what they have learned with their peers about three times a year. It is intended to be an informal study with honest Catholic answers.

RCIA: Are you or someone you know interested in becoming Catholic or completing Sacraments? Please join our RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). We have a Year-Round RCIA process that you can enter into whenever you are ready. This is for you if you have never been baptized, if you have been baptized into another denomination and now want to become Catholic, or if you are an adult Catholic but have never been confirmed. Sessions will be held in person on Tuesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. (day and time can be adjusted to personal schedules). For additional information and to register, contact C. C. Merritt in the Church Office or email at cre@olphbc.org.

Bible Verses for the Year!

KINDNESS - March

"Love is patient, love is kind." 1 Corinthians 13:4

Catholicism: Faith Seeking Understanding

In this year long theological, biblical, spiritual, and moral adventure, the Truth, Beauty, and Goodness of the Catholic Tradition will unfold. This journey into the richness of Catholicism is open to ALL: those well-versed in Catholicism; the newly arrived; those returning to their home of Faith; and to those who are curious and skeptical.

Catholicism is a UNIVERSAL, ever-expanding Canopy under which faith and reason; the everyday and the eternal; and the mystery and revelation of God's love become the foundation of our daily lives.

Starting Date:
Thursday, April 4, 2024

Time: 7:00 PM

Where: KC Hall, 9016
Highway 23, Belle Chasse

Presenter: Fr. Maestri

ALL are welcomed.

Please bring your Bible and the updated Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Sponsored by OLP, Educational Ministry.

Newly Baptized In Christ

OLPH would like to welcome our new parishioner that was Baptized in February. Lyla Gayle Mancuso, child of Jordan and Matthew Mancuso.

The annual KC Easter Egg Hunt will be on Easter Sunday morning, March 31, 2024 behind the church. It will take place between the 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Masses, about 10:15 a.m. All of the children of the community are invited. Please bring a bag or basket for the kids.

NOTE: Volunteers are needed to help set up. If interested, please call the church office.

Palms Donation

If you are interested in donating palms for Palm Sunday, please bring cleaned palms to the back of church on Thursday, March 21, 2024.

The Dynamic of the Grain of Wheat

Have you ever noticed how the Scriptures are filled with people just like ourselves whose lives take unexpected turns and then blossom in ways that can only be described as flourishing in and for the Kingdom of God. Take Jacob. His "before" was manipulating his father's blessing from his brother Esau and then serving his uncle Laban for many years, eventually marrying his daughters Leah and Rachel. His "after" was being the patriarch of the twelve tribes of Israel who escaped from Egypt, received the Law, and were chosen by God to be his covenant people. To this day, we can read in Revelation 21 that on the twelve gates that belong to the New Jerusalem are written the names of the twelve tribes of Israel. The New Jerusalem itself sits on twelve foundations representing the twelve apostles who would reign over the twelve tribes of Israel.

Take Moses. His "before" was the life of Pharaoh's daughter's adopted son in Egypt. We all know the story. His "after" was the fulfillment of God's call to be the leader of his people to the Promised Land. Even now, the Christian understanding of the Paschal Mystery is rooted in the Exodus narrative.

Between the "before" and the "after" of each of these biblical figures there is a point of struggle and epiphany. When Jesus says that the grain of wheat must fall to the ground and die if it is to be more than just a single grain, if it is to bear fruit, Jesus is talking about just this dynamic which plays out also in our own lives. Who we think we are, who we discover ourselves to be as we grow up and mature and try to figure out life, all this eventually needs to give way to the fullness of the way God lifts our lives up into his mighty and eternal plan. We each have a role to play in God's Kingdom. We each have a mission in life. We were each created for a purpose. It is in those "hinge" seasons of our lives between the "before" and "after" in which we feel the weight and sorrow of the grain of wheat dying. If you are in one of those "hinge" moments, know that this is one way God raises you up to bring you closer to the fullness of life and his glory. By Sr. Kathryn James Hermes

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Straight Talk

by: Father William Maestri

The Red Zone

Now that the Super Bowl is resting in the archives of the National Football League, a brief prayer for the football fanatics suffering with withdrawal is in order. Even though the gridiron gives way to the green grass of the diamond, a key football term lingers on and can be used as a metaphor in these closing days of Lent. Specifically, it is the area extending from the 20-yard line to the goal line - the Red Zone. What happens within these rectangles often separates winners from losers, and the Hall of Famers from retirees with Sunday glory past. Sports can be cruel and fickle.

The Sacred Red Zone during Lent (SRZL), is not a measure of turf, but a circle on the calendar, not space, but time is the focus. The Red Zone of Lent (RZL) signals us that the holy city of Jerusalem is in sight. Jesus' rendezvous with the baptism and cup given by the Father are upon him (Mk 10: 38-45), and they are to be shared by those who follow him. It is "the hour" for which he came into the world (Jn 11: 20-36). It is also the hour "when the power of darkness reigns" (Lk 22: 53). The combatants will engage in that cosmic conflict of the Kingdoms: the reign of God against the slavery to Satan; Light versus Darkness; Eternal Life or Death (Jn 8: 34). Such is not a Super Bowl, but a supernatural show down, at once in history and yet reaches into eternity.

The approaching battle is one in which the "thoughts of many hearts will be revealed" (Lk 2: 35). For the Red Zone of Holy Week will bring to light what often remains hidden: hypocrisy and truth; love and fear; deception and honesty; betrayal and fidelity; denial and steadiness; abandonment and loyalty; cowardliness and courage; and the Victory of Life over Death.

The drama of the RZL is not played out in a stadium dressed with the pageantry of marching bands, tailgating, packed stands, and a flood of media. Rather, RZL takes place in a garden, a rented house, the corridors of religious and political power, a path lined with onlookers - the curious, sorrowful, compassionate and the guardians of law and order. Each will play a part as the three o'clock hour approaches, the hour when the Pass-over lamb is slaughtered in the Temple, and the Lamb who takes away the sins of the world is sacrificed on a hill, upon a Cross (Jn 1: 29).

We are not bystanders who simply observe but play no part. This hour draws us to be in communion with the Suffering Servant by whose "wounds we were healed" (Isa 53: 5). It is at that "Place of the Skull" (Golgotha, Mt 27: 33), that Satan is most determined to achieve the victory which seemed to be his at Eden (Ge 3: 1-7). It is also the hour when "Satan has demanded to sift all of you [all disciples of Jesus] like wheat" (Lk 22: 31). However, Jesus has "prayed that your own faith may not fail" (Lk 22: 32) and Jesus also prays "for those who will believe in me through their word" (Jn 17: 20). Jesus' prayer for us is heard by the Father: "We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life." (Rom 6:4).

The assault by Satan, "the most cunning of all the wild animals" (Gen 3: 1), comes on cat paws - stealth and sly - hidden in the little impulses of doubt, the small compromises to our Lenten practices, and the laxity in our discipleship. However, the cumulative effect can erode our fidelity to the Savior.

If we are to resist entrance into Satan's Death Zone, if we are to be one with the Blessed Mother and the Beloved Disciple at the foot of the cross (Jn 19: 25-27), if we are to proclaim, "Death is swallowed up in victory" (Hb 2: 14-15, 1 Cr 15: 54-55), and if we are to profess, "through him was life...this life was the light of the human race...the darkness has not overcome it." (Jn 1: 3-5), then we must be "sober and vigilant...steadfast in faith...the devil is prowling around like a roaring lion...[but] Christ will himself...strengthen, and establish you" (2 Pt 5: 8-11).

With due respect to Notre Dame, "Touchdown Jesus" takes on a deeper meaning!
