Carlo Acutis Eucharistic Miracles Exhibit

St. Joseph Parish invites you to explore the miraculous through the Eucharistic Miracles Exhibition, November 5 –17.

The exhibition highlights an extensive collection of photographs and records of Eucharistic miracles throughout the world and through history. Participants are invited to deepen their understanding of the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, draw closer to God through these displays of His intense love, and even examine where faith meets modern science. The event is free, family friendly, and open to all! Invite your neighbors, and friends to experience the exhibit with you! We are very excited to host this wonderful event and are looking forward to seeing you there!

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Seeking Wisdom

I think if any of us were asked the question, “Do you love wisdom? Do you seek wisdom?” we would, at first, be a little taken aback. And then we would answer quickly “Of course!” with absolutely no doubt in our minds.

But a different way of asking the question is this: “Are you making wise choices?” That’s a question that would put a fair few of us on the back foot.

The virgins who went out to meet the bridegroom were all the same. They had the exact same intentions. They had the exact same stamina, or lack of it. They had the exact same knowledge of the night being dark and lamps being necessary. What made five foolish, and five wise?

It was their choices. Only their choices set them apart.

We may rely upon the wisdom of another — the parent who reminds us to go to confession, the friend who demurs when we start speaking gossip, the priest who preaches boldly from the pulpit against an injustice we lack the courage to denounce ourselves. But even if we feel safeguarded by their good influence, their wisdom won’t save us.

We may possess a little wisdom ourselves — we may know well that a dark night is hard to navigate, and that we need the assistance of a lamp. We may go to Mass once in a while, read the Bible when we have time and serve others when it’s convenient.

But a lamp needs oil to burn in the darkness, just as wisdom requires action to be brought forth into the world.

We may love God just as much as we should — our flesh may pine, our soul may thirst. But a parched field never brought rain on itself just by being dry. We must make the choice.

“Thus will I bless you while I live; lifting up my hands, I will call upon your name.” — Psalm 63:4

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Lately I’ve been enjoying the deep meaning of Eastern icons. I love how they express a tapestry of meaning in a way that can surpass the written or spoken word. Today’s parable of the ten virgins from Jesus is a good example. Try googling “wise and foolish virgins icon” and you’ll see an image of how our Christ meets our heart’s deepest needs if we attend to him with the proper attitude.

I’m serious. Take a moment to google and look at it. See how it depicts the risen Jesus behind a closed door with the five wise virgins with lighted lamps. He gazes with them toward the five foolish and lamp-less virgins, symbolizing the outward looking of divine love for the lost. Moreover, the wedding feast is no ordinary one. It takes place in a walled city and garden, indicating it’s a new Jerusalem and a return to Eden. The table isn’t typical, either. It’s a Eucharistic feast. Now we see that the door in Jesus’ parable is the way into the church, where Christ is the new light burning amidst the dark midnight of this world.

The richness continues. We notice, too, that the foolish virgins look exactly the same as the wise ones in their clothes, hair, and expressions. The only difference is they departed to buy oil and now they are sadly excluded. We often act like consumers in the marketplace to fulfill our need for love and mercy. We’ll always end up disappointed if we shop around. Jesus sums up the moral of the story this way: “Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.” Watch, remain, don’t spiritually shop. It is always better to quietly remain close to the Eucharistic community of the Church, even if we feel like our oil has run out. This week let’s consider placing the icon of the wise and foolish virgins on our phone lock screen or computer desktop to help us remember to stay close to him, especially when life feels dark. — Father John Muir

A CHALLENGING TRUTH TO SWALLOW
Every sign that God gives us says ... BELIEVE!

Speaker: Trapper Jack

After 30 years away from the Church, it was Blessed Mother Mary who brought blind radio host, Trapper Jack, back.

A series of miraculous encounters re-ignited his faith and now fuel his inspirational talks.

Since departing secular radio, Trapper has used his microphone to share his faith through uplifting presentations, the Touched by Heaven podcast, and Men's Morning Light on YouTube.

Friday, November 17, 7:00 PM

200 St. Joseph Drive, Amherst, OH 44001

Join us at Nativity and St. Joseph Parishes for two evenings of Praise and Worship following our days of Eucharistic Adoration.

At Nativity Parish on Tuesday, November 14th Christina Dupré and the band Sanctuary will present XLT (contemporary worship and praise music) at 7:00pm to close the time of Adoration followed with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and Closing with Father Tim.

At St Joseph Parish on Friday, November 17th the day of Adoration will conclude with Taizé Vespers presented by St. Joseph and St. Peter music ministries, and a very moving presentation of :

"Eucharist, a Challenging Truth to Swallow"

by former radio host Trapper Jack.
Father Tim will again conclude the day of Adoration with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and Closing.

We look forward to hosting these events in conjunction with our presentation of the Eucharistic Miracles Exhibition and we look forward to seeing you there.
