

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

JULY 26, 2020

From the priests' desks:

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Sacred Heart:

Our readings for today are all about choices. In the first reading (1 Kgs. 3:5, 7-12) King Solomon was invited by God to choose anything he wanted, and he would receive it. We are told that instead of riches, or long life, or getting rid of his enemies—the logical things any person might wish for—Solomon chose to ask instead for a wise and understanding heart that he might be able to distinguish right from wrong and so to properly fulfill his duties as king of Israel. We are further told that God was pleased with his choice and granted him not only what he asked for but even those things for which he did not ask, making him one of the most famous kings in history.

Our Gospel (Mt. 13:44-52) adds another dimension to the challenge of choosing, for it forcefully suggests something that we certainly already know: that the really valuable things in life are not always easily obtainable, but that they are worth the price we have to pay to get them. The person who found the buried treasure, the merchant who found a valuable pearl, each had to sacrifice what was less important in order to acquire what he or she really wanted. They made the sacrifice without hesitation and without regrets. Of course, from Jesus' point of view in the parables, both the pearl and the treasure represent faith—something which is never simply handed to us, something that doesn't just fall into our laps, but rather something we have to seek out, to discover through our own efforts, even though—as today's second reading (Rom. 8:28-30) reminds us—the grace of God accompanies us, always urging us on, always inviting and challenging us to knock, to seek, and to find. St. Augustine says in one of his most well-known prayers: "You have made us, Lord, for yourself and our hearts are restless until they rest in you." The problem is that sometimes we settle for second best, or we give up because the going gets too rough. Or perhaps we lose our way and accept an illusion instead of the reality. This is the essence of idolatry: Accepting a cheap substitute for the real thing or, as the Old Testament says so often, to embrace an image of gold or silver, wood or stone in place of the living God.

Faith, of course, is an invitation and a challenge to consider the reality of God and the will of God as factors that should ultimately influence all our decisions. Our decision—our choice—to be present in prayer (in person or at home) this weekend at Sacred Heart, to take time to listen to the Word of God, to receive the Eucharist with gratitude, to renew our friendship with God and with one another, hopefully was not simply a mechanical one or a grudging one, but rather a decision based on a felt need to maintain and strengthen our connectedness, our bond, with the One who has given us our life, our freedom, and the motivation to say "Yes" to embracing values that will fulfill not just our present lives but our future hopes as well. In the midst of our sadness over the closing of Sacred Heart School, and the heartache it has caused to so many, may we at the same time rejoice with the children who are receiving their First Holy Communion this weekend and the second weekend of August; may they and their families receiving blessings from our Eucharistic Lord! And may this God of our faith and hope continue to inspire all of us to make wise decisions, life-giving decisions, decisions that will lead all of us to true and lasting happiness.

Although permission has been granted for Church's to go to 50%, here at Sacred Heart we feel due to the layout of the building we would be unable to maintain the 6ft. distance still required for safety, so we are keeping our current seating arrangement but will now also have the Mass live streamed into the gym where social distancing can be maintained and more of our parishioners can attend Mass feeling more confident that no further exposure with increased numbers of people attending Mass. Communion will be brought to the gym.

Please remember, that because of the ongoing health crisis, the Cardinal has dispensed everyone from the Sunday Mass obligation, so if you are uncomfortable about being with a group, watching Mass and a spiritual communion is still in effect. Please observe the following when planning to attend:

+ If any member of your household has a fever, or is feeling ill, please remain at home.

+ If you have any pre-existing health conditions, you should remain at home at this phase.

+ Pews have been premeasured for seating with appropriate 6' social distancing in-between. Members of the same household may sit together. Available seating is marked with a green X.

+ Since seats will be filled-in as people arrive, there will be no choice of seating location.

+ Facial coverings (masks) must be worn to Mass.

+ To avoid contact, there will be no offertory procession or exchange of peace during the Mass.

+ The Sacred Host will be distributed in the hand only. For those who feel that receiving in the hand is unacceptable we ask that you wait to receive until the celebrant asks those who wish to receive on the tongue come forward.
