

3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

APRIL 18, 2021

FROM OUR PRIESTS' DESKS

Dear sisters and brothers of Sacred Heart:

It was no accident that the very first word spoken by the Risen Jesus to his disciples on that first Easter Sunday was the word Shalom . . . Peace! (Lk 24:35-48) It was the word they needed to hear more than anything else; a word meant not only to calm their fear ["Are we seeing a ghost?!"], but also to relieve their guilt and their shame: for these men had pledged to remain with Jesus always, and yet they had abandoned him in his moment of supreme need; they had stated loudly and clearly that they would, if necessary, lay down their lives for the master, and then had denied they even knew him. Could they ever make amends, could they ever undo the harm and the hurt they had caused? . . . Probably not in a million years. But the Lord's word of Peace meant that all was forgiven—that the one who had once said that forgiveness should be offered not seven times but seventy times seven, was the first to show that he meant what he said, the first to practice what he preached. He excused them as he had excused his enemies on the cross: "Father, forgive them for they know not what they are doing." Forgiveness, then, involves compassion—a realization of the inherent weakness of human nature, a weakness which we can understand and even excuse, because we share in it and stand in need of forgiveness.

So, in forgiving the disciples, Jesus commanded that they now be ready to forgive others: that penance for the remission of sins was to be preached to all the nations . . . That the apostles were able to learn this hard lesson is clear from our first reading today (Acts 3: 13-19). Even while Peter accuses his listeners of having put to death the author of life he adds: "Now I know, my brothers, that you acted out of ignorance." The fact that he calls them "brothers" indicates a kinship of need—the crowd had asked for Jesus to be crucified; Peter had denied him three times—all are in need of forgiveness.

Hopefully, we have all come here today because we know that we also stand in need of the forgiveness, the strength, the peace that can only come to us through God's grace, a grace that is freely offered to us when we lift our minds and hearts in genuine and humble prayer. It was this same grace that touched and transformed that very human group of apostles gathered at table on the first Easter Sunday, convincing them that Jesus was indeed not a ghost, but truly the power and love of God made visible and personal, freely bestowing on them the hope and the reality of eternal life . . . Each day the God of Jesus Christ offers us this same gift: whenever we listen with faith to the Scriptures; whenever we break the bread of the Eucharist with true devotion; whenever we assemble in community and strive to be one in mind and heart; whenever we give ourselves generously to the service of others, Jesus is there among us, quietly but powerfully speaking his word of life to us: Peace be with you. Do not be afraid: it is I, your Lord and Savior. Abide in me; believe in me; find your source of strength in me.

*Jesus, during Your ministry on Earth
You showed Your power and caring by healing people of all ages and stations of life from physical, mental, and spiritual ailments.
Be present now to people who need
Your loving touch because of COVID-19.
May they feel Your power of healing through the care of doctors and nurses.*

*Take away the fear, anxiety, and feelings of isolation from people receiving treatment or under quarantine. Give them a sense of purpose in pursuing health and protecting others from exposure to the disease.
Protect their families and friends and bring peace to all who love them.
Amen.*

SISTERS OF LIFE

Providing Life-affirming choices for women: Here in the Archdiocese of New York, there are many resources that provide women facing unplanned pregnancies with alternatives to abortion. If you know someone who is struggling, please urge them to contact: www.visitationcenterus.org or call (877)777-1277.

"Have you suffered an abortion?" Experience God's love and mercy and begin the journey of healing.
