

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT 2024

MARCH 10, 2024

FROM OUR PRIESTS' DESKS:

Dear brothers and sisters of Sacred Heart,

Today's Gospel of John...One of the most familiar sentences that Jesus has given to us: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son"- Athlete Tim Tebow always comes to my mind when I read those words spoken by The Lord- Painted on Tim's face in sports' competitions & painted on many other faces of people of various occupations...Well-known ones and not so well-known ones...Thank you, Lord.

What stands out for me in this passage is at the beginning of its words: "Jesus said to Nicodemus"-

Nicodemus...A good man, a devout Jewish man, a leader, a man of prominence, a man of dignity...Yet, a man that conversed with Jesus "at night". Didn't want to be "seen" by his contemporaries- Out of fear of harming his reputation? After all, this Jesus was a menace to the "leaders, teachers, scholars" at the time of Jesus's ministry...Question for all of us: Are we sometimes fearful as Nicodemus was?

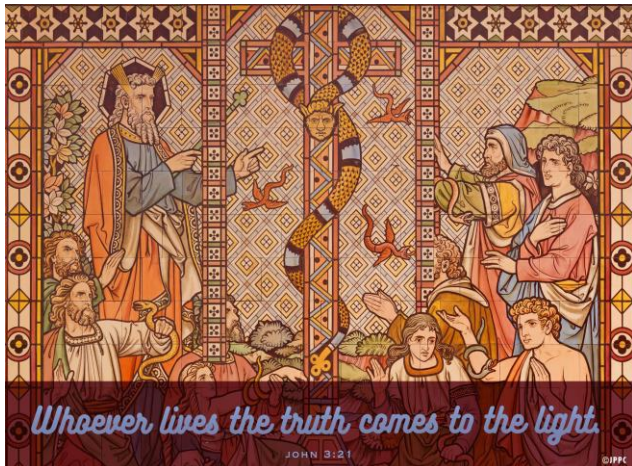

"God so loved the world that he gave His only Son"...We must always let that sink in and never be afraid to express that truth both at nighttime and in daylight.

God blesses us all!

Fr. Michael Rafferty, OAR, Pastor

Fr. John Gruben, OAR

Fr. Eric Crelencia, OAR

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exult and be satisfied at her consoling breast.

Responsorial Psalm:

Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!

By the streams of Babylon we sat and wept when we remembered Zion. On the aspens of the land we hung up our harps.

Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!

May my tongue cleave to my palate if I remember you not, if I place not Jerusalem ahead of my joy.
