FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Turning Point

Dr. David Jeremiah/January 6, 2022

"Snowstorms and Blenders"

Discipline your children, and they will give you peace; they will bring you the delights you desire.

Proverbs 29:17, NIV

Phyllis Diller once said, "Cleaning your house while your kids are still growing up is like shoveling the sidewalk before it stops snowing." In the same vein, Jerry Seinfeld said, "Having a two-year-old is like having a blender, but you don't have a top for it."

Parenting has its sweet moments—it's what we live for!—but between them are some messes. That's why parents are responsible for using such times to create self-discipline in the lives of their children. Newborns have no self-discipline at all. They cry when they want; go to the bathroom when they want; sleep when they want. We aren't born with self-control, but we are born with the capacity to learn to manage our habits and emotions. When we discipline our children, our goal is to teach them self-discipline.

As a parent raising children, at times it seems as if we are constantly repeating ourselves working toward the goal of obedience. Remember, God does the same with us if we will only listen. Let's teach our children the important habits of self-control as we continue to learn the same from our Heavenly Father.

Educate your children to self-control...and you have done much to abolish misery from their future."

Daniel Webster

PONDERINGS FROM FATHER BILL

Self-control is easier said than done. My disciplining has to do with pets, dogs and cats not the gerbils, rather than children. They are amazing creatures who quickly forget the times they are yelled at, unlike humans who may cancel many years of friendship on the spot. They can jump on me or something else at the worst time, often spilling or breaking the item, but their eyes seem to plead for mercy the moment it happens. Cats cannot be trained, as they have an uncanny attitude of doing it their way ("My Way" by Frank Sinatra). Who knows what is going through their head - probably when is more food being put into their bowl. Thankfully they are disciplined about using the litter box, however, dogs are another matter, where there can be measured success with discipline. The four have the walking routine down pat, even the blind Petey whose internal radar knows what turn is next based on experience and instinct. Lassie, the Shetland Collie, has been trained to sit and extend his paw in anticipation of a treat. Why do I discipline and guide them, with the help of friends? It's because they are loved, and I want them to be safe with a long life. Humans and pets alike face the eventual Rainbow Bridge, with Heaven awaiting us one and all. Even Pope Francis said that bridge is in accord with Church teachings. This is how God approaches each of us in the wide pool of humanity - creating, inspiring, educating, disciplining, forgiving, and welcoming to our final destination of Eternity with Him.

TODAY

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I: Jeremiah 1: 4-5, 17-19

After Jeremiah, it became a generally accepted idea that God Himself forms the young child in its mother's womb. A personal God thus knows us personally as well.

Reading II: I Corinthians 12: 31 – 13: 13, or I Cor. 13: 4-13

The immortal description of true love as understood by God. Most popular among the choices for Readings proclaimed at Nuptial Masses.

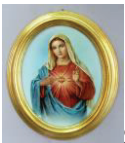

The Gospel: Luke 4: 21-30 "Today" in this context meant for all time, not just the historical time of Jesus' earthly life. Jesus becomes the "rejected prophet."

Please remember the following members of the armed service in your prayers.

LATEST GUIDELINES FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE

To ensure our people recognized that their safety is our paramount concern, the following practices are also in place:

- Parish office staff and visitors should wear masks at all time.
- All parishioners are to wear masks while in church.
- Presiders and deacons take note: do not invite the faithful to exchange the sign of peace; and avoid any physical contact.
- Concelebrants will communicate from the chalice by intinction only.
- The Precious Blood will not be offered to the faithful.
- Communicants to receive in the open hand.
- The use of hand sanitizer before and after the distribution of communion is a prudent practice.
- Individual 'blessings' of children and adults is to be discouraged.
- Holy water and baptismal fonts should still remain empty.

We will monitor the situation and review all safety protocols as the situation develops.

Thank you for your continued cooperation in this matter and may God Bless us all.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you,
we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavingly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father, Amen.

Council of Nicea 325AD

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

“You are called to by holy where you are, wherever God has put you, right now.”
