Why living forever on earth is a bad idea

Aleteia / Philip Kosloski / April 20, 2022

"An extra-long life on earth cannot be compared to what awaits us in Heaven.

Many in the tech world are looking for cures for old age. They want to live forever on earth, prolonging their life past 100 years.

Pope Benedict XVI questions this quest for "immortality" in a homily for Easter in 2010.

Man's resistance to death becomes evident: somewhere – people have constantly thought – there must be some cure for death. Sooner or later it should be possible to find the remedy not only for this or that illness, but for our ultimate destiny – for death itself. Surely the medicine of immortality must exist. Today too, the search for a source of healing continues. Modern medical science strives, if not exactly to exclude death, at least to eliminate as many as possible of its causes, to postpone it further and further, to prolong life more and more. But let us reflect for a moment: what would it really be like if we were to succeed, perhaps not in excluding death totally, but in postponing it indefinitely, in reaching an age of several hundred years? Would that be a good thing? He then goes on to explain why living on earth for a long time is a bad idea.

Humanity would become extraordinarily old, there would be no more room for youth. Capacity for innovation would die, and endless life would be no paradise, if anything a condemnation. The true cure for death must be different. It cannot lead simply to an indefinite prolongation of this current life. Living forever on this earth would essentially prolong all the bad things about being human, such as suffering, war, violence and anxiety. People would become even more entrenched in their viewpoints and wars would go on for centuries with the same leaders. Totalitarians would reign over their countries for generations and generations. Instead, the solution, as Pope Benedict explains, is a "new" life.

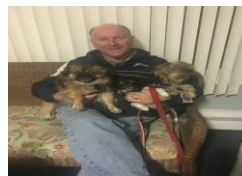

It would have to transform our lives from within. It would need to create a new life within us, truly fit for eternity: it would need to transform us in such a way as not to come to an end with death, but only then to begin in fullness. What is new and exciting in the Christian message, in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, was and is that we are told: yes indeed, this cure for death, this true medicine of immortality, does exist. It has been found. It is within our reach. In baptism, this medicine is given to us. A new life begins in us, a life that matures in faith and is not extinguished by the death of the old life, but is only then fully revealed ... Indeed, the cure for death does exist. Christ is the tree of life, once more within our reach. If we remain close to him, then we have life.

If we want to "live forever," we need to go to the true "tree of life," Jesus Christ, who opens to us a realm of immortality that is life-giving. Life in Heaven will be nothing like life on earth. It will be a place without tears, wars, violence or anxiety.

It is a place of everlasting peace, not simply a prolongation of our wounded earth."

PONDERINGS FROM FATHER BILL

After seven years of pastoral service for Saint Francis of Assisi and Sacred Heart, with the further inspiration of Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta, it is time to say either goodbye or until we meet again. When a priest leaves a parish it is bittersweet and eager for new horizons, but the departure from familiar faces is much like what workers go through when retiring from a company. However, a priest has deep spiritual bonds often rooted in baptisms or weddings- even funerals and counsel. There is an anxiety at the prospect of this separation. In 1962 movie director Leo McCarey (" Bells of Saint Mary's " from 1945) produced his final film, "Satan Never Sleeps" starring the legendary actors Clifton Webb and William Holden. The two played a pastor and an associate priest. Holden plays Father O'Banyon, who is in China on the eve of the Communist Revolution in 1949. He rescues a young woman from the spring floods, which according to Chinese traditions meant he was now responsible for her life. Without getting into too much detail, there is an incredibly emotional scene where she asks him: "Father, is there any sadder word than goodbye? The response of the deeply moved priest is "No, but sometimes it needs to be said." A number of years ago I wrote to that actress France Nuyen, describing the power of that movie and particular scene with regard to my future path. She wrote me not just a touching letter, but an autographed photo of that part of the film inscribed to me. In my mind, that verbal exchange between priest and parishioner is an appropriate way to verbally draw the stage curtain on our time together in the parish. I will either see you in Heaven, after the Lord forgives me my sins, or in person on this challenging yet strangely beautiful road we call life. God bless and inspire you throughout these paths. Father Bill

TODAY
Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I: I Kings 19: 16b, 19-21

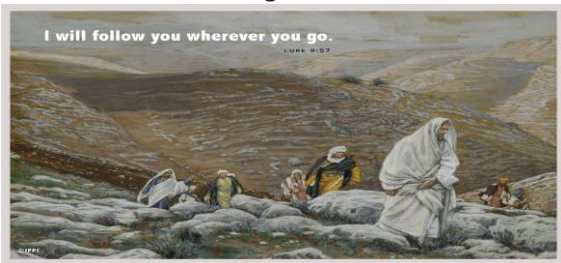

Elijah starts his journey home only to meet his eventual successor Elisha. Elisha then abandons the companionship of his parents and easy access to food, ready to follow Elijah as his mentor.

Reading II: Galatians 5: 1, 13-18

The freedom Christ offers us is not to be confused with license. It is instead freedom from the law and all its material observances.

The Gospel: Luke 9: 51-62

There is cost attached to discipleship. Jesus uses hyperbole contained in the two proverbs He cites to get His listeners' attention. The cost is our taking on a totally new outlook on life, paired with an authentic detachment from the goods of the world.

OUR ANIMAL LOVERS ARE "PAWSITIVELY" AMAZING!!

The Supporters of our Little Furry Ministry comes through again!

Thanks to the combined generosity of St. Mother Teresa Parish's two churches, $1,051 in addition to another car load of pet food, pet toys, pet bedding, and cleaning supplies have been collected to help support the Hudson Valley Animal Rescue & Sanctuary.

Fr. Bill started this "Little Furry Ministry" in 2016 and because of your faithful generosity it has been a success beyond his expectations and is still going strong.....ALL BECAUSE OF YOU!

Your support immensely helps the HVARs in its' efforts in helping homeless animals and rescuing hurt wild animals that get released back into their own environment once they are healed.

THANK YOU SO MUCH to all the generous and faithful supporters of this Little Furry Ministry.

God Bless You All

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father, Amen.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

COUNCIL OF NICEA 325AD/NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

The St. Vincent de Paul Society operates a Baby Outreach Center every Tuesday morning in the basement of Sacred Heart School. We welcome donations of baby items, especially size 5 and 6 diapers. Items may be brought to the Baby Center or left in the rear of the church.
