

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

April 29, 2018

Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing.... If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you. By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples." John 15:5, 7-8

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD A Holy Day of Obligation

We celebrate the Ascension of the Lord on Thursday, May 10th. It is a holy day of obligation. Mass for the Ascension will be celebrated at Our Lady of Loretto Church on:

Wednesday, May 9th at 5:00 pm
Thursday, May 10th at 8:15 am and 7:30 pm

The Catholic Catechism summarizes three important theological aspects of the Ascension concisely:

- Christ's Ascension marks the definitive entrance of Jesus' humanity into God's heavenly domain, whence he will come again (cf. Acts 1:11); this humanity in the meantime hides him from the eyes of men (cf. Col 3:3).
- Jesus Christ, the head of the Church, precedes us into the Father's glorious kingdom so that we, the members of his Body, may live in the hope of one day being with him for ever.
- Jesus Christ, having entered the sanctuary of heaven once and for all, intercedes constantly for us as the mediator who assures us of the permanent outpouring of the Holy Spirit (665-667).

A REASON TO SWITCH OFF THE CELL PHONES

The human loves we experience in our families and with our friends are only a pointer to the Divine Love that Jesus Christ brings. To find that love is a great adventure and a glorious quest. The reason to switch off the cell phones, close the laptop, turn off the TV, and blank the tablet screen is not because they are evil, but because there exists a greater good. – Father Dwight Longenecker

A PRAYER TO SAINT JOSEPH THE WORKER

Feast Day: May 1st

O Glorious Saint Joseph, model of all those who are devoted to labor, obtain for me the grace to work conscientiously, putting the call of duty above my natural inclinations, to work with gratitude and joy, in a spirit of penance for the remission of my sins, considering it an honor to employ and develop by means of labor the gifts received from God, to work with order, peace, moderation and patience, without ever shrinking from weariness and difficulties, to work above all with purity of intention and detachment from self, having always death before my eyes and the account that I must render of time lost, of talents wasted, of good omitted, of vain complacency in success, so fatal to the work of God.

All for Jesus, all through Mary, all after thine example, O Patriarch, Saint Joseph. Such shall be my watch-word in life and in death. – Composed by Saint Pius X

CHRISTIANS MUST HELP OTHERS MEET JESUS, POPE FRANCIS SAYS

Vatican City, Apr 21, 2018 – The Catholic News Agency and EWTN News reported that Pope Francis said that Christians are called to a mission of leading others to an encounter with Jesus Christ, in order that every person might grow in his or her individual call to holiness.

"The men and women of our time need to meet Jesus Christ: He is the path that leads to the Father; He is the Gospel of hope and love that enables us to go as far as giving ourselves," the pope said. "It is a matter of carrying out an itinerary of holiness to respond courageously to the call of Jesus, each according to his own particular charism."

Quoting from 1 Thessalonians 4:13, Pope Francis said: "For a Christian it is not possible to think of his mission on earth without understanding it as a path of holiness, because 'this is in fact the will of God, your sanctification.'"

This is our mission, he continued. It requires responsibility and joy, generous availability, self-denial, and "trustful abandonment to the divine will."

Quoting from his recent apostolic exhortation Gaudete et exsultate, the pope also spoke about the important role of the Eucharist in helping to transform Catholics "into a holy and missionary community."

The Eucharist, he said, means "thanksgiving" and makes us feel the need for thanksgiving. "It makes us understand that 'we are more blessed in giving than in receiving' (Acts 20:35), educates us to give primacy to love, and practice justice in its complete form, which is mercy; to know to give thanks always, even when we receive what is due to us."

The pope encouraged Christians to proclaim the call to holiness in their communities, since it concerns "every baptized person and every condition of life."

"In holiness consists the full realization of every aspiration of the human heart. It is a journey that starts from the baptismal font and leads up to Heaven and is carried out day by day by accepting the Gospel in concrete life," he said.

MAY IS MARY'S MONTH

Ten ways to honor Mary during her month and thereafter

Attend daily Mass

Pray the Rosary daily, and as a family when possible

Adore her Son at Eucharistic Adoration, Monday nights at Our Lady of Loretto, 7:00 to 8:00 pm

Pray the Regina Coeli during the Easter season (and the Angelus after the season ends) at Noon and 6 pm

Sing popular Marian hymns such as "Immaculate Mary"
each evening as a family

Pray to our Merciful Mother... pray the Salve Regina
(Hail Holy Queen) daily

Read True Devotion to Mary by Saint Louis de Montfort or 33 Days to Morning Glory by Father Gaitley...

Then consecrate yourself to Mary

Attend the May Crowning at Our Lady of Loretto,
8:30 am Mass on Sunday, May 13th...

Then crown all of the statues of Mary in your house and adorn her with flowers
