Prayer for Priests

*Eternal Father,
we lift up to you
our wonderful priests
and all the clergy
in the world who serve you in their ministry.

Sanctify them.
Heal them; guide them.
Mold them into the likeness and holiness
of Your Son, Jesus,
the Eternal High Priest.

May their lives be pleasing to You.
In Jesus' name we pray.

Amen.*

Blessing of a Christmas Tree

Leader: Let us glorify Christ our light, who brings salvation and peace into our midst, now and forever. Amen.
Christ Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea: his birth brings joy to our hearts and enlightenment to our minds. With this tree, decorated and adorned, may we welcome Christ among us; may its lights guide us to the perfect light. Amen.

Reading: Letter of St Paul to Titus 3:4-7

-Let us ask God to send his blessing upon us and upon this sign of our faith in the Lord. R. Lord, give light to our hearts
-That this tree of lights may remind us of the tree of glory on which Christ accomplished our salvation, let us pray to the Lord. R.
-May the joy of Christmas always be in our homes, let us pray to the Lord. R.
-That the peace of Christ may dwell in our hearts and in the world, let us pray to the Lord. R.
May the God of glory fill our hearts with peace and joy, now and forever. Amen.

The Parish of St Paul and St Ann

Christmas Tree of Remembrance

Parishioners are invited to place an ornament (some are available at the rear of the church or you may bring your own) on the Tree of Remembrance in honor of their loved ones. The tree will be included in the prayers and blessings of the Masses from Christmas Day through the Baptism of Our Lord on January 10th, at which time all are invited to take their blessed ornament home as a family keepsake.

Your Offering for Christmas

You know that we count heavily on your special generosity at Christmas time. This offering is traditionally a very large one here at St. Paul & St. Ann's and helps us meet major expenses throughout the year.

The generosity of the many families who traditionally donate as much as $150-$250 at Christmas is truly overwhelming, and we ask those who are able to do so to please continue this year.

Of course, we understand that everyone has a different financial situation and obligations. Surely, not every family is able to give that much. We only ask that you do what you can.

But if you've been blessed in 2021 with a good, stable income or are delighted — or even a little surprised — to find yourself a bit ahead this year, it would be wonderful if you could share your good fortune to help the parish along. It would mean so much!

May the Lord, who has been so generous, grant us a spirit of growing generosity throughout this holy season and in the coming New Year.

On our part, we'll do our best to use wisely all you give us so the whole parish benefits. Our parish is greatly blessed because of you. Thank you for your prayers, your generosity, and good faith.

— Fr. Vladimír

Dear Friends,

One of the most beloved images of Christmas time is the stately Christmas tree, bedecked with ornaments, lights, and garlands, and crowned with a star.

It stands surrounded by presents — our treasure of gifts for those we love most — carefully wrapped in paper of red and green, with designs of Santa and holly, with gold and silver bows.

Perhaps, as we get older, we realize that the tree and these gifts are more than they appear as we begin to glimpse their true significance: the precious gifts of our time on this earth with our family and friends, the memories of past Christmases, and the consolation of the joy and hope that, especially at this time of year, can shine through the darkness of our anxiety and fear.

Yet all these gifts are only pale reflections of what we know is the greatest Gift of all, the gift at the heart of Christmas, the gift of the Father to us: Jesus Christ. "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son," proclaimed the evangelist John (3:16). Jesus was born to be our healer, our Savior, the One who would love us to the end with unimaginable love, and who will one day take us to be with Him in everlasting joy.

As we open our presents on this Christmas Day, may we enjoy these good things and rejoice in the love of those who gave them to us. But may we especially receive in our hearts the gift of the love of Jesus — and offer our love as our gift to Him.

May God bless you, your families, and your loved ones at this holy time of grace and peace. Merry Christmas!

Fr. Vladimír
& the Oratorian Fathers

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, The Holy Family of Nazareth

The piece below is excerpted from an essay by our beloved Deacon Mark Czerwinski in the Dec. 30, 2018 bulletin.

It's true that the Holy Family of Nazareth is the perfect revelation of the human family. But the emphasis here is on human, and that should speak to us every day of our lives.

... The Holy Family grew bored. They got frustrated. They had good days and bad days. They laughed and danced at weddings; cried and mourned at funerals.

They prayed together. They went to synagogue on the Sabbath, and, as we heard today in the Gospel, traveled to Jerusalem to fulfill their obligations to God and the Temple.

They were, when all was said and done, a family. ...

Being a family is not easy. Every family, even the Holy Family, struggles to do God's will both when it's easy and when it calls for hardship and sacrifice. That's part of what makes marriage a vocation, a sacrament of service.

Today, the Church encourages us to look to Jesus, Mary, and Joseph for inspiration, example, and encouragement. They were a model family in that both parents worked hard, helped each other, understood and accepted each other as God's gift, and took good care of their Son so that He might grow up not only in human knowledge but also as a Child of God.

Now, I know what you're thinking. All this was a snap for the Holy Family of Nazareth because, despite whatever hardships and tensions of daily life they had, Jesus, God Himself, was there with them.

But that, my friends, would be a lame argument. As Catholics, we know better. We know that our families have that same advantage. Jesus Himself is always with us.
