Month of the Rosary

October is celebrated by the Catholic Church as the Month of the Rosary, centered on the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary on October 7. Pope St. Pius V established this feast in 1571 after the Christian victory at the Battle of Lepanto, which he credited to the faithful praying the rosary. Two years earlier, he officially approved the rosary in its current form, adding the second half of the Hail Mary and the "Glory Be." In his papal bull Consueverunt Romani Pontifices, he emphasized the rosary's two key elements: vocal prayer and meditation on the mysteries of Christ.

Later, Pope Leo XIII strongly promoted the rosary, writing numerous encyclicals that encouraged devotion throughout October. Over the centuries, saints such as Louis de Montfort praised the rosary as a powerful spiritual weapon. St. John Paul II also called it his favorite prayer, describing it as a way to meditate with Mary on the life of Jesus.
