FROM THE PASTOR

Easter, the holiest time of the year is once again upon us, as we celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. While Easter is most certainly a time of rebirth, new life, and joy, the season of Lent is one of penitence. As we have spent the last forty days reflecting and praying, I am hopeful that each one of us has discovered or rediscovered the things for which we are thankful. Certainly we all have our crosses to bear, but with Christ's resurrection and promise of a seat at His heavenly banquet, we should be rejoicing for the gifts of our families, friends, jobs, homes, and so many other blessings. Here at our parish, we are thankful for all the wonderful people who make St. Paul & St. Ann the special place it is, a home away from home, and our extended church family. So thank you to all the priests for celebrating Mass and bringing us to communion with God. Thank you to our Deacons who baptize our children and bring us the Gospel. Thank you to our office staff who work diligently to make sure that the parish functions smoothly. Thank you to our maintenance staff who keep the physical church functioning and clean. Thank you to those who work in all our ministries; who bring communion to the ill and homebound, who run our food cupboards, and to those who donate and deliver the goods. Thank you to our lectors, extraordinary ministers, those who create and run our videos and media, and create our bulletin through which we can communicate to you all the amazing things that happen in our churches. Thank you to the youngest members of our ministries – our altar servers and especially their parents. We are grateful to our PREP leaders and teachers, RCIA leaders, and youth ministers, and all those who are too numerous to mention here. Thank you, our parishioners, the spiritual church, and the body of Christ. As we celebrate the Risen Lord with our loved ones this Easter, let us begin anew. Let us strengthen our dedication to God and to each other, let us pray for peace and guidance in our world. May we find in the Risen Christ whatever it is that we feel is missing in our lives, because if we have faith in Him, we have everything we need. God bless and keep you.

EASTER Sunday

April 20, 2025 – Easter Sunday

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

For any Christian, today's event demands that any and all written references to it ought to be made in upper case letters. For this is the event that establishes our faith. More than any slogan printed on a tee shirt; or any catch phrase in a TV commercial, this gospel message of triumph must be writ large in the annals of human history. Why? Because "JESUS IS RISEN" is all one needs to cite for proof that Jesus is God approved by the Father and the Holy Spirit and all that He taught was the truth.

The secular world has a perennial problem grappling with this story, great as it is. It has the facts of the case in Holy Scripture. But how does one handle all that if God is non-existent? So, it has to invent a counter proposal. So, it tells us to celebrate Spring with its own new life after Winter using a new suit or dress; cuddly rabbits and chicks; colored eggs and jellybeans in a basket. In that way Easter can be ignored or at least be seen as the fantasy of the foolish.

On the other hand, Christ's empty tomb thrills believers as they contemplate all that went before. The gloom of Good Friday yields to the glory of an empty tomb and then of seeing and eating with the Person who had been placed there. We realize anew that the rest of the gospel stories involved not just a magnetic preacher or a powerful healer, but the very Son of God. The record is there for all to see as a chronicle of God's time among us and how He spent it. That the One who went to a wedding at Cana or climbed the hills of Galilee; or walked on the water toward a fishing boat filled with frightened Apostles; who made a lame man walk again and a blind man see was in fact divine! Indeed! He was the very One whose coming had been foretold by the Hebrew prophets and who saved the world from its captivity to sin and despair. And He did it through obedience and a suffering cruel and bloody in a human nature just like ours, minus any sin.

As a result, our Faith in Him glows with a new brightness, Hope rings in with louder bells and Love bursts through any confining definitions. When you add in the fact that all of us are invited to be part of this glorious story, yet to be fulfilled in a new life beyond the grave, and you have the formula for endless, deep joy.

Of course, implied here is the fact that we also have a duty to live as closely as we can to the way Christ did. To have an outward directed life. And to realize that our lives are not all about us, but about Him. To use a figure from another happy season, we can recall old Marley's Christmas Eve warning to Scrooge about this same understanding of earthly life. Meanwhile, we have a one-word summary of all this, which is the one great watchword of this season: it is "Alleluia!"

Happy Easter to you and yours!
