HAVE YOU EVER THOUGHT ABOUT BECOMING AN ALTAR SERVER? IS GOD CALLING YOU?

ST. ANN'S ALTAR SERVER MINISTRY

This very important ministry offers our young people a chance to provide a vital service by assisting the priests in the celebration of Sunday Mass, the heart of our faith. Servers may also be given opportunities to serve at weddings, funerals, and other special liturgies. It is a great privilege and honor to serve at the altar of Jesus Christ. They will be fully trained and will quickly grow to love serving at the altar.

If interested, please email Deacon Jerry at stannservers@yahoo.com or call the Parish Office at 845-268-4464

Recruitment is open to boys and girls who were Baptized in the Roman Catholic Church, are in at least the 4th grade, and who have received their First Holy Communion.

THE PARABLE OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

It can happen, so they tell me that the familiar opening words of a play, song or story can invite a certain drift to daydream. So, for example, a Sunday morning Mass goer, particularly one who hasn't prepared the Scripture Readings beforehand, hears the words "A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho" and a realization clicks in his/her mind: "Oh, this is the one about the Good Samaritan." Almost immediately, images of a hearty Sunday breakfast after Mass start to form, or thoughts about a trip to the beach come to the fore.

Such is a real shame when it happens. That is because each new reading of Scripture, particularly of familiar passages, brings a new insight, or a new application to one's life. That pesky neighbor who mows the grass early on a Saturday, the one day you can sleep in, is suddenly involved in a serious car accident. How do you react? "Am I supposed to be 'the good Samaritan' here?" we ask ourselves, and pay him a hospital visit?

And if I cling tightly to my prejudices about people of a different origin or skin color, am I giving in to a pre-Christian way of viewing other people?

If only this thing called "Christian living" weren't so demanding! If only Jesus had never told this parable of the Good Samaritan, that we hear again today!

This short story is called "Two at the Counter." Three minutes had elapsed since I had taken my seat at the counter. Waitresses passed me by; two cooks and a busboy took on notice of my presence. My ego was soothed only because the truck driver seated next to me was ignored the same way. "Maybe this counter is off limits," I said to him. "Maybe they are short of help," he responded.

"Maybe they don't want our business," I said. "Maybe they're taking care of those at the tables," was his reply. The hands on the clock continued to move. Maybe they don't like us," I insisted. "The air conditioning feels so good I don't mind waiting," he said.

At this point a harried waitress stopped to tell us that the water had been cut off, and the dish washer was not functioning. My nameless compatriot smiled; thanked the waitress; and left. I did not like him!

Three times I had sought his support for my obnoxious attitude, but he had let me down. Only later did I realize that he had chosen to practice what I preach.

God love you and give you His peace.

The church celebrates Our Lady of Mount Carmel on July 16th. While Our Lady of Mount Carmel is the patron saint of the Carmelite Order, the basis for the universal Church honoring Mary under this title dates to her appearance to an English Carmelite St. Simon Stock in the 13th century. The Blessed Mother gave this sacramental to St. Simon Stock in 1251 with the promise that “Whoever dies invested with this Scapular shall be preserved from the eternal flames. It is a sign of salvation, a sure safeguard in danger, a pledge of peace, and of my special protection until the end of the ages.” Those who wear the Brown Scapular receive the Sabbatine Privilege, the promise that they will be delivered from purgatory on the first Saturday after their death, Saturday being the day dedicated to the Blessed Virgin.

It is said that the future Pope John XXII had a vision of Our Lady who promised this on three conditions: 1) Wearing the Scapular, 2) Observing chastity (the 6th and 9th commandments) according to one’s state in life, and 3) praying the Little Office (of Our Lady). For those who could not read, they must observe the fasts of the Church, and practice abstinence on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Pope St. Pius X gave permission for the faithful to use a Scapular medal in 1910. However, Third Order Carmelites are still obligated to wear cloth Scapulars.

The formal name of the [Carmelite] order is “Order of the Brothers of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Mount Carmel.” This order looks to the Old Testament prophets Elijah and Elisha as their spiritual fathers. There have been many Carmelite saints, including John of the Cross, Teresa of Avila, Thérèse of Lisieux, Elizabeth of the Trinity, Teresa of the Andes, and Edith Stein. John of the Cross, Teresa of Avila, and St. Thérèse of Lisieux are also Doctors of the Church.

The last time that Mary appeared at Fátima, she was dressed as Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Lúcia, one of the shepherd children, later said the Blessed Mother appeared this way “because Our Lady wants all to wear the Scapular... The reason for this is that the Scapular is our sign of consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.” Lúcia later became a Carmelite nun.

A Prayer to the Blessed Virgin Our Lady of Mount Carmel

O most beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendour of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me this my necessity. O Star of the Sea, help me and show me herein you are my Mother.
O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart, to succour me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power.
O, show me herein you are my Mother, O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee.
Sweet Mother, I place this cause in your hands. (3 times)
