OCTOBER 9, 2016: TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 2 Kings 5:14-17

Elisha cures Naaman of leprosy, which convinces Naaman that there is only one God. Naaman then asks to take some loads of soil from Israel, so that he can worship and make sacrifices to one true God on his own land.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 2:8-13

Paul reminds Timothy that Christ rose from the dead so that many people could be saved. Paul was being treated as a criminal and kept in chains but says, "There is no chaining the word of God!" Paul also says, "if we die in Christ, we will live in him. But if we deny him, he will deny us."

Gospel: Luke 17:11-19

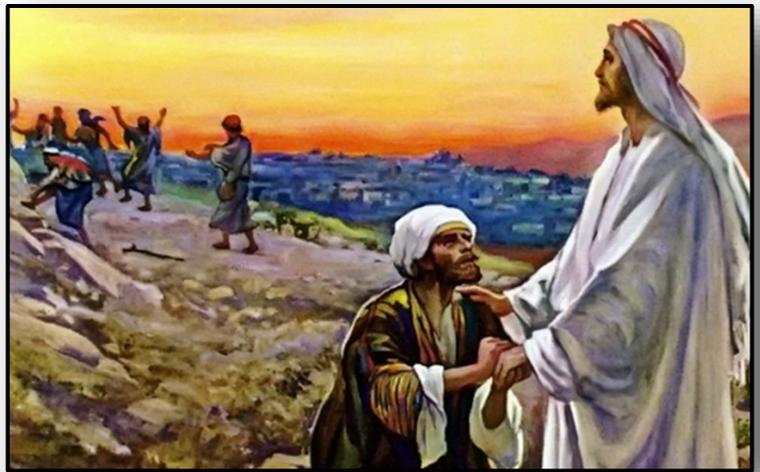

Jesus cures ten lepers, but only one returns to express gratitude for being healed. Jesus is disappointed that only one gave thanks to God, but tells that one, "Your faith has been your salvation."

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS - HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 9, 2016

"They stood at a distance from him and raised their voices, saying, 'JESUS, MASTER! Have pity on us!' And when he saw them he said, 'Go show yourselves to the priests.'... 'Has none returned but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?' Then he said to him, 'Stand up and go, your faith has saved you.'"

A familiar gospel passage, usually attached to our celebration of Thanksgiving. Nine did what they were told to do, don't chastise them for that. One had a deeper insight to what happened, and he was praised and came back to Jesus.

As we soon will bring the Jubilee Year of Mercy to a close we, like the ten, call out 'have pity on us.' Why not take the seven works of mercy and put a name or face on them, as we find leprosy and hurt in those around us. 'Jesus Master', help me feed the hungry, support a shelter. Help me ease the thirst of someone. Assist me in giving some good clothing to a needy person. May we cry for the refugees and welcome the immigrant in our community. Allow me the privilege of praying for an incarcerated person, or lift this or another family's burden. A phone call to an elderly shut in, or a card to a person in rehab makes Jesus' compassion present. He didn't even touch the leper, but spiritually reached out to him. Simple things, but expressions of compassion, mercy, making Christ present to those whom Pope Francis calls the marginalized.

Please keep in your prayers the ill of our parish especially:

Peter Rasulo, Christopher Liva, Richard Dosing Sr., Mary Michna, Richard Ryan Sr., John Trevor Dabenigno, John Kelly, Kristin

Harkin, Susan Sullivan Manuele, Ambrosio Maldonado, Peter Frankevich, Aurea Cabanillas, Rita Stitham Gavin, William Bates, Guy Trepanier & Mary DeNardo.

And for those who have died marked by the sign of faith, especially: America Gonzales

October 1, 2016
Year of Mercy

Dear friends in the Lord,

As you may imagine, I receive quite a few letters from the faithful every day. No letter cheers me more than that of a parishioner extolling the dedicated service of his/her pastor. And, as you know, so many of our pastors were spiritually formed and academically trained at our own Saint Joseph's Seminary in Dunwoodie, Yonkers.

Our seminarians are the future shepherds of our flock, spiritual guides for our faithful, and leaders in our communities. It is our responsibility, therefore, to ensure that they are as well prepared as possible to serve the Church here in New York. This year, Saint Joseph's Seminary begins its 120th year of forming and ordaining holy, faithful, and dedicated priests. Our seminary is held in the highest regard, each year with other dioceses and religious orders joining our priestly and diaconate formation programs.

With this letter, I invite you to prayerfully consider a sacrificial gift to the Annual Seminary Collection, to be conducted the weekend of October 15 and 16. Your support will provide tuition and room and board for more than forty seminarians of the archdiocese. It also allows us to continue our solid tradition of excellence in academically training and spiritually forming candidates for priesthood and diaconate. In short, your support will help prepare young men who will inspire those letters of admiration that I receive daily about so many of our great priests.

The priesthood is a life of sacrifice and service. As you know, we do not have as many men making the commitment to serve as priests as we did years ago, and I am so grateful to those who accept the Lord's call. Please assist me in providing for our future priests who will hand on the life and traditions of the Church as they embark on their training to become your priests.

With prayerful best wishes, I am,

Faithfully in Christ,

Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

The Test for Admission into Catholic High Schools (TACHS), the entrance test for Catholic High Schools in the Archdiocese of New York, will be administered on Friday,
