Dear Parishioners,

The Lord Jesus (blessed be His Name) assures His Apostles that they will all have their faith shaken and they will flee for their lives. Peter says no. Even though all may have their faith in You shaken mine will never be. Even though I should have to die with you, he says, I will not deny You. (Matthew 26:33). Like a bad weather report, Peter's prediction falls flat.

St. Remigius, one of the early Fathers of the Church in France, says that what Jesus affirms by His power of foreknowledge, Peter denies through his love of Christ. We may take a practical lesson, says the same St. Remy, that as much as we are confident of the fervor of our faith, so much should we be in fear of the weakness of our flesh. Peter seems culpable, first, because he contradicted the Lord's words. Secondly, he is at fault because he proudly set himself above the rest of the Apostles, and thirdly, because he attributed everything to himself as though he had power to persevere on his own.

Christ allows his fall? Why? To heal him of his attitude of superiority and self-sufficiency, and convince him of the frailty of his human nature so that he will trust not so much in himself but in Christ. Observe how after the Resurrection, taught by his fall, Peter speaks to Christ more humbly, and no more does he resist His words. After the rising of the Redeemer, Peter understands that everything good that a human accomplishes is to be ascribed to God's grace. As the Acts of the Apostles tell us, after curing a crippled man Peter said to the amazed crowd: Why look you so earnestly upon us, as though by our own power and holiness we had made this man to walk? (Acts 3:12).

The Passion of Christ teaches us that God loves us more than words can describe. The Passion also teaches us the misery and horror of sin, but also that good always triumphs over evil in the end. Through St. Peter's folly, the Passion of the Christ also reminds us of a great doctrine: that a man's will power is not enough, unless he enjoys Divine support.

Happy Holy Week!

God bless you!

BAPTISM SEMINAR
SATURDAY, April 29, 2023

Immediately following the 6:00pm Mass at St. Thomas Church there will be a meeting for expectant parents and parents of new-born babies. Parents are expected to be at Mass as well as the meeting. We urge parents to attend before the baby is born. We also urge Godparents to participate by attending this meeting. This is a requirement for all parents prior to the Baptism of their child.

DIVINE MERCY PILGRIMAGE MAY 20TH

On Saturday, May 20th, parishioners and pastor will travel to Massachusetts for a pilgrimage to the National Shrine of Divine Mercy. At the shrine we will have Mass, Confession, prayers and picnic. The shrine features a gift shop with very beautiful religious items. We will depart at 6:00 AM and return by 9:30 PM.
The bus will depart from St. Thomas Church. $20 per person. Children 17 and under are free. Price includes bus, box lunch and dinner. Please phone the parish office to reserve a place.

EASTER DUTY

Every Catholic who has been initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist is obliged to receive Communion at least once a year. This precept should be fulfilled during the Easter Season. Catholics are also bound to confess serious (mortal) sins at least once a year, but this is not limited to the Lenten/Easter Season. Frequent reception of the Eucharist and confession are strongly encouraged.

SICK & HOMEBOUND

If someone is homebound or in the hospital, please notify us. Arrangements can be easily made for the Sacrament of Anointing. Holy Communion is brought to the sick by the Priests and Eucharistic Ministers weekly or monthly as requested. Please let us know your needs by calling the parish office.

Making a Good Confession

Five Steps for a Good Confession

Examine your conscience.
Be sincerely sorry for your sins.
Confess your sins to a priest.
Resolve to amend your life.
After your confession, do the penance the priest assigns.

Procedure in the Confessional

You say: "Bless me, Father, for I have sinned. It has been (state the length of time since your last confession) since my last confession. These are my sins."

Confess your mortal sins and the number of times committed.
Confess the venial sins you have committed since your last confession.
After you have finished telling your sins, you should say:
"For these and all the sins of my past, I am truly sorry."
The priest will now give the necessary advice, assign your penance, and ask you to say the Act of Contrition:

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart.
In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good,
I have sinned against You whom I should love above all things.
I firmly intend, with Your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin.
Our Savior Jesus Christ, suffered and died for us.
In His name, my God, have mercy.
Wait and listen as the priest gives the absolution.
You say, "Thank you, Father," then leave the confessional and perform the penance assigned by the priest.

Question:

What is a pilgrimage? Why do people go on them?

A pilgrimage is a spiritual journey to visit a holy site, such as the shrine of a saint, a place where the Blessed Virgin Mary has appeared, or an historic church or chapel. What makes a pilgrimage different from a vacation and a pilgrim distinct from a tourist is the spirit in which the journey is made. Pilgrimages are really a symbol of our spiritual journey in life, reminding us that this world is not our true home and that we spend our lives journeying to our homeland, which is the Kingdom of God.

Pilgrimages — which can be as involved as a trip to Rome or the Holy Land or as simple as visiting the Blessed Sacrament in a local parish church — are also an opportunity for us to step out of the rhythms and limits of our daily lives to seek out connection with God in a special way, by visiting a holy place. At times, such as on a special feast, a jubilee, or the anniversary of the dedication of the church, special graces (called "indulgences") can also be offered to pilgrims, helping to enrich our experience of the celebration.
